The Junton Place Synagogue

My Dear Jack,

I appreciate very much your warm and thoughtful letter of October 1st and the enclosed check.

It is a genuine privilege to serve your receptive, warm and thoughtful congregants, and I am grateful to Rabbi David Kahane and your good self for making it possible.

I deeply appreciate the helpfulness and care of Harriet and Annabelle, and so many others who ease my way through your Tor.

With every good wish to you and your family for a healthy and peaceful New Year,
Cordially,
Marc

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum,

We are privileged to be able to thank you again for conducting our Auditorium High Holy Days Services.

I know that your congregation consisting of your loyal following at Sutton Place Synagogue and many of our new members, were deeply moved and uplifted by your leadership and we are proud to have a man of your stature and deep knowledge of Judaism conduct our High Holy Days Services.

May you be blessed with many years of lasting health and happiness so that you may continue your exceptional efforts on behalf of Jewry everywhere.

Our best wishes to you and your loved ones for a happy and peaceful 5751.

A WORD FROM OUR RABBI

Shalom!

At the approach of Rosh Hashanah, I convey heartfelt best wishes for a New Year of life and health, of contentment and achievement.

Rabbis approach High Holiday sermon preparation very seriously. We spend a good portion of the summer months in meditation and research for the ideas which we share with our congregations during the most sacred days of the year. Not merely are we overwhelmed by the sanctity of the season, but on a more empirical level, we fully realize that this may be the only occasion during the year when a rabbi can communicate and possibly touch the majority of his congregation.

We always attempt to select topics that are relevant and appropriate. We strive for sermons that are uplifting and inspirational. But on the other hand, the content should also be informative, provocative and even controversial. It is no easy matter to appeal to congregants who differ vastly in age, educational background, interests and commitment.

What are some of the most vital Jewish issues today? I personally feel that the recent unrest in Israel; Black anti-Semitism; Jewish identification; and the emptiness, alienation and frustration of personal life are subjects worthy of consideration this particular year. Therefore, I have chosen the following five topics which you may want to consider before we meet each other in the Sanctuary on the High Holidays:

Eve of Rosh Hashanah - Sunday, September 11: YOU CAN MAKE IT A HAPPY YEAR

How to add content and meaning to our individual lives.

Rosh Hashanah Morning - Monday, September 12: BLACKS AND JEWS

The challenge of Black anti-Semitism. How serious is it? What can we do about it?

Second Day Rosh Hashanah - Tuesday, September 13: A SECOND CHANCE

What would you do differently in your personal life if you had a second chance?

Kol Nidre - Tuesday evening, September 20: SEPARATE NOT THYSELF FROM THE COMMUNITY

Jewish identification, Jewish pride, dignity and self-respect.

Yom Kippur Morning - Wednesday, September 21: THE UNREST IN ISRAEL

The media has manipulated and distorted the Intifada. What does it all mean? What are the prospects for peace?

I look forward to sharing the high Holidays with you.

SCHOOL NOTES

It is a pleasure to be back with Temple Shalom! During my seven years teaching here, it was a privilege to have many of the community's children as my students. This year promises to be an exciting and entertaining education experience for everyone associated with our Religious School.

The Temple's Board of Education, chaired by Carol Lichtenfeld; the Committee members, Sandy Oster, Heidi Spector, Gloria Shenkman, Ruth Schreiber, Beth Beck, Judy Pauker, Susan Taplin, Eva Cooperman and Susan King; Rabbi Silverman, Cantor Cohen, Norma Perlstein, Barbara Geraghty, the professional teaching staff and I have been working during the summer to make our children's Jewish educational experience second to none.

I look forward to meeting each of you. Please contact me if you would like to discuss your children's school experiences, or any special needs of which we should be aware.

Gilda Vogel, Principal

It is a pleasure to greet the congregation in this, the first Rosh Hashanah Bulletin of my term as president. Many exciting things are happening at Temple Sholom, and it is my hope that together we can make our Temple even more the center of Jewish life in Greenwich than it already is.

In the past few months we have added 16 new families, many of whom will contribute to our growing school population. Under the guidance of our principal, Gilda Vogel, we anticipate that our school will thrive with experienced teachers and an expanded curriculum.

In addition to the very full program developed by the Board of Education for our youth, Temple Sholom will offer programs for the entire congregation, including a cultural series and adult education classes. Sisterhood activities will continue to enhance our Temple life.

We hope to inaugurate a series of outreach ecumenical and community service projects. My goal of promoting Temple Sholom as a positive influence for generic good works should be much enhanced by a successful programming effort directed toward the entire community.

While not all planned Temple activities can be listed in a short message, no correspondence from me to the congregation would be complete without some mention of our very exciting building plans, the planning and funding of which are now well underway. Upon your arrival at Temple Sholom for High Holiday services, you will see a sample wall showing how the facade of the refurbished building will look. In the Lobby you will find drawings and a model of the entire project along with an updated report of the pledges received.

Your Temple is extremely fortunate to have a highly motivated and competent Board of Trustees and officers who are working very hard to improve the service of the Temple to its membership. We encourage your participation and always welcome your suggestions and comments.

The Board joins me in wishing you a happy and healthy New Year.

Rabbi Marc Tanenbaum
45 East 89th Street. #18F
New York, N.Y. 10128

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum,

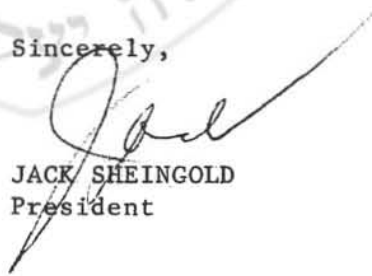

It is a privilege to be able to thank you once again for conducting our Auditorium Parallel High Holy Days Services.

Your congregation, which consisted of your loyal following at Sutton Place Synagogue and many of our new members, were deeply moved and uplifted by your leadership and we are proud to have a man of your stature and deep knowledge of Judaism conduct our High Holy Days Services.

We pray that you may be blessed with many years of lasting health and happiness so that you may continue your outstanding efforts on behalf of Jewry everywhere.

Our best wishes to you and your loved ones for a happy and peaceful 5750.

Sincerely,

JACK SHEINGOLD
President
