My Dear Bob,

Just a brief word to tell you how much I enjoyed my visit with you and Fannie.

Those morning shmuss(im) are swiftly becoming the highlights of my visits to Chautauqua.

Ralph Loew wrote me his warm appreciation of your very meaningful response to Paul Opsahl. You are an authentic "navi la-goyim" even in your spare time.

Continue to have a restful summer.

Cordially,

Dear Ralph,

This will confirm our understanding regarding my acceptance of your kind invitation to take part in a dialogue with Paul Opsahl on Wednesday and Thursday, July 7th and 8th, at Chautauqua.

I would have responded to your earlier, however, I have been on such a hectic travel schedule that I have fallen behind in responding to good letters such as yours.

I look forward with much pleasure to spending some time with you and Mrs. Loew in July.

With warmest personal good wishes, I am

Cordially yours,

Dear Marc:

I'm delighted that you can spend two days here with us at Chautauqua and I'm counting on your being present on Wednesday and Thursday, July 7 and 8. Paul Opsahl will have the lectures on Monday and Tuesday and it would be fine if you and he could have a brief dialogue at the conclusion of your two lectures. I'm going to chat with him about this possibility when I see him in a few weeks.

It's extraordinarily important that we have this quality of Jewish-Christian dialogue, especially during this Bicentennial year and during the week of July 4th. I'm so happy that we can have such distinguished leaders as you and Paul to guide us in our discussion.

As usual we will care for your travel expenses, for your full entertainment at Chautauqua and an honorarium for $300.00. Enclosed is your contract, in addition to several forms which require your attention.

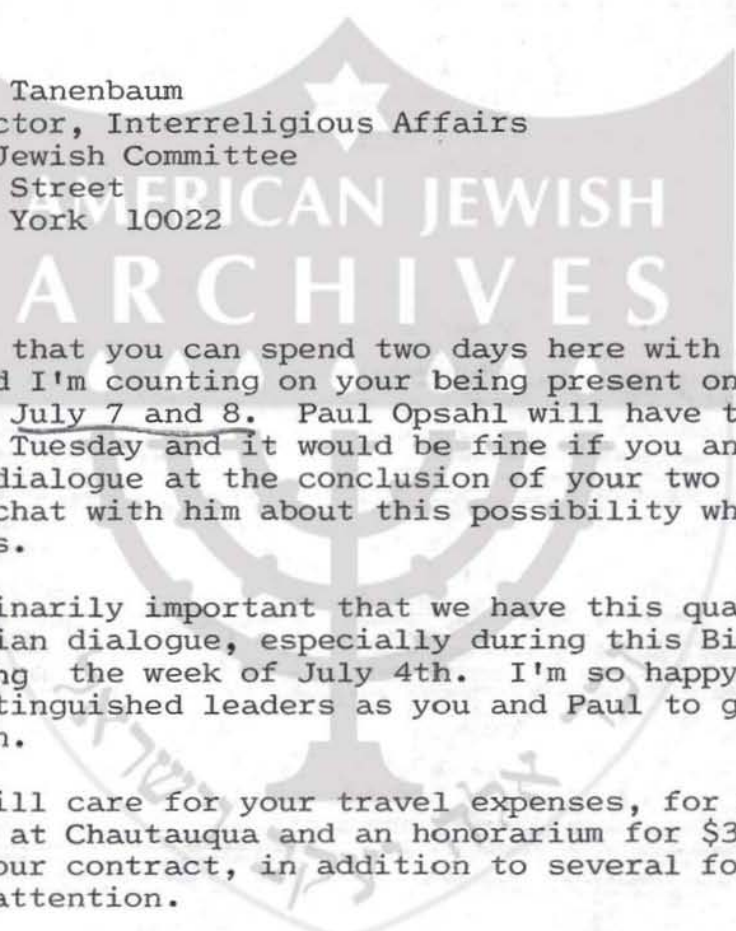

Every good wish to you always.

Cordially,

Ralph W. Loew
