It is a distinct honor for Temple Emanu-El to have as their scholar-in-residence internationally recognized RABBI MARC H. TANENBAUM, Director of International Relations of the American Jewish Committee. RABBI TANENBAUM was recently designated as "one of the ten most influential and respected religious leaders in America," and described in New York Magazine as "the foremost Jewish ecumenical leader in the world today."

The highlight of each adult education season of Temple Emanu-El is the Scholar's Weekend. This seventh anniversary year Temple Emanu-El is honoring, and dedicating this event to, "THE TEMPLE'S LATE PAST PRESIDENT, ALAN H. CUMMINGS. It was during his term of office that the Adult Education Committee and the Institute of Learning were formed. ALAN CUMMINGS nurtured, guided and supported the committee as it matured over a period of six years. He firmly believed that it was a most important and integral part of Temple life.

MRS. MARJORIE LYNN, wife of Temple President Dr. Richard A. Lynn, will chair and host this instructive, stimulating and entertaining three-day gala weekend.

Temple To Observe Scholars' Weekend

The highlight of each adult education season of Temple Emanu-El is the Scholars' Weekend. This year is its 7th anniversary and Temple Emanu-El is honoring, and dedicating the event to the temple's past president, the late Alan H. Cummings.

It was during Cummings term of office that the adult education committee and the institute of learning were formed. Cummings nurtured, guided and supported the committee as it matured over a period of six years. He firmly believed that it was a most important and integral part of temple life.

Scholar's Weekend will be observed for three days — Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 23, 24 and 25.

The temple's Scholar-In-Residence will be Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum, director of international relations of the American Jewish Congress. Rabbi Tenenbaum recently was designated as "one of the 10 most influential and respected religious leaders in America," and described in New York magazine as "The foremost Jewish Ecumenical leader in the world today." Dr. Tanenbaum's topic will be "Jewish Unity — Threats and Challenges."

Marjorie Lynn, wife of temple president Dr. Richard A. Lynn, will chair and host the event. Scholar's Weekend begins with the Friday evening Sabbath service, followed by an Oneg Shabbat. It continues Saturday morning with Sabbath Service, followed by a catered luncheon.

Saturday evening, Jan. 24, is the date for the gala patron's reception at the Biltmore Fiesta Room. The weekend concludes Sunday morning with a short service, followed by a Sunday brunch and closing remarks by Rabbi Tanenbaum.

One subscription fee of $45 per person entitles temple members to attend all programs and the gala patron's reception.

Non-members and friends of Temple Emanu-El are invited to attend the three-day weekend programs at a cost of $45 per person, which does not include the patron's reception.

For information, reservations or tickets, call 832-0804.

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum:

Due to personal reasons, Mrs. Genevieve M. Silberman has resigned as Chairman of The Alan H. Cummings Scholar's Weekend Committee. We are pleased that Mrs. Marjorie Lynn, wife of Temple President Dr. Richard A. Lynn, has graciously accepted the Chairmanship.

The Adult Education Committee is honored that you have agreed to be our Scholar-in-Residence. The program will run from Friday evening, January 23rd, through Sunday, early afternoon, January 25th.

We have made reservations for you, and hopefully for Mrs. Tanenbaum, at the Heart Of Palm Beach Hotel, 160 Royal Palm Way, Palm Beach from January 23, through the 25th. If you would like to arrive a day earlier, we would be pleased to provide hospitality as well.

We would appreciate your sending your flight schedule so that we can make certain that hotel transportation arrangements can be made.

Your participation in the Alan H. Cummings Scholar's weekend program will be as follows:

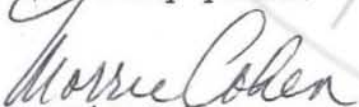

1. Friday evening services, your first lecture in the Sanctuary; approximately 30-40 minutes
Oneg Shabbat will follow.

Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum

2. Shabbat morning service, you will comment on the Torah portion.
3. At the completion of the Shabbat Service, a luncheon will be served. After lunch, your second lecture will be delivered, approximately 45 minutes to one hour.
4. On Saturday evening, a Patron's Reception in your honor will be held at the Biltmore's Fiesta Room. After the Havdalah Service and refreshments, you will conduct a dialogue, in an informal setting, for approximately 20-30 minutes.
5. A brief Sunday morning worship service will be followed by breakfast. After breakfast, you will deliver your third and closing lecture, approximately 45 minutes to one hour.

In summary, you will deliver three lectures, one Torah portion commentary, and lead one dialogue. Our brochure, copy enclosed, has listed your umbrella theme as "Jewish Unity - Threats and Challenges." For both the flyer and the program, we respectfully request that you send us the title for each of the three lectures. I have enclosed samples of last year's flyer and program for your information. Rabbi Joel Chazin, Cantor David Feuer, Mrs. Marjorie Lynn and the members of the Adult Education Committee are really excited, and look forward with great anticipation to your visit. We can assure you of a warm reception from Temple Officers, Trustees and members.

Cordially yours,

Morrie Cohen

Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum
165 E. 56th Street
New York City

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum,

This letter will confirm your appearance at Temple Emanu-El, in Palm Beach, Florida, on January 23d, 24th, and 25th, 1987, as our Scholar in residence.

As set forth in our previous conversation, the fee will be $3,000, to include lodging and meals.

The weekend activities begin at Friday evening services, where you will make your initial presentation, in lieu of the Rabbi's sermon. On Saturday morning, some of our previous scholars have discussed the Torah portion of the week, inasmuch as the second presentation is made at the luncheon session, following services. Actually, our committee has not as yet met to discuss the format, but that will be the time for your second presentation. A reception for subscribers is held Saturday evening, beginning with Havdalah, at which time an informal question and answer period has formerly been held. Following the Shacharit service on Sunday morning, a brunch is scheduled, when the final and summarizing presentation is made.

The brochure which you enclosed, circling topics of a previous seminar, lists an overall topic, "JEWISH UNITY--THREATS AND CHALLENGES", and two other topics based on the above. We will require the third presentation for Sunday morning, so we would appreciate your giving that some thought and then informing us, for future publicity.

Thank you for the biographical material, Rabbi Tanenbaum. My overall chairman has requested that I ask you for some "personal" background, as to your education, etc. If you can comply, we will appreciate it.

Should you be able to arrive on Thursday the 22nd, or early in the day on Friday, the 23d, we would be able to perhaps arrange for an interview with the local TV station as well as the Jewish press. Please advise us accordingly.

I will appreciate hearing from you at your earliest possible convenience so that we will have it, officially, in writing, that you will appear here on the above given dates. Also, your response to my questions will be very much appreciated.

I hope that you will be able to relax and enjoy a pleasant summer.

Cordially yours,

Marion M. Silberman
