The Israel Education Fund is a program of the United Jewish Appeal initiated on September 21, 1964 to meet acute building, personnel and equipment shortages in Israel's system of secondary education, particularly in the country's immigrant development towns. It seeks funds for the construction of high schools, libraries, community centers and pre-kindergarten schools, and for the establishment of scholarships for students and teachers in training. All schools, facilities and scholarships created by contributions to the IEF are owned, operated and administered by the United Israel Appeal, Inc., an American corporation whose agent in Israel is the Jewish Agency, Jerusalem.

Dear Herbert:

I have your letter of December 24th, in which you advise me that you cannot commit yourself at this time to accept my invitation to address the representatives of the JTCC on May 17th.

Please let me advise you also that beginning this year we have made great strides towards Jewish unity in that we are making our luncheon absolutely kosher so that no Jewish person can find fault with our organization.

My love to you, your wife and the family.

Sincerely yours,

SUBJECT:

For the sake of order, I wish to report to you on the results of my trip to Los Angeles and Phoenix:

1. ABE KOOLISH - ~~that~~ Mr. Joe Shane arranged for a meeting with Mr. Koolish. Some misunderstanding occurred and I could only speak on the phone with him. He told me that he is interested in the Fund and will try to get together with him as soon as he comes back from Mexico.
2. ABE SPIEGEL - Following your recommendation, I contacted Mr. Spiegel, and after a good Yiddish exchange of views, we decided to meet. To my great sorrow, Mr. Spiegel's brother fell sick and we had to cancel our meeting. Before my departure, Mr. Spiegel called me and insisted that we meet in New York as soon as he visits here. We shall follow him up.
3. MAX ZIMMER - Upon the recommendation of Rabbi Max Nussbaum, I had a lengthy conversation with Mr. Zimmer and the following tentative proposal developed:
 Mr. Zimmer would be interested to pledge up to $260,000 for the vocational school in Jerusalem and the Israel Goldstein Youth Aliyah Village. His conditions are as follows:
 Every year the school will have to accept a certain number of American students. Therefore, he insists on building a special dormitory in conjunction with this school. If this can be done, he considers himself committed. We have undertaken the necessary steps to get an okay from Israel.
4. ANATOLE JOSEPHO - Upon the recommendation of Mr. Ted Recoosin, I had lunch with Mr. Josepho. He gave me the impression of a very honest and generous person, but since he has just committed himself for $500,000 for the Technion,, he felt he could not commit himself to the I.E.F. right now. Should be followed up not later than January 1971.
5. WOMEN'S DIVISION LEADERSHIP - Had a meeting with Mrs. Fay Bay and Mrs. Myrtle Karp who promised to promote the kindergarten project among their friends.
6. AL BRONSTEIN - Had a long session with Mr. Bronstein and Mr. Al Gilens and for the first time encountered resistance from a Federation Director to assist in the promotion of the I.E.F. This matter is very serious since I.E.F. did not function till now in Los Angeles, and it is my opinion that the Federation Director does not play a positive role in its promotion. I shall discuss matters orally with you.

7. ZIGMUND DIAMOND - Had a long session with Mr. Diamond who committed himself to a bequest of $200,000 on the condition that some educational building gets his name in his lifetime.
8. BERNARD M. SILBERT - I met with Mr. Bernard Silbert who is a tax lawyer serving as counsel to the Halpern Foundation in Los Angeles. We developed a proposal for the erection of three (3) pre-kindergartens in Israel in Safed, Rishon-Le-Zion, and Yehud. Mr. Silbert thinks there are good prospects of getting these kindergartens. Later in the day I was called again by Mr. Silbert who said that he himself is interested in building a kindergarten in the name of his mother who will be eighty years of age next month. He will let me know in the very near future.
9. GARY AMINOFF - Is one of the young leaders. Organized a meeting in his home with the participation of nine other young leaders. I addressed them on U.J.A. problems in general and I.E.F. in particular. Since a few of the participants were tax lawyers and accountants, they decided to form a group that will get other lawyers and accountants to advise their clients on I.E.F. projects.
10. MRS. ROSE LEVENTINE - I met with Mrs. Rose Leventine who is the daughter of Mr. Arthur Zimbaum, a donor of the Arad School. She arranged a meeting for me with several Beverly Hills film people and we may have the beginning of prospects in the film world. They will try to arrange a meeting for us in one of the homes of a Jewish artist to try and promote I.E.F. (I also had a meeting with Theodore Elkel in New York who promised to assist us with the promotion in Hollywood).

Hope to see you soon.

Rabbi Herbert Friedman
United Jewish Appeal
1290 Avenue of the Americas
New York, N.Y.

Dear Rabbi Friedman,

In conjunction with the Convention of the CCAR in Jerusalem in March we shall have a ceremony for our new school building in Haifa on March 4, 1970. Originally, we had intended to make this a dedication ceremony. However, the building is not yet ready, but a lot can already be shown to the participants of the Convention. We hope to be able to move to the new building in September 1970 for the new academic year.

We would be very much honoured and happy if you would be able to participate in the ceremony on March 4 and to address the audience on that occasion. Following the ceremony there will be a symposium at the Dan Carmel Hotel in the evening on the subject of Israel as educational Center. We have invited the Minister of Education, Mr. Yigal Allon, to give the key address. Two or three American Rabbis and educators from Israel will participate in the symposium. We would also like to invite you to this evening.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my warmest thanks for and appreciation of all you have done for our school and are continuing to do for us.

With all best wishes and kindest regards, I am

I just came back from Miami and learned from Nettie that you wanted the list of pledges received between August 1969 up to the current time. I was pleased to learn that business with us goes in such a peculiar way that my dear, good friend Nettie Stein has omitted two $100,000. gifts. One is for Dr. Samuel J. Toback, $100,000. for a Community Center at Kibbutz Shfayim; the other for Elaine Siris, $100,000. for three pre-kindergartens in Jerusalem. Thus the total for this period is $2,815,000.

We humbly apologize for this mistake.

Dear Friend:

We are writing to you as a member of our family knowing how interested you will be to learn that, in honor of the Fifth Anniversary of the Israel Education Fund, we are planning to have a special Education Mission to Israel in June of this year. Participating will be presidents of United States universities, representing the highest ranks of scientists in the field of education, as well as American Jewish leaders who have built or who intend to build educational facilities in Israel.

The Mission will have the following three aims:

- 1) Evaluation of achievements of the Israel Education Fund's first five years. The major aim of this study will be to assess the impact of the new educational facilities on the socio-economic changes that have taken place in development towns;
- 2) Analysis of future educational needs and development of a new five-year plan to meet the urgent needs of high-quality manpower in Israel;
- 3) Creation of direct contact between donors and their schools, mainly with educators, students and civic leaders.

The members of this Mission will be given the rare privilege of participating in seminars to be addressed by top leaders in the fields of education and human development. The members of the Mission will also be active in learning the different social and educational experiments which are taking place in Israel and which are known all over the world as the most daring new approaches to the process of acculturation.

We would therefore be greatly honored if you would join us on this Mission which will leave the United States on June 20 and return on July 1. In view of the arrangements which must be made and the limited number of places available for this Mission, please let us know about your decision no later than April 6, 1970 so that we can make the necessary reservations for your participation. There is no need to forward a deposit at this time since we will bill you for all charges incurred, at our cost, at a later date.

We thank you for your kind consideration and eagerly await your affirmative response.

MEMORANDUM

Date April 6, 1970

To ~~Rabbi Herbert A. Friedman~~
Mr. Irving Bernstein

From Herbert Rosenstein

Subject Israel Education Fund - Joseph Furst Estate - Additional Liquidation Recommendation.

Mr. Martin Gantshar of Blair & Company just called me. He had an additional liquidation recommendation. He recommends the immediate sale of our 1,500 shares of FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT. It is now selling at 70-3/4. Our 1,500 shares would net about $106,000. When the Florida Power & Light stock was received in September 1969, it was worth $98,000. Mr. Gantshar gives the following reasons for immediate sale of Florida Power & Light:

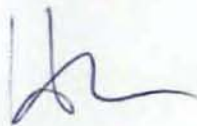

1. Two months strike has hurt earnings.
2. Litigation in progress.
3. Slowdown in economic growth rate of Southern Florida.
4. Problems with conservation groups on use of nuclear energy.

I would go along with Mr. Gantshar and sell the shares of Florida Power & Light.

When Gottlieb Hammer was apprised of our last Furst Estate stock liquidation, he was a little perturbed that he was not consulted before I went ahead and sold the various securities. As it turned out, the timing was good because the market went down subsequent to these sales.

Shall I consult Gottlieb Hammer in connection with this latest recommendation?

Dear Friend:

We are pleased to inform you that a special Education Mission to Israel, in honor of the Fifth Anniversary of the Israel Education Fund, is being planned from June 21 to July 1, 1970.

The attached copy of an invitation was sent to our donors, and we intend to send another invitation letter to potential prospects who would be interested in participating in this Mission.

We would very much appreciate it if you would be kind enough to help us along the following lines:

1. Recommend additional people who could fall into this prospect category by sending us the names and addresses so that invitations can be sent to them.
2. Follow up with personal calls to try to convince them to participate.

We will be contacting you for your advice and comments concerning prospects who are on our lists within the next few days.

Many thanks for your cooperation. We await your early response, as time is getting short. Kind regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Aryeh,

C I have discussed with Morris Glasser your request to open discussions at a small parlor meeting in Chicago some time in the near future to prepare for a parlor meeting with prospective contributors to the Israel Education Fund, and to try to line up prospects for the Israel Education Fund Mission departing for Israel on June 21.

O Mr. Glasser has asked me to inform you that it would not be possible for our community to agree to any activity on behalf of the Israel Education Fund during our campaign period which continues through June. The strenuous efforts that Mr. Glasser and other leaders of our campaign are making, require that priority be given to the Jewish United Fund - Israel Emergency Fund campaign.

P As a matter of fact, our closing major event, Country Club Day, takes place the latter part of June, which precludes any possibility of encouraging any of our contributors to participate in an overseas mission beginning on June 21st.

Mr. Glasser has authorized me to tell you, that commencing July 1st, we would be happy to cooperate with you on other projects consistent with the general community policy.

Y As I mentioned to you over the phone, generally speaking, most Chicagoans do remain in the city during the summer months, particularly during July, so that this postponement does not mean that you have no opportunity to reach people who might be interested in the Israel Education Fund.

I want to acknowledge receipt of your form letter of April 6th concerning Israel Education Fund Mission and the letter of March 19th from Charles Bensley and yourself, which I assume you sent to me simply as a sample of what you would like to send to members of our community.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

In answer to your letter of April 1, please be advised that although we still have not received a written pledge, we did receive a second oral commitment from Mr. Lehrman.

It is our opinion that this pledge will be met and that you can go ahead with all the necessary arrangements.

MINUTES

MEETING HELD AT LOTOS CLUB, THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1970
TO DISCUSS PROMOTION AND ORGANIZATION OF THE
HONORING LUNCHEON TO BE HELD AT THE ISRAEL CONSULATE GENERAL
IN NEW YORK ON JUNE 15, 1970

Participants:

Charles J. Bensley, Henry C. Bernstein, Elaine Siris, Aryeh Neshar, and Nettie Stein.

Summary of Discussion and Decisions:

1) Promotion:

Mr. Henry Bernstein suggested that the following groups of people be invited:

- A. Donors who have made commitments to the IEF;
- B. Active prospects who have been considering making commitments;
- C. Potential prospects whose names have been discussed at Mr. Levinson's home on September 24, 1969;
- D. UJA contributors whose 1970 gifts are in and who are in the $5,000 to $10,000 category.

Mr. Jack Kalman will co-ordinate these efforts on behalf of the N.Y. U.J.A. and co-operate with Mrs. Nettie Stein, who will be responsible for the organization of this party.

2) Invitations:

Following the suggestion of Mrs. Elaine Siris, it was decided to change the invitation text and to include the names of the three leaders to be honored; namely, Mr. Theodore Racoosin, Mr. Lawrence Schacht, and Mrs. Elaine Siris. Dr. Aryeh Neshar will present to Mr. Henry Bernstein for his approval, not later than May 1, the revised text of the invitation. Following this approval, the IEF office will send out the invitations on the basis of an approved list by the N.Y. U.J.A.

3) Follow-Up Efforts:

The follow-up decided upon was:

After the invitations for the honoring luncheon are sent, Mr. Bensley will send a personal letter in his name to all invitees, explaining the relationship between this luncheon party and the invitation to join the Israel Education Fund Mission which will leave for Israel only five days after the luncheon will be held.

Mrs. Elaine Siris, Mr. Charles J. Bensley, Mr. Theodore Racoosin, Mr. Max Billig, Mr. Ben Duhl, Mr. Lawrence Schacht, and other active leaders, will be asked to follow-up the invitation with personal calls to invitees in order to insure their participation.

4) Agenda:

The following was decided upon:

The Consul General will greet the guests at the reception to be held in his office at the building of the Israel Consulate. The Consul General will welcome the guests and invite them to join him for the luncheon honoring party to be held at the Westbury Hotel which is located on Madison Avenue at 70th Street.

After the luncheon, Mr. Bensley will present the honorees with a special gift from the IEF and will mention their important contributions to the success of Israel's educational framework. Thereafter, Mr. Amir, the Consul General, will brief those present on the social, economic, and educational problems of Israel today. Following this, Dr. Aryeh Neshet will present a ten-minute presentation of slides and will accompany this presentation with a report on the achievements of the IEF.

Mr. Bensley will conclude the meeting with an outline of future plans and of the needs for strengthening quality of the education of the children of Israel. Mr. Bensley will also announce that five days later the Education Mission will be leaving for Israel and will invite all present to join the Mission.

PS: It was also decided that in some particular cases of potential prospects, such as Mr. Milton Petrie, Mr. Martin Fisher, etc., special efforts for personal invitations from Israel may be needed. Dr. Nesher has been instructed to check, while in Israel, if personal invitations sent to such people, either by Mr. Moshe Dayan, Mr. Abba Ebban, or Mr. Yigael Allon, could be arranged. It was the feeling of those present that this kind of a personal approach could bring effective results.

MINUTES

MEETING OF THE AD HOC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE ISRAEL EDUCATION FUND

HELD AT THE LOTOS CLUB, THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1970, 1:00 P.M.

PRESENT:

Me1 Alperin
Charles J. Bensley
Henry C. Bernstein
Aaron Chilewich
Dr. Sidney Edelstein

David Hersch
Aryeh Neshor
Morris Rodman
Elaine Siris
Nettie Stein

- A. Mr. Bensley opened the meeting by presenting a financial report of the pledges received during the last four months. He also informed members present that Dr. Neshor will be leaving for Israel on May 4 and will bring back more detailed information concerning the next five-year plan for educational facilities which will include a number of community colleges.
- B. The forthcoming Education Mission, which will take place between June 20 and July 1, was discussed and the tentative itinerary, which had been distributed, was reviewed; except for some minor suggestions, it was agreed that the itinerary was a very good program which adequately covered the special areas intended by this Mission. In line with this, it was recommended that each member of the Executive Committee receive, with a copy of these Minutes, the names of all donors and prospects to whom invitations were sent so that known names could be followed up, regardless of the geographical location; there would also be added to these lists names which do not appear but are known to the respective members. Mr. Chilewich suggested the possibility of approaching the Crown family, and the office will follow this up with him.

C. The following recommendations were made regarding donor relations:

- 1) A full-sized, framed picture of the educational facility, dedicated and signed by the Minister of Education, be presented to each donor;
- 2) An album showing different areas of the school, as well as the children in their work and play, be prepared for presentation to each donor;
- 3) Samples of the arts and crafts created by the children be sent to donors for their use and/or display.

All these suggestions will be discussed by Dr. Nesher when he is in Israel for future implementation.

Dr. Edelstein reported on his experiment of linking the Englewood community to the Community Center built by him in Kiryat Shemona. This created a living bridge between young people in Englewood and their counterparts in Israel. It was recommended that this experiment be implemented, if possible, in other donor communities. It was further suggested that exhibits of pictures, artifacts, etc., be arranged in the various donor communities. Mr. David Hersch to follow up.

D. The Ambassadorial parties were then discussed and the following recommendations were made:

- 1) Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, June 2, 1970, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Friedman, to be addressed by Ambassador Barmore, Mr. David Hersch will visit Philadelphia on May 1 and make the necessary arrangements for personal follow-up with all invitees.

2) Washington, D. C., June 11, 1970, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lehrman, to be addressed by Ambassador Barmore.

3) New York City, June 15, 1970, at the Israel Consulate General Office, to be addressed by Consulate General Rehavam Amir.

4) Englewood, New Jersey, June 16, 1970, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Edelstein, to be addressed by Ambassador Leshem.

E. Mr. Bensley announced that the Advisory Board of the Israel Education Fund will be reorganized, that the first meeting will be held in September, and will have on the Agenda, the approval of the next five-year plan.

I spoke to Messrs. Cassuto and Hammer concerning the sale of R. J. Keynolds. They were in agreement that we should sell the R.J.Reynolds, but retain the Standard Oil of New Jersey and Gulf Oil because we would be losing too much.

Since none of us are experts on the stock market, Mr. Hammer recommended that we sell anything that is now ahead of the 9/4/69 values. About the only item in that category now is our 1500 shares of American Home Products.

I spoke to our broker this morning and he suggested that we hold on to the American Home Products for the time being, since it has very good potential.

For your information, I am attaching a list of the remaining items in the portfolio, showing 9/4/69 market values vs. 5/4/70 market values.

Mr. Harry Schultz, C.P.A.
P.O.B. 45
Harrisburg, Pa. 17108

Dear Mr. Schultz:

Mr. Jac Lehrman of Washington, D.C. is keenly interested in the Leo Baeck Comprehensive High School in Haifa, of which the Community Center is to be named for him, and has made a pledge of $200,000 towards the construction of this complex.

Due to the pressures of war, almost the entire construction industry has been mobilized to provide shelters along the exposed borders of Israel. It is extremely urgent that all civilian projects which are under way, and close to completion, should be completed as quickly as possible, so that contractors can be released for the pressing defense needs. The Leo Baeck School and Lehrman Community Center are rapidly approaching completion and it is entirely possible to have them finished in time for operation this coming school year in October. In order to achieve this, it is necessary to maintain a constant flow of cash so the workers can be kept on the job and no delays occur.

Mr. Lehrman understands this quite clearly and is eager to help achieve this purpose. We are aware that there may be some problems connected with deductibility of contributions in any one given year. From our point of view, it would be entirely possible for him to make a loan of the $200,000 to the Israel Education Fund, which could then be converted into payment of his pledge during the first available year which would permit that. Other donors have done this, and there has been no problem whatsoever.

I am writing this letter to you, seeking your help and cooperation, to assist Mr. Lehrman in achieving this objective, which he really would like to do.

With many thanks for your anticipated help, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Herbert A. Friedman

Dear Aryeh,

I am most grateful to all of you for pursuing the Lehrman matter to its happy conclusion. We are awaiting Shavit's report next week in order to work out the technical details of the continuing construction of our building.

Regarding Mr. Klorfein I am very sorry that there was an unpleasant response. You will recall that I spoke to him about the possibilities of the donors of the School helping us with the furnishings and equipment. Your response as well as Ralph Goldman's before you was that there is no reason why they cannot be approached privately by our School. I obviously misread Mr. Klorfein's reaction to me and the School generally. I thought it was more positive.

It must be murder to try and get large gifts out of donors today with the American economy in the doldrums that it is now.

Sincerely yours,

Rabbi Robert L. Samuels

SUBJECT:

Article on Hadassah College in Jerusalem-
N.Y. Times - August 18, 1970

Henry Bernstein of the N.Y. UJA brought the attached article to my attention and told me about the anger of the ladies of the Women's Division because they are being deprived of a college project while the Hadassah women boast about their major educational achievement. It has created a crisis in the N.Y. Women's Division.

I learned from Henry that there is an agreement with the Israeli government that all educational facilities in Israel, except for universities, can be built only through the IEF and he asked if we shouldn't protest to the Ministry of Education for this deviation from the agreement.

It is also my feeling that the entire matter is not based on a new building but rather on the inclusion of a few courses around which they built up this publicity.

I would be most grateful to you if you would give this your consideration. Thank you in advance.

Hadassah Establishes College For 'Disadvantaged' in Israel

By IRVING SPIEGEL

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17—Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, has established a community college in Israel, the first of its kind there.

The college, in Jerusalem, begins operations next month with a student body of 350. It is patterned along United States educational lines and will be part of an educational complex under Hadassah auspices. The complex extends from junior high school through the first two years of college and will serve a student body of more than 1,200.

Details of the project were outlined today by Mrs. Benjamin Gottesman, chairman of Hadassah's Israel education services, and United States educators who aided in its development, before 2,500 delegates attending Hadassah's 56th annual convention, at the Washington Hilton Hotel.

Hadassah, with 318,000 members, supports and maintains a large network of medical and social services in Israel.

Mrs. Gottesman said that the college's curriculum was geared to overcome shortages in such fields as scientific photography and computer sciences, and to provide medical aides such as laboratory assistants and dental hygienists.

The curriculum will also include courses in fashion design, graphic arts, restaurant techniques, mass feeding, and provide various other skills needed in Israel's economic development.

She said that the student body would be recruited from army veterans who cannot afford to pay for higher education, from Jewish families who had come from Arab countries, and Arabs who are Israeli citizens. Terming this group "disadvantaged," she said they had little opportunity for career training.

It has been estimated that 60 per cent of the children in Israel's elementary schools have parents who come from Middle Eastern countries. Of these children, only 18 per cent go on to secondary schools.

Marvin J. Feldman, an official of the Office of Economic Opportunity, advised Hadassah that the new project would "set the standard of equal educational opportunity in Israel, just as Hadassah's pioneering efforts provided medical education."

He said the community college could become a vital factor in Israel's development and exercise a "tremendous educational and social influence." And he expressed hope that the college would become "part of a chain of similar colleges that will open the doors of higher education to every Israeli, regardless of income."

Mrs. Gottesman said there were a large number of immigrants to Israel who had completed their first year at other institutions of higher learning in Israel but had been compelled to quit because of a financial strain. Tuition to the community college, it was explained, will be nominal and there will be a generous scholarship program.

MINISTER OF JUSTICE

September 18, 1970

Minister Yigal Allon
Minister of Education & Culture
Jerusalem, Israel

My Dear Minister Yigal Allon:

I have read the letter of Mr. Charles I. Bensley and Dr. Aryeh Neshet of August 5 and a memorandum attached to the letter as well as the notes of the MINISTER OF THE TREASURY, P. SAPIR, of September 9 to you and to me.

These documents were brought to me by our friend Mr. David Tuviyahu, Dr. Kaplan from Baltimore, Ohio and the above mentioned Dr. A. Neshet.

The matter seems acceptable and even more than that.

If it seems acceptable to you too, and you will notify me to this effect, I will ask Mr. Zev Sher, the Assistant Legal Advisor to the Government, who deals with such matters and he is well acquainted with the problems involved, to do everything necessary so that the whole thing not only is carried out but also is done in the proper legal manner.

With New Year Greetings,

Shimshon Shapira

SUBJECT: The Reynolds Foundation Gift for the University of Beersheba.

I wish to inform you that following my conversation with Minister P. Sapir in New York, I was directed by him to contact the Minister of Justice, Mr. Shapiro in Israel, as well as the Minister of Education, Mr. Allon. I just returned from Israel and wish to report to you that the Minister of Justice reacted positively to the proposal and wrote the attached letter to Mr. Allon informing him that the arrangements to the Reynold's Foundation as proposed by us are legal and acceptable.

I then met Minister Allon who gave his final O. K. for the arrangements and asked me to inform the assistant Legal Advisor to the Government, Mr. Zev Sher, to prepare a proposal for a written agreement to be signed by the parties. I also brought with me the plan for the dormitories for which the Reynold's Foundation expressed the wish to donate $600,000.

For your information.

Please find enclosed your copy of Mr. Cohen's fully executed agreement between the United Jewish Appeal, the Israel Education Fund, and the United Israel Appeal, for his pledge of $450,000.00 for the construction of the "Nehemiah and Nechame Cohen Nautical School" in Haifa.

Enclosure

cc: ~~HAF/IB~~; MP; CJB; IR; ES; DM; Herman Rosen; Robert Hiller

AGREEMENT, made on <sup>December</sup> ~~October~~ 4, 1970, in the City and State of New York

PARTIES :

Nehemiah M. Cohen, hereafter referred to as the "Donor".

and

United Jewish Appeal, Inc., hereafter referred to as "UJA".

RECITALS :

- A. The Donor resides at 2931 Albemarle Street, N.W. Washington, D.C.
- B. The Donor has come to recognize the importance of secondary education in Israel and now desires to aid in the advancement of such education by contributing to the construction of a nautical high school located in Haifa, Israel.
- C. 1) UJA is a New York membership corporation, organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and engaged, among other things, in the conduct of a project known as the Israel Education Fund, having as its primary goals the raising of funds for secondary school facilities in Israel and secondary school scholarships and teachers' scholarships in Israel.
- 2) UJA has been accorded tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and contributions to it, including contributions to it for its Israel Education Fund, are deductible under Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.
- D. 1) UJA and the United Israel Appeal, Inc. (formerly The Jewish Agency for Israel, Inc. and hereafter referred to as "UIA") have made a study of the problem of secondary school facilities in Israel and have determined that there is a need to provide facilities for students in Israel interested in and desirous of obtaining the specialized education to be furnished in a nautical high school.

2) Accordingly UJA and UIA have decided that such a school (hereafter referred to as the "School") should be constructed at Haifa, Israel and that the School should be built in two stages, for convenience hereafter called the "Shlav Alef" and the "Shlav Bet".

3) The School in its entirety is to be constructed on land located in the immediate vicinity of the Kishon River outlet to the Mediterranean Sea on a site totalling 36,346 square meters further identified as follows on the land map of the City of Haifa:

Block	11637	Parcel 24	4,209 sq. m.
Block	11637	Parcel 25	529 sq. m.
Block	11638	Parcel 14	679 sq. m.
Block	11638	Parcel 22	31,229 sq. m.
TOTAL			36,646 sq. m.

4) Annexed hereto as Exhibit "A" is a description of the Shlav Alef of the School contained in a brochure dated April, 1970, prepared by the architectural firm of Ziona Leshena, Georg Perel and Emmanuel Kanner. The School's Shlav Alef is to be constructed in accordance with such description, subject to such changes in lay-out, appearance, number, nature and extent of facilities as UJA and UIA shall finally determine; provided, however, that the certified cost of construction of Shlav Alef, exclusive of land acquisition costs, is not in any event to be less than the sum of $600,000.00.

5) The construction of the Shlav Bet of the School is to be undertaken by UJA and UIA at such future time as they determine that the additions to the School are necessary and desirable.

P R O V I S I O N S :

1. The Donor hereby pledges a gift of $450,000.00 to the Israel Education project of UJA. UJA and UIA agree to apply this fund toward the cost of construction of the Shlav Alef of the School as hereinabove and hereafter provided.
2. The Donor hereby agrees that his said pledge of $450,000.00 shall be paid to UJA as follows:
  - a) The sum of $45,000.00 upon receipt of notice from UJA that a contract for the construction of the Shlav Alef has been entered into;
  - b) The sum of $45,000.00 upon completion of the foundation for the Shlav Alef;
  - c) The sum of $90,000.00 upon completion of rough enclosure (roof on) thereof;
  - d) The sum of $90,000.00 upon completion of rough plumbing and electrical work thereof;
  - e) The sum of $90,000.00 upon completion of rough interior walls thereof;
  - f) The sum of $90,000.00 upon completion of all Shlav Alef construction, including cleaning up of the premises, paving, shrubbery and finishing of landscaping and lawn.
3. Notification that the construction has reached each of the stages indicated above shall be given by furnishing to the Donor architect's certification thereof by registered mail addressed to the Donor at the address noted above and each of the installments aforesaid shall be paid within thirty days after the date of mailing of each such notice.
4. In accordance with existing procedures, summarized in the enclosed Treasury Department ruling addressed to Adrian W. DeWind and dated September 24, 1964 (copy of identical ruling having also been directed to Maurice M. Boukstein on behalf of UIA), the funds collected by UJA pursuant to this agreement will be transmitted by UJA to UIA, together with a copy of this letter and UIA will apply the funds so received as hereinafter provided and, in connection therewith will exercise exclusive supervision and control over the expenditure of such funds through its agent in Israel (The Jewish Agency for Israel in Jerusalem) including supervision of the construction of the School and related facilities as herein provided.

5. a) The plans and specifications for the school have been prepared by architects selected by the UIA who are licensed and engaged in practice in Israel.
b) Construction of the School by UIA will commence no later than the spring of 1971. In reliance upon the pledge of the Donor construction will be diligently prosecuted thereafter by UIA.
6. It is expressly agreed and understood that the cost of construction of the Shlav Alef in excess of the Donor's $450,000.00 contribution (estimated to amount to a minimum of $150,000.00) shall not be an obligation of Donor; that the Donor shall not under any circumstances be obligated to contribute more than the sum of $450,000.00.
7. The legal title to and ownership of the School will be vested in UIA.
8. a) It is agreed that the School in its entirety will be known as the "Nehemiah and Nechame Cohen Nautical School" and that such name will be permanently placed on the structure at the main entrance of the School. No additional names shall be assigned to the Shlav Bet.
b) An appropriate plaque shall be affixed in a prominent place in the interior of the School and shall bear the legend that the School was constructed with the proceeds of a gift contributed to the Israel Education Fund of UJA by the Donor and Nechame Cohen.

- c) All brochures, catalogs, letterheads, documents, forms, publicity releases and announcements shall identify the School as the "Nehemiah and Nechame Cohen Nautical School."
9. a) UJA represents that the Government of Israel has represented and undertaken that if funds made available from other sources shall be insufficient said Government will aid the School by providing, or causing to be provided by way of subsidy or other form of aid, funds required for the maintenance budget of the School for so long as the School shall exist, which maintenance budget embraces, among other things, salaries and social security payments for teachers and other personnel, the cost of maintenance of the School in good repair and the cost of replacement of equipment in the School.
- b) UJA further represents that the Government of Israel has represented and undertaken that the School shall be exempt from payment of any governmental levy or tax of whatever description with respect to the lands and structure thereon.
10. The curriculum of the School shall be such as shall meet the prescribed requirements of the Government of Israel for accredited post-elementary schools.
11. UJA is satisfied that the Government of Israel will not appropriate the School, land or building in the foreseeable future. However, in the event of such land or building appropriation, Israel law would require the payment of fair compensation of the appropriated property. If at any time the School, land and/or building is appropriated, the compensation received for such property shall be used by the agency for the purpose of advancing education in Israel in such manner as will bear the Nehemiah and Nechame Cohen name and will be as similar as possible to the proposed School discussed in this agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

Dear Herb:

Since you are, if anything, a meteor and not a missile, I am not interested in tracking you. However, I wanted you to have a copy of the memorandum on the Endowment Fund, that I wrote for Sapir, before you left. And so I called and learned that you and Francine were going to be at the Hilton today and tomorrow.

Following the preparation of the memorandum I dealt with Aaron Kedan whom you surely know. If you are interested I could tell you what he told me about the next step that he envisions.

I know that each time you come here you are literally torn to shreds. Or, at least, various and sundry people want to do that to you. I hope that despite these evil designs you and Francine have been able to get some rest and whatever else you want to do.

All the best. Regards --no, love--to Francine. Rina joins me in this.

Regional colleges in the north

I was intrigued to read the article in The Jerusalem Post of Feb. 20, on the start of a Junior College by Hadassah. You may be interested to know that six years ago, a Junior College type structure was set up at Tel Hai in Upper Galilee, and five years ago a similar framework began to function in the Jordan Valley. The aim of these embryonic colleges was, and is, to provide "technicians" of all kinds to serve the region, and also to provide an opportunity for people to study without leaving their settlements or towns. Increasing university recognition of these courses, enables some of these students to continue at one of the regular universities.

At Tel Hai there are about 80 students engaged in full-time courses (five days a week), and several hundred part-time students taking afternoon courses. At the Jordan Valley school, courses are only given in the afternoon and evenings, and are attended by several hundred students.

While in no manner detracting from the importance of setting up the type of Junior College described in The Jerusalem Post article, I must stress the importance of our enterprise in improving economic and cultural standards in an area which is distant from the academic centres, and yet is none the less vital for the prosperity and security of Israel.

I am sure that we have much to learn from your experience in college administration and will be happy to meet with you to discuss matters of mutual interest if you should so desire.

Community colleges exciting trend in higher education

By Phillip Gillon

Jerusalem Post Reporter

THE community college, according to Mrs. Esther Gottesman, Chairman of the Hadassah Educational Services, is the most exciting concept of the day in American education. Over 500 new colleges are to be opened in the coming five years. That is why Hadassah was convinced that Dr. Helen Kittner, the Head of Hadassah's Educational Services in Israel, was on the right track when she proposed that Hadassah should introduce such a college into Israel life. The Hadassah Community College will open in September in the Seligsberg School compound.

Mrs. Gottesman explains: "There are thousands of youngsters who want to get education beyond matriculation level, but who, for various reasons, do not want to go through a full University course, or are perhaps unable to do so. They may not have the money, the time or the ability to make good in a University. But this does not mean that they should be barred completely from further education after leaving school or the Army.

"In a way the community college is a development of the land grant system that transformed American Agriculture into scientific farming. Back in the early nineteenth century, the land grant colleges were introduced to supply technical help to agriculture. As America developed, many of these colleges became state universities. When thousands of war veterans were able to go to universities under the G.I. Bill, the standards at the state universities soared. Many of them, like Penn State or Michigan or New York, today have standards as high as those of Yale and Harvard."

While this rise in academic standards in more and more universities was obviously desirable, Mrs. Gottesman points out, the result was to deny ad-

Newly-completed Hadassah Community College, which fronts on Rehov Hanevlm in Jerusalem, is due to open in the fall. On the right (roof is seen here) it connects up with the very old building of the Alice Seligsberg Vocational School (it was the original Hadassah in the late '20s) which in turn joins with the new Seligsberg built in the '60s. vanced education to large sections of the population who could not make the grade.

"The same thing seems to be happening in Israel," she says. "Last summer I spoke to young post-Army students at the Seligsberg School night classes, the kind of students who will go to the new community college. They explained to me that they simply could not manage to go to university for four years or more to get a degree, especially as they could not be sure of getting jobs afterwards when they graduated. They wanted something specific, lasting only two years, which would give them a certain career when they finished. But they were disappointed that they could only go to night school. So when Dr. Kittner came up with her proposal of a daytime community college, giving two-year career training, Hadassah jumped at it as a way to help Israeli youngsters get a further alternative type of education."

HIGHER STATUS

She believes that the community college will give the student knowledge, a career, and higher status in the economy. He will be second in command to the full University graduate, but he will have responsibility and skill, and his earnings will rise accordingly. On the other side, Israel's economy is suffering from an acute bottleneck — the shortage of technicians."

To provide the college with premises, a new building has been erected in the compound of the Seligsberg School. The Seligsberg School, which formerly catered largely for girls, is being amalgamated with a vocational high school for boys, the Brandeis Centre, run by Hadassah. This amalgamation is considered a natural development of Hadassah's education services.

"The community colleges is the logical continuation of the comprehensive school," says Mrs. Gottesman. "Most colleges in the U.S.A. have this kind of continuous flow, instead of sharp breaks in education. But the college will be open, of course, to graduates of other schools, apart from Seligsberg and Brandeis."

"I really think the Hadassah Community College will add something valuable to Israeli education," Mrs. Gottesman concludes. "We see it as a pilot project. If it succeeds, the idea will no doubt be extended. We hope that we will help young Israelis to reach new goals by giving them the tools of

Education Ministry to control university development

By ABRAHAM RABINOVICH
Jerusalem Post Reporter

The growth of universities in Israel will henceforth be guided by national needs, rather than local prestige or academic rivalry, Education Minister Yigal Allon said yesterday.

Addressing the Hebrew University Board of Governors on Mount Scopus, Mr. Allon said that he is writing to the heads of all institutions of higher learning requesting them to notify his Ministry of any planned new development scheme. The expansion or foundation of institutions of higher education could no longer be left to the initiative of mayors motivated by considerations of prestige, Mr. Allon said, or even to the universities themselves, who have been known to establish new faculties because of "jealousy" over a similar faculty elsewhere. The Minister indicated that centres for higher education would be created in development areas as a stabilizing influence. "They will attract intellectuals, improve the quality of the population and give a sense of pride to the rest of the population in the area."

Hebrew University President Abraham Harman expressed total support for Mr. Allon's move. "It is long overdue," he said. "This is a small country with limited resources! duplication should be avoided."

There was less agreement between the Minister and University officials over the Government's share of the University's budget for the coming year. Mr. Harman said lack of funds was preventing the University from making full use of its rich potential. The Board Chairman, Mr. Samuel Rothberg, pointed out that more than half the research in the country was being carried out at the Hebrew University and more than half the doctoral candidates were studying there. "We have a strong case for greater support."

Mr. Rothberg also indicated that the Jerusalem Municipality could do more to assist the University.

Mayor Teddy Kollek acknowledged that Tel Aviv and Haifa contributed to their institutions of higher learning while Jerusalem had made little more than a token donation. "This is the poorest city anyone can imagine," he pleaded. The Rector, Prof. Jacob Katz, noted that the University was feeling pressure from both students coming from the West and the Oriental community. The former pressure was being met by the creation of a special centre for overseas students designed to integrate them into the University's regular programme after two years of study in their native language. As for the gap between the Ashkenazi and Oriental communities, Prof. Katz said, the only solution was education. "It takes time. Not years, but generations."

Mr. Allon reported that 25 per cent of those admitted to Israel universities last year failed to appear when classes started. At the same time, 27 per cent of the applicants for admission were turned down for lack of room.

The reason for the non-appearances, he said, was apparently the practice of many persons to fill out applications for more than one institution in the hope of getting into one if turned down by another. Mr. Allon called for a central application mechanism by which students would apply only once, listing universities in order of preference.

The Board approved an ordinary budget of IL139.8m. for 1971/2 and a development budget of IL75.7m. The contribution from public funds to the former budget is IL83.5m., or about 60 per cent. In the past, this contribution has amounted to 70 per cent. The difference is to be met by the Friends of the Hebrew University abroad.

The three-storey Popick Building, which will serve the University's humanities faculty, was dedicated yesterday at Givat Ram. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Popick of Miami and several other Floridians who were instrumental in raising funds for the building.

On Tuesday, a dormitory for 120 students was dedicated on Mount Scopus in the name of the late Allan Bronfman Jr. of Montreal, who died several years ago at the age of 38. He was the manager of the first Seagram plant in Montreal.
