Dear George,

Thanks very much for your thoughtful letter of January 16th.

I appreciate your kind invitation to take part in the panel discussion on the subject of the New Right Evangelicals.

I would like very much, if my schedule allows, to attend the reception you are holding for Jewish members of Congress at 5:30 p.m. At present I will plan to come in earlier that afternoon unless some emergency makes that impossible.

I assume that you will be covering my hotel and travel expenses.

The enclosed background material may be of some interest to you and your may wish to share with with some of your people as background reading.

With warmest good wishes, I am,

Cordially yours,

Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum:

Thank you for accepting our invitation to address our International Board of Governors on Monday evening, February 9, 1981.

As I indicated over the phone, it's a panel discussion on the subject, "Moral Majority: Friend or Enemy?"

We expect the session to begin at 8:00 p.m., but if you can arrange your schedule to be here earlier, we would be delighted to have you attend the reception our Board is hosting for Jewish members of Congress at 5:30 p.m. in the first floor Exhibit Hall of the B'nai B'rith building.

The session you will be addressing will be held in the 8th floor conference center of our building, which is at 1640 Rhode Island Avenue, N. W.

We have made reservations for you at the Mayflower Hotel, two blocks away. The hotel will send the confirmation to you directly.

Again, we are very pleased you are able to come. We look forward to hearing you.

With kind wishes.

Sincerely,

George L. Spectre
