JOSEPH MEYERHOFF

CHAIRMAN, NATIONAL CAMPAIGN CABINET

January 23, 1957

TO CABINET MEMBERS AND OFFICERS, AS PER ATTACHED LIST

The National Campaign Cabinet will meet in the Jade Room of the Waldorf Astoria in New York at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 2nd. This meeting of the Cabinet will precede the testimonial dinner being held that evening in honor of Samuel D. Leidesdorf, which launches the 1957 United Jewish Appeal campaign.

I need not re-emphasize that, as a result of the tragic events overseas, the UJA is confronted with a burden of responsibility that is unprecedented. The campaign now being launched, therefore, is of great significance.

I am sure you will be glad to know that invitations have been extended to members of the recent UJA Study Missions to join us at this meeting. The thinking of these Mission members on the many campaign problems facing us will be a very great help. In addition, many of us will have an opportunity to renew old friendships.

A great deal of responsibility rests with the Cabinet in the effort this year. Every Cabinet member will be closely involved in the program that is to be carried through. Please send me the enclosed card, confirming that you will attend the Cabinet meeting on February 2nd.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph Meyerhoff
