Dear Rabbi Tannenbaum:

I would like to invite you to participate as a panelist in a projected conference sponsored by Queens College.

Your reputation as an eloquent spokesman on values is well known and we would be indeed fortunate if you would be willing to be with us on January 8th.

The theme of the conference has emerged from several meetings we have had with administrators of Jewish, Catholic and Protestant Day Schools, as well as administrators of public schools - all of whom are concerned with values in the dimensions indicated by the theme and the workshop topics.

If you would like to discuss the conference with me, I would be delighted to do so. Please call - 520-7387.

Other panelists who have been invited are:

Father Nicholas Russo, PH.D.
Cathedral College

Dean Rachel Weddington
Dean of Teacher Education
City University of New York

Leonard Buder, New York Times Editor

Sincerely yours,

Janet Ezair

Dear Rabbi Tannenbaum:

I am most unhappy to inform you that registration for the Queens College sponsored conference of February 26th, Values in Education in a Time of Declining Resources, has not been sufficient to permit us to go ahead.

Perhaps the resources have declined so much already that little is left for attending conferences and hearing about values.

I am most appreciative of your willingness to participate with us and hope that we may have the opportunity soon to meet.

Sincerely yours,

Janet Ezair
Assistant Dean of Education
