LOS ANGELES, CALIF. (AHG)	A.G. LUNCHEON	Ambassador Yitzhak Rabin was involved in a most informative discussion. General Chairman Edward Ginsberg made an impassioned plea for survival.	Meeting held at home of Lawrence Weinberg. 16 people present. 12 gifts made totalling $1,925,000. (Comparative figures to follow). One new gift announced: Elliot Handler, of Mattel Toys - $300,000 for 1970 against $125,000.
SEATTLE WASH. (AHG)	A.G. $5,000 Min.	Ambassador Yitzhak Rabin advised of the critical political and military situation in Israel and answered questions from the floor. Campaign Chairman Samuel Stroum, who was on the last Study Mission, described the situation in Israel from the point of view of an American's responsibility and stated that nothing less than a "fair share gift" could be acceptable in Seattle this year.	108 people present for Seattle's first Advance Gifts Black Tie Banquet. Every person in room had been pre-solicited.
