I reply to your letter to the Norwegian Minister of Foreign Affairs of August 29, about research on the television series Holocaust, I regret to say that we have no study available. There is a lot of press material written both before and after it was transmitted, but time has not permitted us to go through it in a more systematic way. No special audience research was conducted.

The transmission times were as follows:

|           |            |        |                   |        |         |
