Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum:

Now that the Installation Weekend is a thing of the past, it does give one the opportunity of reflecting on what a memorable occasion this was for the congregation. I am quite sure that you could sense the interest and deep appreciation of those that were in attendance at our Breakfast Forum on Sunday morning.

Please accept our heartfelt thanks for not only making that morning a most interesting and provocative one, but for your efforts to be with us at that time.

Sincerely yours,

TOBA K. ROCHBERG, Chairman

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum:

We have been able to finalize the plans for Rabbi Corson's Installation on Sunday, November 28th, and the congregation is expectantly looking forward to this memorable occasion.

I had hoped that by now I would have had the printed program for Sunday evening's Sanctuary Formal Installation. I am sure that those who will be participating, and in your case, on Sunday morning, would like to know the names of the other speakers.

I am taking the liberty, therefore, to list for you those speakers who will be on the program Sunday evening. I hope that this will have some value for you.

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum,

A belated, apologetic, but most heartfelt note of thanks from all of us at Chizuk Amuno for your marvelous address on November 28th. It was an historic day for our congregation and your presence added immeasurably to our joy.

We were very honored to have you.

Dear Marc,

I can't tell you how much I appreciate your taking the time from your Thanksgiving weekend vacation to be with me at Chizuk Amuno on Sunday morning. Your talk was superb, and your kind words on my behalf, more than gracious. Numerous individuals who were present have requested a copy of your remarks, and we will be transcribing them in the near future for possible publication in booklet form, along with the Installation addresses of Sunday evening. Of course, before it is printed, we will be in touch with you regarding editing, etc.

On behalf of Ruth, myself, and the entire congregation, please accept my heartfelt thanks for helping make the Installation weekend a truly memorable occasion for all of us.

With warmest personal regards and best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

MAURICE S. CORSON

Dear Mr. Shor,

Thank you for your thoughtful letter of October 12th.

I look forward to being with you at the Sunday morning observance marking the installation of my good and esteemed colleague and friend, Rabbi Maurice Corson.

I am not sure at this moment whether I will be able to stay with you for the dinner. I have such a heavy schedule that week that it may be necessary for me to leave the city later that day. So, if it does not pose any hardships for you please consider this a tentative and "maybe" response.

With warmest personal good wishes, I am,

Cordially yours,

Dear Rabbi Tannenbaum:

I am extremely pleased to learn that you have graciously consented to be our speaker of the morning on Sunday, November 28. Although this is a Brotherhood Breakfast, it is in conjunction with the week-end celebration of Rabbi Corson's Installation and ladies will be invited to attend.

The formal Installation itself will take place on Sunday evening in the Main Sanctuary at 7:45 p.m. We are honored to have a delegation of friends and family of Rabbi Corson who will be journeying from Philadelphia for that evening. Our Officers and Board of Trustees are hosting a dinner at 6:00 p.m. to be preceded by cocktails at 5:30. Mr. Albert Chernin, Executive Director of the National Jewish Community Relations Advisory Council, and Rabbi Morris Goodblatt will be addressing us immediately after the dinner. We would be most pleased to have you be our guest to not only attend the dinner but to be seated on the Bimah during the Sanctuary program and to be recognized by the Chairperson of the evening.

Would you be kind enough, at your convenience, to let me know whether your plans will allow you to be with us on Sunday evening? I look forward with pleasure to the opportunity of meeting you.

Sincerely,

Henry Shor

Dear Rabbi Tannenbaum:

Rabbi Corson has advised me that you have been most gracious in honoring us with your presence as our speaker of the morning on Sunday, November 28. This is in conjunction with a weekend of celebration marking the formal Installation of Rabbi Corson.

Our schedule for Sunday morning is as follows:

Services	-	9:30 - 10:15 a.m.
Breakfast	-	10:15 - 11:00 a.m.
Program	-	11:00 - 12 Noon

Would you be kind enough to forward to me at your convenience a glossy print as well as a bio that can be used in conjunction with publicity releases.

As you probably know Rabbi Corson's formal Installation will occur on Sunday evening in a Sanctuary program that will begin at 7:45 p.m. Prior to this program and in honor of a number of guests of Rabbi Corson that will be arriving by bus from Philadelphia, the Officers and Board of Trustees will be hosting a dinner at 6:00 p.m. to be preceded by cocktails at 5:30. It would be our pleasure to have you attend the dinner and also to have a seat on the Pulpit during the formal Installation ceremonies. I am quite sure that our President, Henry O. Shor, in the next few days will extend to you an official invitation.

We are very elated and honored to know that you will be with us on Sunday, November 28.

Very truly yours,

STANLEY I. MINCH
Executive Director

subject November 28th plans

Rabbi Maurice Corson, newly installed rabbi at Chizuk Amuno Congregation, phoned to tell me he invited you to speak to his congregation on the morning of November 28th. If you should accept his invitation, what are the chances that you might be available that same Sunday - in the evening - for a small AJC Chapter program?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kindest regards,

Dear Marc,

Pursuant to our telephone conversation yesterday regarding the weekend of my Installation at Chizuk Amuno, I am writing to confirm our invitation to have you speak on Sunday morning, November 28th, at 11:00 a.m. The weekend program will begin on Shabbat with Seymour Siegel as our pulpit guest on Friday evening and Saturday morning.

On Sunday morning, our Brotherhood will sponsor a brunch followed by a lecture at which we anticipate a large attendance. On Sunday evening, the Board will host a dinner for out-of-town guests, at which Al Chernin will speak, followed by a formal Installation Service to be addressed by my good friend, Sidney Greenberg.

I am sure that the Brotherhood would be willing to pay an honorarium for you in order to facilitate your participation on Sunday morning. I do hope that you can accept this invitation. Of course, we would be delighted to have you remain as our honored guest for the evening program, should you wish to stay.

Looking forward to your early response.

With warmest wishes to you and yours for a healthy and prosperous New Year, I am,

Sincerely yours,

MAURICE S. CORSON
Rabbi
