NOTES - MTG IN HONOR OF PINHAS SAPIR - REGENCY HOTEL - SEPT. 20, 1966

at 1:45 p.m.

Max Fisher opened the meeting/by wishing everyone present a Happy New Year and expressing his appreciation of their presence at this meeting. He also expressed his appreciation of the tremendous job done in getting off the plateau in 1965, for the good job being done in 1966 and was hopeful that the trend was upward for 1967.

Mr. Fisher then called on Herbert Friedman for a report of the 1966 campaign and his projection for the 1967 campaign.

Mr. Friedman gave his report on the campaign for 1966 as follows:

Spring phase of campaign almost completed.

1965 - $82, 631,000
estimate for 1966 - $86,991,000
increase $4,360,000
this does not include New York City

UJA Share.

1965 - $40,905,000
estimate for 1966 - $43,145,000
gain - $2,241,000

Fall Campaign starting now.

1965 - $5,900,000
UJA share $3,900,000
no estimate as yet for this year, but the mood is good

NYC considerably better.

1965 - ~~$23,214,000~~ $19,939,000
1966 - $23,574,000
3½ million gain *

Spring Campaign gained $2,241,000 and if the Fall Campaign doesn't gain, we are still ahead by $2,200,000. $5,000,000 was gained for UJA in the two campaigns on the basis of pledges.

CASH

Sept. 19, 1965 - UJA share $40,603,000
Sept. 19, 1966 - " " $40,071,000

There is always a lag in the cash.

Mr. Friedman made a special note of the Women's Division activities. W.D. raised 11½ million or 10% of all the money in the country and they did 3/4 of a million better than before. Out of 175 W.D. campaigns 98 have exceeded the 1965 total. Mr. Friedman was sorry that Mrs. Karp, the W.D. Chairman was not at the meeting but gave her a special vote of thanks for her efforts on behalf of the campaign. Mr. Friedman's prognosis for 1967--

1. Study Mission - largest in the 12 years of running the mission with some 230 going overseas. 108 men in the $10,000 and over category.

2. Good Will - 30 or 40 communities involved. Our lay leaders will be going into these communities with two Israelis to lay the groundwork for the 1967 campaign.

3. November - A series of visits to communities such as Boston, Philadelphia, etc., which looks promising.

4. Inaugural Dinner on December 8 with Sir Isaac Wolfson, Edmond de Rothschild and Gov. Romney, to consist of $10,000 and over contributors. This dinner will give us a clue as to the 1967 campaign.
adverse
Mr. Friedman stated that although we are fighting/economic situations on the outside, there is every chance in the world for us to have a good campaign in 1967.

Mr. Fisher then took to the microphone again to say that although we have raised more money, we have not kept pace with the needs in Israel. He stated that today marked the start of the Fall Campaign with a meeting in Rochester. He reported that Dallas has joined the "Million Dollar Club" and Mr. Fisher publicly thanked Jacob Feldman for his efforts.

Mr. Fisher then called on Phillip Stollman who reported on Congregations. Mr. Stollman reported that we have not raised enough money to meet the needs in Israel and that we ought to broaden the base of givers by involving the members of congregations and temples. He stated that about 50% of the members are not giving to either UJA or the Welfare Funds. at more pressure be brought on them to become closer involved with UJA and Welfare funds. Mr. Stollman ended his remarks by wishing everyone present a Happy New Year.

Mr. Fisher acknowledged that Mr. Stollman had done a tremendous job and hoped that this effort can show favorable results.

Mr. Fisher remarked on the major changes that will be taking place in the Israel Education fund and called upon Mr. Bensley to report.

Mr. Bensley reported that in the past 17 or 18 months the IEF had gone over the 24 million mark. He lauded Mrs. Elaine Siris for her work with the Women's Division. Mr. Bensley stated that they will establish about half dozen National Chairmanships through throughout the country, such as Jacob Feldman in the South West, Lawrence Schacht in New York, which has raised about 50% of all the funds, Philip Zinman on the East Coast, Joseph Shane on the West Coast and Joseph Kanter in the Middle West. Mr. Bensley praised Albert Parker and Jerry Klorfein especially for their work and ended his report on an optimistic note. Mr. Bensley also pointed out that Dr. William Jensen and Dr. Harold Gores were both especially helpful in drawing up the initial report for IEF. He mentioned Mr. Theodore Racoosin, who had started with a $100,000 gift and ended up with a complete school.

Mr. Fisher then introduced Israel's Minister of Finance, who has the tough job of straightening out Israel's economy and who it is doing his job with great courage. The audience gave Mr. Sapir a standing ovation.

Mr. Sapir greeted those present, said he was happy to be here and expressed his thanks for all that has been done.

Mr. Sapir went into great detail to explain Israel's economy and the reasons for the stringent and austere measures the Government has had to take in order to make the country more economically secure. He explained how Israel is forced to spend inordinate sums of money on her defences; that she is educating and training immigrants from North Africa and Asia; that the German reparations have terminated; that restitution payments have declined and that Israel's future depends on building its industry to be able to compete with international free markets. He called on UJA to continue to raise funds for insurance of a better future of the Jews in Israel; to finish the job of rescue and to set refugees on their feet - to give them the opportunity of becoming productive individuals. He called on the UJA to undertake social and educational development in the development towns. The audience stood up to applaud Mr. Sapir at the end of his speech.

Mr. Fisher thanked Mr. Sapir and assured him that we understood Israel's problems and that we were in this together, and invited questions from the floor for Mr. Sapir to answer.

Mr. Sapir thanked Mr. Fisher for his wonderful job of the past two years and expressed his pleasure at Mr. Fisher's agreement to remain as General Chairman for the coming year. He also thanked Mr. Bensley for the splendid job he's doing in raising funds for education.

Mr. Sapir answered questions from the floor and at the end of the question and answer period, Mr. Fisher summed up the meeting, parenthetically thanked Albert Parker for his excellent job as chairman of the Mission for the past two years and adjourned the meeting at 3:10 p.m.

Mr. Herbert A. Friedman,
United Jewish Appeal,
1290 Avenue of the Americas,
New York, N.Y. 10019.

Dear Herb,

Many thanks for your letter of May 12.

We have cooperated in many fields for many years ^{and} I am sure that we shall continue to cooperate in my new post. It was for me a source of encouragement to see the warmth of your welcome to me in my new job and I rely on you and on Irving to help me, or even more important, to direct me how I can help you and all of us in our mutual efforts.

There are some differences of opinions, as you are well aware, in the points raised in your second paragraph, but I believe, the key to my activities, to success and to failure, is the last sentence of your first item, which means that I should, and so I intend to, clear the names with you and that we shall both coordinate our efforts. Then it will be easy for all of us to be flexible.

Awaiting the first opportunity to sit down together with you and with Irving concerning the list of potential contributors,

I am, Cordially,

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Adi Yaffe

Dear Adi:

For the sake of good order, let me simply summarize in this letter the subject of our conversation last week in Jerusalem.

1. You explained to me the frame of reference of the work you are going to undertake, as requested by Mr. Sapir and Mr. Pincus. You indicated that there would be no conflict with the Israel Education Fund, because you would be selling projects which were much larger in size and scope. You indicated that the principle of clearance of names with the UJA, before you solicit them, had been agreed upon.

2. I indicated to you that both Irving Bernstein and I had made two points to Mr. Sapir - first, we thought that the principle of "matching" was harmful; and secondly, that the amount of money sought should be somewhere in the range of $5 million from an individual. The reasons for these suggestions are as follows: "matching" is not really required, in our judgment, in order to obtain a contribution. It should not be offered. If, in the course of negotiation, it turns out that the offer to match is really necessary in order to close the gift, then it is hard to object and we certainly would not. But, with the level of contributions rising so high now in the Emergency Fund campaign, without any matching and without even any building being named, it seems a bit unfair to the good disciplined donor. Regarding the second point, of a high ceiling, we have in this year's campaign 13 gifts of $1 million or more. That is the best reason in the world for keeping the "special project" amount very, very high. Again, we are not attempting to be rigid. We suggest $5 million, in order to leave room for annual giving to increase, without coming close to the "special" giving. If you find someone who is willing to offer $4 million we would not insist that you refuse it. What we are attempting to make clear is the general operating principle.

12 May 1971

3. As you requested, we shall go through various lists of prospects which exist here in the office, and at the first opportunity we will sit down together, especially since you will be located in our office in Jerusalem, and start to clear a list of names from which you can begin to work.

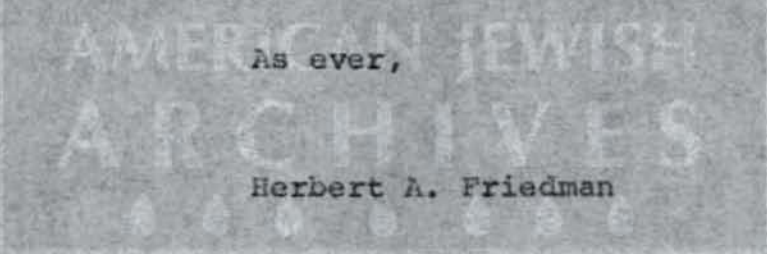

I am sure you understand that we are pleased at the possibility that new avenues of revenue may be opened for Israel. I am sure you also know how pleased we are to be able to work with you personally. The only thing we must always keep in mind is that we should do nothing to jeopardize the on-going work of the UJA in our zeal to find new sources.

With all best wishes and looking forwarding to seeing you soon, I am,

As ever,

of $1 million for scholarships in the sphere of art. The Finance Minister had promised an equivalent participation in the income of the fund. The developments in this matter should be followed up and if necessary contact with Mrs. Sacks should be renewed.

It was agreed:

- (a) to give priority to the preparation of introductions (re specific projects) to material collected;
 - (b) to fix a date up to which time data received will be included in projects. Corrections will be made if necessary;
 - (c) that all the material to be distributed in English be reviewed by Mr. Chinitz.
5. Mr. Kreutner reported on information he had received from Dov Sinai in connection with Mr. Bronfman. The latter was staying in the Bahamas at present and Dov found it impossible to approach him. It was possible that he would approach Mr. Bronfman in either March or April.
6. Mr. Cassuto would discuss the question of Louis Mintz with the Ministry of Justice.

State of Israel
Jerusalem, Israel

Dear friend Sapir:

I have read the "New York Times" report on the interview you gave in Jerusalem on November 15 and wish to congratulate you. It was a fine exposition of your views.

There is one aspect of it, affecting the United Jewish Appeal, that I would suggest might be differently expressed in future statements:

The underlying basis for UJA's Israel Emergency Fund Campaign is the fact that the people and the Government of Israel are no longer able to make the contribution that they voluntarily made in the past to the humanitarian causes served by UJA. It should be stressed that at no time did the Government or the people of Israel have any legal responsibility to pay the costs of immigration or of the absorption of immigrants; that this has always been the responsibility of World Jewry including UJA; that because of the events that have occurred since May, 1967, the Government and people of Israel are no longer able to help the financing of these costs; and that therefore World Jewry, including UJA, must bear the entire cost of the humanitarian work that has always been its responsibility.

I suggest that this could be said substantially as follows:

The people of Israel have never had the legal responsibility of paying the costs of immigration to Israel or the costs of immigrant absorption. This has always been the obligation of World Jewry, including UJA.

In the past the people of Israel voluntarily helped finance the costs of immigration and the absorption of immigrants. This they no longer are able to do because of the events that have transpired during and since June 1967. Therefore it has become necessary for World Jewry, including UJA, to fully carry what has always been its responsibility by bearing the total cost of the humanitarian work of immigration and immigrant absorption.

I know you will be interested in hearing that the campaign in this country seems to have gotten off to a pretty good start. Actually, only a limited number of fund-raising meetings have been held so far in the communities and the pace will accelerate during the next couple of months. The fragmentary figures to date show the regular campaign running a little ahead of last year while the Israel Emergency Fund is running a little behind. The smaller Emergency Fund totals reported by a number of communities seem to be the result of reduced pledges by just one or two large contributors who came through very generously in 1967. We are planning several special solicitation efforts to reach these contributors again as well as others who may represent unique problems.

There is evidently a great deal of understanding and desire to respond among the contributors, but there is an inevitable delay in making large commitments again.

With all good wishes and best regards.

Sincerely,

Herbert A. Friedman

Dear Mr. Fatt:

Never have the ties that bind the people of Israel and the Jews of the world been closer than they were during the fateful period of May and June this year. At the moment when Israel's people faced their gravest peril, at the moment when it seemed that almost the entire world had abandoned them, the firm and unwavering support of American Jewry served as a constant beacon of friendship and hope. In this period, you, as a contributor to the United Jewish Appeal, served as a vital source of humanitarian help.

On behalf of all those whose lives were affected for the better by your generosity, I want to express heartfelt thanks. You have helped to assure the survival of Israel's people at a moment when that survival was threatened. I know that you can continue to be counted upon, through UJA, to assure a better and happier future for the Jewish people everywhere.

Sincerely,

SAPIR'S WHIRLWIND TOUR

Special Correspondent

NEW YORK. — Finance Minister Pinhas Sapir's talks with U.S. leaders and contributors during his visit to the U.S. this month led to "virtually every individual making a greater contribution to the 1965 fund-raising drive than to the 1967 emergency fund." This was stated by U.S.A. General Chairman Edward Ginsberg after Mr. Sapir had left the U.S. for the Far East, Australia and New Zealand last week.

During his two-week stay Mr. Sapir visited 12 cities and had personal meetings with 300 contributors. He also had discussions with many groups as well as campaign leaders.

Mr. Ginsberg said that after Mr. Sapir's visit American Jews would understand that Israel's needs are even greater after the war, and that their response to the fund-raising drive must be greater in 1968 than in 1967. Both Mr. Ginsberg and U.S.A. Executive Vice-Chairman Friedman praised Mr. Sapir's "great energy, dedication and stamina in his arduous tour."

H. E. PINCHAS SAPIR

Pinchas Sapir, one of the chief architects of Israel, is one of its most able statesmen. He has played a major role in the economic upbuilding of the State, first as Director-General of the Ministry of Finance, then as Minister of Commerce and Industry and later, from 1963 to 1968, as Minister of Finance. Today he serves as Minister Without Portfolio in Israel's Cabinet and as Secretary-General of the Israel Labor Party.

We are pleased to have this opportunity to pay tribute to him in recognition of a remarkable career in behalf of the Jewish people. We are especially pleased to salute him at a dinner sponsored by Capital For Israel, Inc., which has been established by the leaders of the Israel Bond Organization at the request of the Israel Government to spur investment in Israel's industries by marketing shares of Israeli enterprises vital to the future of the country.

Mr. Sapir is a man of immeasurable energy and unbounded devotion; his leadership has been of decisive influence in every crucial phase of his nation's economic progress.

We are honored to salute him.

Cash Status

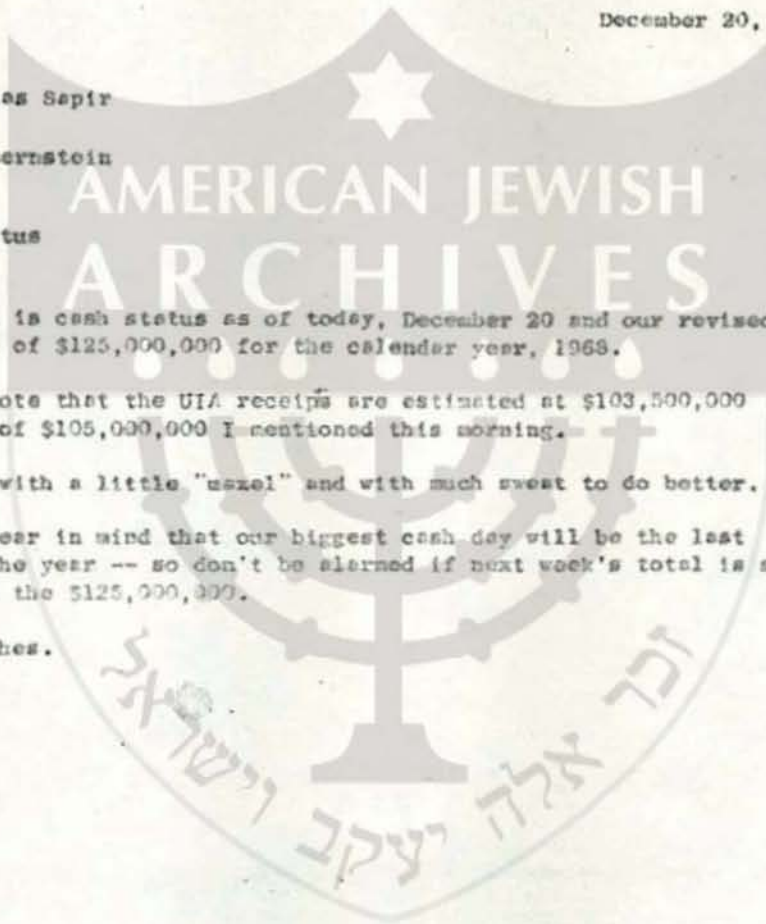

Attached is cash status as of today, December 20 and our revised estimate of $125,000,000 for the calendar year, 1968.

Please note that the UIA receipts are estimated at $103,500,000 instead of $105,000,000 I mentioned this morning.

We hope with a little "mesel" and with much sweat to do better.

Please bear in mind that our biggest cash day will be the last day of the year -- so don't be alarmed if next week's total is still far from the $125,000,000.

Best wishes.

Minister Pinhas Sapir
