Dear Rabbi:

In desperation I am writing instead of calling. Let it suffice to say that I have called no fewer than 10 times already. Normally I don't mind, but I am recuperating from a very serious illness and this is very traumatic to me. However, as President of Jewish National Fund we are holding our Annual Dinner, which is 70% of all the income we derive, on the 27th of January. I and our Board would greatly appreciate if you could be the principal speaker that evening.

Kindly tell me whether you can possibly make it and what would be your fee. Of course, we will arrange for hotel accommodations, if you so desire, and transportation to and from the airport.

If possible, contact me by phone. I spend very little time at the office. So, I can probably be reached either at my home, which is 412-682-0945 or at the office, which is 412-261-6500. Kindly, if possible, call me or write back immediately.

Yours truly,

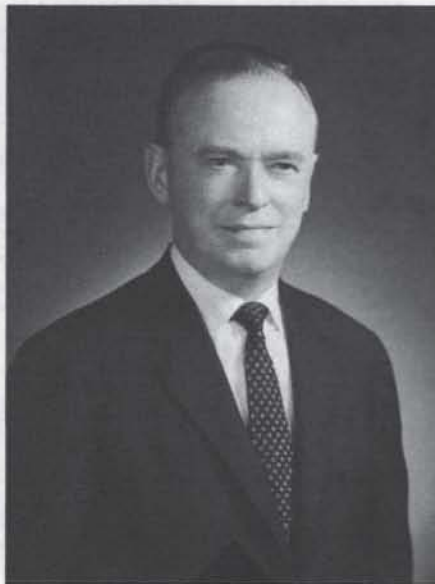

Louis Engelberg
