Dear Marc:

AMERICAN JEWISH

In my exhuberance over your visit, I forgot to give you the honorarium or ask for your expenses. Please have your secretary send them when convenient.

What a "whirl-wind," "super-productive" visit we had. If you were tired when you arrived, I can imagine how you must have felt after leaving here. You were most gracious to let us pack so much into so short a time. Hopefully, your next trip to Tulsa will be less rushed.

I would really appreciate being put on your mailing list or have the benefit of any material in regard to your activities in Southeast Asia. Somehow, in the tons of material received daily, I have nothing on this area of concern.

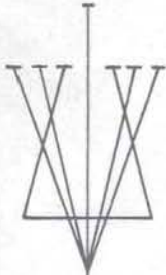

Again, thank you Marc, for giving us your time and talent.

Sincerely,

Yolanda

Dear Inge:

As per our phone conversation, I am writing you about the specific plans for Rabbi Tanenbaum's visit to Tulsa.

If Rabbi Tanenbaum can be in early enough on Sunday, I would like to have a press conference around 2:00 p.m. The Christian-Jewish Understanding TASK Force will be hosts at dinner at 6:00 p.m., Sunday evening. The lecture is at 8:00 p.m. at Temple Israel. Since I received a tentative go ahead on the clergy breakfast, we have scheduled it for 8:00 a.m. on Monday morning (at your suggestion). This will be a breakfast meeting with the leading Tulsa clergy.

Our travel agency has informed us that travel arrangements for the Thanksgiving weekend are close to full. Therefore, I have taken the liberty of making a reservation on American Airlines. First Class was the only thing available. We can prepay the ticket if you prefer. The schedule is as follows:

AA #55 Sunday, November 26
Leave New York
Kennedy 7:40 a.m.

BR #107 Washington National
Arriving Tulsa 11:20 a.m.

Leave Tulsa Monday, November 27
AA #628 11:33 a.m.

Arriving Kennedy 4:48 p.m.

Dear Ms. Charney:

Rabbi Tanenbaum has asked me to respond to your good letter of September 18th and to thank you for it.

He will be arriving in Tulsa on Sunday and have to leave early Monday. Would the breakfast with the Bishop be a possibility for Monday morning?

He is, of course, interested in meeting with Oral Roberts but as we have two active AJC lay leaders in the community, Dr. Arnold Ungerman and Raymond F. Kravis, Marc feels it best to have them make the arrangements with Roberts.

Finally, he would prefer to use the title, "Evangelicals and Jews: A New Era" rather than the one the Cultural Series Committee suggested.

Sincerely,

Dear Marc:

We are extremely pleased with your acceptance to come to Tulsa as part of the Cultural Series, on Sunday November 26th.

Because of your position, I am anxious to arrange a few extra tie-in activities. For instance, dinner with the Jewish-Christian Task Force of the Tulsa Metropolitan Ministry, and perhaps breakfast with the Bishop and a few other leading ministers. Before I do anything, of course, I want your approval.

Tulsa is beautiful that time of year and if you feel as though you could spare us the time, we would be happy to show you around "Oral Roberts' home base".

The lecture bureau did not give me a list of topics, so the Cultural Series Committee suggested: "A Jewish View of Born Again Christians"-----how does that sound to you? We hope to have some non-Jews in the audience. Hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

YoLanda
