My dear Bill,

Thank you for your warm and thoughtful letter of May 19th.

I am especially grateful to you for the really excellent article that you wrote about my talk and our interview. It is actually one of the best and most accurate pieces of reporting of a comprehensive and complicated subject and you did it in your typically first-class professional fashion.

Many thanks as well for the article on the Moonies and deprogramming. I hope to read it over this weekend.

It was wonderful seeing you again and I hope we have occasion to spend a little bit more time together, more in personal friendship and exchange than in professional business.

Have a good and relaxing summer!

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum,

I promised to send you the article about the newspaper reporter who lived the life of a "Moonie" recruit at a camp in California. It is enclosed. I wish it had been published in the Minneapolis Tribune. The clipping is from the St. Paul Pioneer Press.

I have also enclosed a copy of the article I wrote after your luncheon talk. You may have seen it in RNS. I heard a summary of it on a nationwide religious news radio program last Sunday.

Thanks again for your kind words at the luncheon.

Dear Marc:

On behalf of the entire production staff of People, may I thank you for your willingness to be a part of our program. I think that the interview with you and Cornelius Rijk was one of the most pleasant I have had, and all of the staff felt that this show will be one of our best.

For your information, the show which we taped will be shown twice. The first airing will be on Sunday, May 29 at 10:00 on WJBK-TV 2 (our CBS outlet). The second showing will be at the same time on Sunday, August 28.

It was a personal pleasure to have you on the Show, and to have the opportunity of spending some time with you again.

Dear Marc:

Mae and I appreciate your warm personal regards and good wishes and kind remarks.

Forgive the delay. I was lecturing out of town and was away from my desk for much of the week. אני חייב להודות לך.

We shall long remember your lectures at the luncheon in Minneapolis and at Saint John's. I hear nothing but accolades for your message, content and presentation from all -- lay people, professors, monks and nuns, students and seminarians. Many who were unable to attend have expressed to me deep regrets for missing you and your talks. It really and truly was a superb event in our area. For all of that we are grateful to you and your impact upon us.

Dr. Dayton Hultgren is indeed a beautiful person. Much credit for your successful appearance is due to his generous labor and cooperation in sponsoring the lectures. I fully appreciate him for all the help and guidance offered to me.

My students especially were tremendously impressed with your lecture on "Religious Cults - Threat or Challenge". You have endeared yourself to all of us on the campus at Saint John's. You will always be welcome here.

My friend's name is John Merkle -- a splendid fellow, with a profound interest in Heschel's works.

Very likely during the summer, Mae and I will be spending time with our children in South Orange, New Jersey. Hopefully we can get together then.

Enclosed find material on your lectures and copy of letter from Jay Phillips.

Soon we celebrate

Dear Rabbi Tarnbaum,

Welcome to Minneapolis and St. Paul!
I shall first see you Tuesday, April 26, at the University Club. You shall have an audience with high interest and great influence. Thank God we can have you with us!

I met with seminary faculty people
this week and learned our combined libraries
(50 indep'd) of The Consortium of Seminaries (5) in the Twin City area do not have the updated materials in Judaic studies your office would have. Rabbi Rudin gave me a copy of his study, "Jews and Judaism in Mr. Moon's Divine Principle". Our libraries should have that, for instance. I wonder if I could ask you to choose the special studies and research from your office that you would like the Consortium to have available for theological study and either have them sent to me, or if you prefer, bring them. One or two copies of each would suffice as we have courier service from library to library. If cost were incurred, I would take care of this myself.

When we met in your office, you told me you would like to work more completely with seminaries. I wish to assist you in this as much as I can, but perhaps we should speak more in specifics. I also yet work with Dr. Opreahl in the L. C. U. S. A. as a consultant in Jewish-Christian Understanding. The enclosed news article gives you some idea of what I do locally. My present endeavor is a chairmanship of our Interreligious Bio Medical Ethics Symposium in Minnesota projected for October and November, 1977.

I sincerely hope you'll have time to convey a directive or two to me. I shall never forget the impact your kind greeting brought to the I. W. F. Consultation in Oslo when I read it!

Sincerely,

Trudy

Dear Mr. Schulman,

Many thanks for your good letter of January 13th.

The program that you outline for my visit on April 26th to Minnesota sounds just fine.

Under separate cover my secretary has sent you the biographical sketch and photograph that you requested.

May I suggest the following topics for your consideration:

- 1 - For the luncheon meeting - "President Carter, Evangelism, and Pluralism",
- 2 - "Religious Cults in America - Threat or Challenge?"

If you have further thoughts, by all means let me know, I am entirely open to changing the subject in terms of issues that you might think more relevant. We can always discuss, "Jewish-Christian Relations in 1977: The Unfinished Agenda."

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum:

Shalom!

Now that the date - April 26th - Tuesday - has been confirmed, I should like to inform you of the format of the program for your visit as our guest-lecturer.

1. We should like you to address a luncheon meeting of about fifty or sixty prominent citizens of the State of Minnesota, both lay and religious leaders, at noon in Minneapolis.
2. And in the evening - at 7:45 p.m. - to deliver a public lecture at St. John's University, Collegeville, Minnesota.

We are beginning preparations and plans for publicity for your visit and your message. We will exert every effort to make this project a success and a memorable event.

→ Would you please send us the essential and necessary information about yourself, a biographical sketch, and your work, as well as the topics for your luncheon address and the public lecture and a picture of yourself?

All of us at St. John's University, United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities, and the Jay Phillips Chair of Jewish Studies are looking forward to your coming here. We welcome you and wish you a most pleasant and meaningful experience.

Awaiting your early reply, I am,

SHALOM!

Pursuant to our recent telephone conversation, I met with Fr. Michael Blecker, President of St. John's University and Dr. Dayton Hultgren, President of United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities. We plan to co-sponsor an evening public address at St. John's, Collegeville, Minnesota, and a luncheon meeting in Minneapolis for about fifty community leaders from the Twin Cities, religious and lay.

The dates available are either the week of April 12 - 14, or the week of April 26 - 28 (preferably the earlier April date).

We are looking forward toward the making of your visit an outstanding event in Minnesota's academic and religious life.

Please advise us at your earliest convenience on the date suitable for you.

With all best wishes.

Dear Dr. Wietzke,

I appreciate very much your warm and thoughtful letter of March 29th. Please forgive my delay in responding to your letter. I have been on a very hectic lecture and travel schedule during recent weeks and have fallen badly behind in answering correspondence such as yours.

I am very grateful for the thoughtful article that you wrote, "In Praise of Jewish Brothers." Contributions such as these help shape an atmosphere where mutual respect and appreciation become a new culture in which Jewish and Christian understanding can flourish.

I do appreciate your invitation to visit with you in Minneapolis. I will certainly make every effort to do so the next time I will be there. There is a possibility that I will be lecturing at St. John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota on or around November fourth. If that does take place, perhaps we can arrange to meet at that time.

In the meantime, my prayers for God's blessings over you and my hope that you will have a pleasant and restful summer.

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum:

Upon my return from a lecture tour I found your kind epistle of 26 February 1976.

Our major problem is the date. The fee and the theme are OK. May 17th is an impossible date for us here at Saint John's. It is the last days for us here at Saint John's. It is the last days of finals and the last days of the Spring semester.

We - Father Blecker and I - would like to suggest other tentative dates for your perusal and confirmation, namely during the Fall semester, either the last week (one day, Monday-Thursday) of October, or the first week of November (one day, Monday-Thursday)

Please advise us if any of these suggested dates fit into your schedule.

With best wishes. SHALOM! Happy Purim!

My dear Rabbi Schulman,

I appreciate very much your warm and thoughtful letter. Your words of generous evaluation of my work in the area of promoting interreligious understanding over the past quarter century mean a great deal to me and I want you to know of my deep gratitude.

No small part of whatever achievement that has taken place is due to the contribution of distinguished persons of your caliber in many parts of this country and in other parts of the world.

I should like to respond to the thoughtful invitation of yourself and of Fr. Michael Blecker, President of St. John's University, to address your faculty and students on a Bicentennial theme. The real problem is that of schedule. I have a commitment on each of the dates that you suggest. There is a slim possibility that I might be able to make the Monday, May 10th date. But I would much prefer to explore a date after May 17th. I am free pretty much most of that week, as of now, and would feel less pressure about making such an extended trip to Minnesota during a time in which I have fewer commitments.

You ask about my honorarium. My general practice with the JWB Lecture Bureau is that my minimum out-of-town lecture fee is $500.00 plus expenses. This would of course be arranged outside of the JWB office.

The theme that I would be interested in exploring is something like the following: "The Bicentennial: Moral Challenges to Christians and Jews in the Third Century of America".

With warmest personal good wishes, I am

As an admirer of your prodigious labors and astute analysis and understanding of the interreligious field and your efforts to promote genuine dialogue, I hasten to congratulate you on your achievement of twenty-five years of service in the arena of Jewish-Christian relations.

More power to you -- Yasher Koach!

Fr. The following tentative dates would be ideal for us after the Easter and Pesah holidays:

1. Tuesday, 27 April
2. Wednesday, 28 April
3. Monday, 10 May

May 17

Also notify me of the expenses involved.

It will please you to know that there is a wholesome climate here of academic freedom and ecumenism. I am certain that your visit will be appreciated.

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum:

Thank you for your gracious letter, and of course for your stellar participation in the University's Religious Awareness Week program. Your talk was a memorable one for all of us, and there has been a great deal of very positive and appreciative feedback. If you would be kind enough to send me a copy of the material from which the lecture derived, as you indicated you might be able to, I would be most grateful.

Thank you for sending me the bill for your hotel expenses. I am informed by the Development Office of the University of New Mexico, the office which is handling the expenses of Religious Awareness Week, that it will be necessary for you to complete the enclosed form and return it together with a copy of your airline ticket. Just as soon as I receive this from you, I will do my best to expedite payment. I hope you will forgive the slight delay incurred by the bureaucratic rituals involved.

With respect to the referral to a good skin specialist in New York which you requested, I am afraid that I cannot help you directly. However, if you would call my good friend Dr. Donald Armstrong, Chief of Infectious Diseases at Memorial Center for Cancer in Manhattan, I am confident that he will be able to either take care of this problem for it himself or make a suitable referral to an appropriate dermatologist. Please let me know if this does not work out and I will see whether I can come up with an alternative. Dr. Armstrong is an old friend and an excellent infectious disease specialist.

It was a pleasure to have you with us. If your travel schedule calls for a trip sometime next year which would bring you sufficiently near Albuquerque to make a stopover feasible, please do let me know as long in advance as possible.
