The class column in the Alumni Magazine is avid for news of you, your family, and other classmates. I am trying to accumulate some material to use during the long winter months ahead, and I shall be most grateful if you will help keep me informed.

I shall welcome any contribution which you may send now or later, and will certainly utilize all items sent. The Alumni Magazine presses run very slowly and it is quite a long time often from receipt of information until it appears in print. Please don't be discouraged by the delay.

I shall look forward to hearing from you.

Yours cordially,

Me,
Lomax B. Lamb, Jr.

P.S. I've an easy mailing address. It's simply:

I'd welcome a news report from you for use in the column.

Dear Herb:

It has been over a year since I have had any news of you and your activities for the Class Column in the Yale Alumni Magazine.

Would you give me an assist in my effort to keep the column alive by dropping me a line or two? The column is a difficult chore at best.

I will be ever so grateful. Looking hopefully to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Gordon Grand

Dear Gordon,

Your note jogged me into a realization of how rapidly time flies. You said that you had not had any news of me for the Alumni Magazine in over a year. I guess the reason is that this past year has been one of tremendous activity for me and I have not been aware of how rapidly time has passed.

As you know, I am the Executive head of the United Jewish Appeal. During this past year we have had an unprecedented flood of refugees and immigrants to care for. I guess I must have made half a dozen trans-Atlantic flights, was in Israel three times, Morocco, Austrian-Hungarian border, etc., etc. I was in Israel during the fighting last Fall at the time of the Suez affair; was in Naples on New Year's day to help receive the first shipload of Jewish refugees brought out of Egypt by the International Red Cross; was in Austria to help set up some machinery for the reception of the Hungarian refugees; and have flown many tens of thousands of miles around the United States visiting communities in the interests of our fundraising activities.

I dare say that during this past year we have had to take care of upwards of 100,000 people, including everything from food and shelter to eventual resettlement all over the globe. About 85,000 have gone to Israel and 15,000 to other countries, including United States, Canada, South America and Australia.

We live in Westport, although I must say that I don't get home very often. I hope I will be in the country when we have our 20th re-union next summer, but I certainly wouldn't lay any bets on that.

Thanks for writing. It was good hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Herbert A. Friedman

Dear Herb:

I've just returned from a short vacation to learn, incidental to another matter, that your back has been giving you some difficulty since the accident in Milwaukee. I had not known before.

I want you to know how terribly sorry I am not only about the pain but about the fact that it had to come from an accident here. Having myself had a back ailment for many years, it is particularly easy for me to completely identify with you and to be especially sympathetic.

I hope that it does get better soon.

MRS. ISRAEL FRIEDMAN

Mrs. Israel Aaronson Friedman, 62, of 167 Fountain Street, an active member in Jewish community life, died today of a heart attack.

Mrs. Friedman was born in Courland, Russia, and came to this country at an early age. She came to New Haven in 1917 and has lived here since. She was married to Israel Friedman on Jan. 1, 1918, and the couple were planning to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary next January.

Member of Board

Very active in community life, she was a past vice president of the Sisterhood of B'nai Jacob Synagogue and a member of its board for the last 25 years. She was a captain of a Red Cross team in the annual drive, worked for the Jewish Home for the Aged and Home for Children, was a team captain of the New Haven Jewish Welfare Fund, was an active member of Hadassah, the Jewish Community Center, and many other organizations.

At the outbreak of World War II, she offered her home and took in as foster children two young German-Jewish boys who lived with her for many years.

Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, Rabbi Herbert Friedman of Westport, Stanley Friedman of Orange and Samuel Friedman of Chester, Pa.; two sisters, Mrs. Milton Salman of Hamden and Mrs. Rose Tobey of Hartford, and seven grandchildren.

The funeral will take place from the B'nai Jacob Synagogue, 347 George Street, Friday at 11 a.m. Burial will be in the B'nai Jacob Cemetery, Westville. The Weller Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

If I failed to express it to you sufficiently in person, I wish to record in writing the deep appreciation of JDC for your notable summary at the briefing session and your stirring address on Monday.

You have the happy gift of giving broad perspective and high purpose to all we are trying to do and I am sure we are thereby all the more encouraged in our efforts.

It was good being with you on the visit to Israel and I look forward to seeing you soon again.

Dear Mr. Biele,

Thank you for your letter of Dec. 18th and a special thanks for the whiskey. In these cold days in Jerusalem it is the best medicine.

The day before their departure, Dr. and Mrs. Friedman asked me to go into the matter of finding a summer camp for their children for the months of July and August in Israel. It took me a long time to do this as preparations are starting only in January or February. However, I have got this information and I enclose a prospectus for last year at a youth village called Hadassim. I would also like to add some of the information I received from Mr. Walter Frankel, the camp director at Hadassim.

1. The camp opens between 10th-15 of July for 6 weeks.
2. Hadassim rent their campus to Mr. Walter Frankel for this period.
3. The price for the full six weeks is about $300 for a child.
4. This includes being received at the place of arrival; 5 meals daily; 5 days of touring Israel; medical supervision and medical treatment; washing and pressing; entertainments, cinemas, Israeli theatres etc; for each 6 students there is a person in charge; the children are returned to their point of departure.

I have already tentatively booked a place for Dr. Friedman's children for this period. If they agree to this they have to send in a quarter of the sum by the 15th of April. If, however, they change their minds, this deposit can be refunded till until a week before the school opens.

To you dear Mr. Biele, I want to say again that I am missing you and your conversational powers. My wife and my friends talk a great deal about you and we hope that by June you will be with us again.

Regards to our mutual friends, especially to Miss Chiat.

Yours,

Dear Rabbi Friedman:

On October 29, 1958, Denver will be one century old. Representative citizens of the Mile-High City have decided such an event calls for a real celebration, a gala 100th Birthday Party. They would be happy if you, a former resident of Denver who has achieved widespread recognition, would return to Denver for this rare occasion, as outlined in the accompanying formal invitation.

The Committee on Arrangements has been making great plans for this event and your entertainment during it. One of the features of the program will be the presentation to you, during the evening of October 29th of an Award of Distinguished Citizenship, an expression of Denver's appreciation for the important work you have done in your field. May I, as Denver's Mayor, extend to you a very warm invitation to be here, so that you may receive your Award in person.

Your presence here will lend so much to the success of the 100th Birthday Party. I hope to receive your answer soon, saying that you will be with us.

Dear Mayor Nicholson:

I have just returned from a month's trip abroad on business of the United Jewish Appeal and have found your letter of 21 October inviting me to come to Denver for the 100th Birthday Party.

I cannot tell you how badly I feel about having missed that event. I would gladly have come, not simply to receive the award of Distinguished Citizenship, but to visit old friends and to participate in the joy of the growth of the city which means so much to me.

I apologize for not having answered sooner, but the letter was not sent to me and I had no knowledge of it until my return yesterday.

Thank you for including me.

Dear Reuven,

Back in the summer of 1956 Herb Friedman purchased about a dozen pieces of glass from Harry Philipps of 4 Magnes Square in Jerusalem. We used this glass to make up presentations to people at conferences. For some reason, we do not have a record of what this glass cost. Herb probably paid for it direct.

Would you, therefore, be good enough to get in touch with Mr. Philipps and let me know just what this glass cost so that we can set up the proper accounting.

Best regards.

Dear Mel,

In reply to your letter of December 4th re the glass pieces purchased by Herb from Harry Philips, I am now in a position to inform you that Mr. Philips thinks that the 12 pieces cost between £300 - 350.

The reason why we have not the exact figure, is that Mr. Philips is ill and unable to look up his books, but from his sick bed, he assures us that he certainly did not pay less than £300 and certainly not more than £350.

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely

Just a short note to say that I have finished reading Edwin Samuel's new book, "Cottage in Galilee", and found it perfectly delightful. I don't know him or I would write directly.

I would appreciate it if you would tell him these sentiments. For one like myself, who was not personally familiar with life under the Mandate, his tales succeeded in capturing a flavor which made it all seem very real.

Dear Rabbi:

After our telephone conversation of this morning, I inquired of Mel Zaret as to whether or not the Milwaukee Jewish Welfare Fund carried any liability insurance covering its employees. Mel advised me that all automobiles used by employees are self owned and self insured, leaving us exactly where we started with a maximum insurance coverage of $10,000.00.

The liability carrier covering Marvin Schpeiser's automobile is the American Motorists Insurance Company, with an office at 342 Madison Avenue, New York 17, New York. The company's claim number is 15 AM 6712 NG. The information with respect to the insurance carrier is obtained from a photostatic copy of a letter received by you under date of March 12, 1957, in which was enclosed the release which you executed.

Please let us know as soon as possible your decision as to whether it is your intention to make your claim through the New York office.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
