Michael J. Schudrick

Rabbi Michael J. Schudrick, 32 years old, is currently the rabbi of the Jewish Community of Japan. Rabbi Schudrick received his primary and secondary education in NY area day schools. For undergraduate studies, he attended SUNY at Stony Brook, where he majored in Religious Studies. He was ordained in 1980 by the Jewish Theological Seminary. After ordination, he continued his graduate studies at Columbia University where he was awarded an MA in History in 1982.

Before Rabbi Schudrick's move to Japan, he traveled extensively in Eastern Europe in order to research and strengthen the remnants of Jewish communities there.

Since August 1983, Rabbi Schudrick has served as the spiritual leader of the Jewish Community of Japan. During that time, the recent rise in anti-Semitic literature has taken place, something which Rabbi Schudrick has closely monitored. He has been involved from the beginning with several efforts to counter these books and articles and has recently written his own analysis of what has happened and why.

Michael Schudrick is the son of Rabbi and Mrs. David and Doris Schudrick of Silver Spring. Rabbi Schudrick and his wife, Roberta, have one child, Arianna Zviya, who just recently turned a year old.

Official Urges Japan To Join 'Star Wars'

TOKYO (UPI) — A leading member of Prime Minister Yasuhiro Nakasone's ruling party Friday recommended that Japan join research in President Reagan's "Star Wars" plan on the private business level, a news service said.

The recommendation is the first concrete proposal made by an official since Reagan invited Japan and Western European allies to participate in research on the space-based missile defense system, known formally as the Strategic Defense Initiative.

The Kyodo news service said Masayuki Fujio, chairman of the ruling Liberal Democratic Party's Policy Affairs Research Council, made the recommendation during a meeting with a ranking Foreign Ministry official.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman confirmed Fujio met Friday with Hiroaki Fujii, head of the ministry's North American Affairs Bureau.

The Kyodo report, quoting Liberal Democratic Party officials, said Fujio suggested that Japan follow West Germany's approach to "Star Wars" research during the meeting with Fujii.

The West German government has decided not to contribute directly to the research, preferring instead to encourage private businesses and research organizations to take part in the project.

Fujio's recommendation shows that the ruling party supports his proposal to encourage private businesses to take part in "Star Wars" research, the Kyodo report said.

Japan does not want to be left out of development of the most advanced technologies, the report quoted the Liberal Democratic Party officials as saying.

The Japanese government has sent two delegations to Washington to discuss its role in "Star Wars," but Nakasone has only said he has an "understanding" of the project, for which Reagan has requested $26 billion through 1989.

subject Japanese boycott of Israel

As I alerted you in my memo of November 10, we had received a mailgram which indicated that Akio Morita, Chairman of Sony and Vice Chairman of Keidanren, was out of the country but would be responding to my letter upon his return to Japan.

His letter is enclosed and it is a most gracious and conciliatory tone which contrasts with the stronger posture in his earlier letter.

Naturally, Morita is happy to report on some tangible activity which has taken place, particularly the visit of the Israeli manufacturers group and the level of substantial "hosting" which was provided by Keidanren. My Japanese advisors underscore the fact that a hosted dinner with "senior Japanese businessmen" is not an incidental ritual dance, but rather solid positive symbolism.

I shall consult again with David Kimche and, via our Consul General, the Israeli ambassador in Toyko, who has already expressed his gratitude for our efforts to the Israeli Foreign Ministry (see copy of October 2 memorandum from Ambassador Dr. Yaccov Cohen).

If you have any suggestions for inclusion with our response to Morita, please let me have them as soon as possible. On a parallel note, a meeting with the Japanese Consul General in San Francisco is being arranged for later in December on both the relationship with Israel issues and the literary anti-semitism which has captured so much press in recent weeks.

Best regards,

U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Weiner:

Thank you very much for your letter of October 14, which reached my office on November 2. I have been away on a business trip to the U.S. and, I hope you excuse this delay in responding.

It was a pleasure for Keidanren to meet the members of the Israeli delegation in Tokyo last month. Your delegation was met by Keidanren's Chairman Mr. Eishiro Saito and leading officials of Keidanren for an hour, followed by a presentation by Mr. K. Nukazawa--Keidanren's chief economist--on the overview of Japan's trade and economic scene. Subsequently, the Keidanren members had the opportunity for an informal exchange with your delegates at a dinner attended by senior Japanese businessmen.

Aside from this Keidanren-hosted dinner, there was a further opportunity for exchange of ideas at a reception at the Imperial Hotel which was hosted by Mr. N. Hanamura, Vice-chairman of MIPRO and Executive Vice-chairman and President of Keidanren, attended by more than 200 people. I believe this was a useful forum for communication and we were very pleased when Ambassador Cohen informed Keidanren officials that he found the occasion to be an informative one.

Perhaps I should mention here that the reason for our asking MIPRO to be the first contact for the Israeli delegation was due to the fact that we assumed most of your delegates to be interested in expanding sales of manufactured products. I believe we were correct in this regard, for your delegates had contact with many Japanese companies, and some contacts could not be made due to time constraints. I am happy to report to you that Keidanren and MIPRO were both instrumental in assisting the Israeli Embassy in identifying proper contacts and in making appointments. We were all pleased to learn that some business was contracted from our appointments.

As you probably will have learned by the time my letter reaches you, Mr. Hanamura has decided to lead a group of Japanese business leaders to visit Israel. Their plan is to meet with Prime Minister Shamir, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Peres, and the Minister of Industry and Trade, Mr. Sharon. I have been informed that they will also be meeting with Mr. Lautman and Mr. Eisenberg as well as other leaders from the Manufacturer's Association of Israel. I am certain that their trip, which includes a visit to a Kibbutz, and various firms, will be a valuable learning experience.

In closing, I would like you to know, Mr. Weiner, that the Arab boycott does not now, and has never, influenced Keidanren policy.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Akio Morita

With reference to my meeting with Mr. Akio Morita, Chief Executive Officer of Sony Corporation, attached is the letter he received from the American Jewish Committee during his visit to San Francisco last July.

It should be pointed out that during the meeting, Morita continually tried to justify Japan's position.

It would be more than helpful if other Jewish organizations could write to the heads of various Japanese companies to help bring about change in their attitudes and actions .....

Wishing you a Happy Holiday,

Dr. Yaacov Cohen

P.S. Please express our full appreciation and thanks to Mr. Schmelzer and Mr. Weiner for the letter they wrote which helped us so much. Please encourage them to write additional letters to the "CEO's" of other large Japanese corporations or to the "CEO's" of their affiliated companies on the West Coast.

Hungary: Wallenberg died a Stalin victim

The Associated Press

BUDAPEST — A Hungarian government daily broke virtual official silence on Raoul Wallenberg yesterday to report that the Swedish diplomat, who vanished after saving many thousands of Hungarian Jews, died in a Moscow jail in 1947.

The Magyar Hirlap newspaper said in a full-page article that Wallenberg died in Moscow's infamous Lyubianka Prison "as a victim of [Soviet dictator Josef Stalin's] personality cult."

Wallenberg disappeared in 1945. As a secretary in the Swedish Embassy in Budapest, he is credited with saving 100,000 Hungarian Jews from Nazi deportation and extermination by providing them with Swedish immigration permits.

Sweden sent him to aid the Nazis' victims late in World War II. Wallenberg was taken prisoner by Soviet forces in Hungary. In 1957, the Soviets said he had died of a heart attack 10 years earlier, but rumors persisted long afterward that he was still alive.

Dear Dikoku E.S.J.

Wallenberg family is so busy to restore their image and power.

Their campaign on credit to Jews has started at Hungary.

Oil starts at Norway. image starts at Hungary. Are they funny?

Very truly yours

M.B. Tada S.J.

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 1 — The Tower of Babel stood in Uppsala, and wandering Swedes spread order and civilization afar. Greek goddesses were really Swedish women who had rekked south, their language becoming the tongue of perfection, the vernacular in paradise.

Swedenborg, the 18th-century mystic philosopher, considered such theories, and mulled over the idea that Sweden was the original Garden of Eden. "His contemporary, Olof Rudbeck, insisted that Atlantis, no myth, never mind the cold, had existed right here at home, the light of the universe, the hope of mankind.

The researchers said that the institute ran parallel to a program of mass sterilization, involving 15,000 people, ending only after World War II. The literature of the period, now resurfaced, has rebounded to strike Alva Myrdal, the 1962 Nobel Peace Prize winner, who called for a strengthening of the sterilization laws in 1935. The last castrations in Sweden on "humanity grounds" are believed to date to 1979.

Mr. Marc Tanenbaum
The American Jewish Committee
165 East 56th Street
New York, New York 10022-2746

Dear Marc:

We are delighted that you will be joining us on February 3rd for the Japanese-Jewish consultation. We anticipate a full and productive day. Rabbi Michael Schudrick, the head of the Jewish Community Center in Tokyo, is expected to fly to the United States to attend the meeting. Also expected to join us for part of the day is Congressman Dan Glickman (D-KS) who has long been concerned about issues having to do with Israel, Japan and anti-Semitism.

The day will begin with Rabbi Schudrick's assessment of the current situation in Japan, to be followed by a full discussion. The enclosed paper written by Rabbi Schudrick reviews both the historical and current situation. In the afternoon, Professor David Goodman will lead off the discussion of positive programming strategies which could lead to greater mutual understanding. Our meeting is designed to allow the full participation of consultation members.

Again, we are glad you will be with us. Please remember that the meeting is from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm on Wednesday, February 3 at the American Jewish Committee's Washington Office (2027 Massachusetts Avenue, NW). Lunch will be served. Please contact Judy Golub or myself at 202-265-2000 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
