Dear Rabbi Tannenbaum:

I am sending you some material on the annual Christian Culture Series, which next year will celebrate its 30th Season.

Once during the war, we were honoured by having Rabbi Louis Finkelstein speak on "The Grounds of Peace;" a most interesting talk in the Series.

I dared to hope that, busy as you are, you might be able to fit in a date for us on our 30th Anniversary Year. Our audience is from Detroit and Windsor and cuts across all classes and creeds.

Blocking out such a schedule over a year in advance is an almost impossible task. That is why several dates are suggested and we would ask you to indicate a choice of more than one; for so often several lecturers otherwise decide to come on the same date.

The most satisfactory time we discover to be a Sunday evening.

In case you could honour us with a visit, Rabbi Tannenbaum, which of the following dates would seem possible?--

- 1) OCTOBER 13
- 2) NOVEMBER 17
- 3) DECEMBER 1
- 4) JANUARY 26, 1964
- 5) FEBRUARY 16 "
- MARCH 15       "

We could guarantee you, Rabbi Tannenbaum, $250 in U.S.A. Funds for your honorarium and expenses and also offer you a room and hospitality during your visit.

Congratulations on your part in the great CONFERENCE ON RELIGION AND RACE in Chicago. I was an observer delegate. Please let me hear from you very soon.

Sincerely,

J. Stanley Murphy, C.S.B.

Dear Marc:

The number of laudatory remarks has become an avalanche of praise. Don't you know your not supposed to be so good? Seriously, I must say how happy I was to hear what a favorable impression your talk made and how informative it was. Again, many thanks.

Max Weber, our President, has asked me to send you two High Holiday tickets as soon as they are available as a token of our appreciation. I will of course, be very happy to comply. So, if I don't see you before, I will look forward to having you with us for the Holidays.

Best wishes to Helga.

Sincerely,
