Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum

Your initial response to the Air War College's National Security Forum transportation query indicated that you planned to travel to Maxwell Air Force Base by military airlift. Your airlift pickup point is the New York Port Authority Ramp located in the General Aviation Building (Bldg. #269) at JFK International. Boarding time is 12:20 PM EDT on Sunday, 14 May. Taxi service is available from the JFK long-term parking lot to the General Aviation Building.

An Air War College airlift escort officer will contact you by telephone between the 8th and 12th of May to reconfirm your plans and make arrangements to meet you at the Port Authority Ramp. When you arrive at Maxwell, your personal host will see that you are comfortably settled and ready to enjoy the Get-Acquainted Dinner at 7:00 PM, Sunday, 14 May.

Please complete the enclosed travel confirmation form which will be used to coordinate your arrival and the assignment of your host officer. If you have changed your original transportation intentions, please mark the confirmation form to reflect your present plans. An addressed envelope is included for your quick reply.

Your invitational orders from the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, are also enclosed. These orders authorize your participation in the Forum and will allow you to travel by government conveyance, occupy government quarters, and use certain other government facilities. You should carry a copy with you during your periods of travel and during the Forum.

If you have any questions concerning the Forum, please call me at the National Security Forum Office, Area Code 205, 293-2183.

Sincerely

Dear General Schoeneman,

I appreciate very much your thoughtful invitation to take part in the Twenty-Fifth Annual Air War College National Security Forum to be held at Maxwell Air Force Base from May 14th through the 19th.

Your invitation means a great deal to me and I would like very much to take part in what could be an extremely interesting and constructive conversation.

I do have the following problem of schedule: I could attend the sessions from May 14th through May 16th. The organization is holding its Annual Meeting May 17th through the 21st and it is essential that I be back in New York City to take part in that convocation.

If you think my presence for two-and-a-half to three days would be useful, I would be glad to commit myself for that period of time.

With warmest personal good wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr Tanenbaum

It gives me great personal pleasure to forward an invitation from the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, for you to attend the Twenty-Fifth Annual Air War College National Security Forum. This "Silver Anniversary Forum" will be held at Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Alabama, from the evening of 14 May through noon of 19 May 1978. Approximately 75 distinguished guests, including educators, business executives, labor leaders, government officials, journalists, and other civic leaders will attend. You were nominated for invitation by Major General Henry J. Meade.

The objective of the Forum is a frank exchange of views on national security issues between Air War College students and guests. Lectures, question-answer periods, small group seminars and a computer-assisted exercise in national budgeting priorities will provide the means for this interchange of ideas.

The enclosed Information Brochure provides details of the Forum and base facilities. Travel alternatives are explained in the transportation fact sheet, and a travel questionnaire is attached for your use.

An early indication of your attendance intentions and travel plans would be greatly appreciated. I hope you will be able to join us in May.

Sincerely

R. H. Schoeneman
