SUBJECT: DATES OF FUTURE COMMISSION MEETINGS

I have begun the process of checking dates for future Commission meetings. As you will recall, October 4, 1989, is set with both the UJA/Federation and with the critical commissioners.

I have reserved the UJA/Federation space for Wednesday, February 14, 1990. I have not yet called critical commissioners. I thought it might be useful to resolve a problem with June before doing so.

I was asked to try to reserve June 13, 1990, for the final Commission meeting. I learned that this space is reserved for "mobilization" from June 8 through June 20. If we wish to stay with a Wednesday, I could try either June 6 or June 27. No holidays interfere with either date. Are you available on either or both? I will proceed after I hear from you.

SUBJECT: SCHEDULING THE SIXTH COMMISSION MEETING

We spoke about a Commission meeting on June 13, 1990. The UJA/Federation in New York will be in the midst of its annual campaign at that time and will not be available for our use. The following June dates are available: Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday, June 4, 5, or 6 or Monday through Thursday, June 25 - 28.

The Jewish Agency Board of Governors is scheduled to meet in Jerusalem on June 24 - 28 and the Central Conference of American Rabbis will meet in Seattle on June 25 - 28. In light of these conflicts, I suggest that we test June 4 - 6 with our critical commissioners.

SUBJECT: DATE FOR SIXTH COMMISSION MEETING

I have begun checking with our critical commissioners regarding scheduling the sixth Commission meeting for June 6, 1990. For most the date is no problem, but both Bronfman and Crown are unavailable. I assume that you will want the major funders present at this final meeting, so propose that we seek another date.

There are no other dates in June when the UJA/Federation is available and there are no major conflicts with outside meetings. The following dates are available at UJA/Federation: Tuesday, May 22; Thursday, May 24; or any date in July. The only potential conflict in July is an executive meeting of the Jewish Agency in Jerusalem on July 16.

Can you suggest some dates from those listed above for me to check?

SUBJECT: SCHEDULING OF FINAL COMMISSION MEETING

In checking the six dates currently under review for possible scheduling of the final meeting of the Commission (June 12, 13 and 14, and July 24, 25 and 26), we began by contacting the offices of Charles Bronfman and Lester Crown. We learned that Crown is unavailable for any of the July dates and that Bronfman has commitments on June 13 and 14. While he does not like to be out of his office three days in a row, SF advised that we check June 12 with other commissioners and that, if it is an acceptable date, he will work to convince Bronfman to attend. Following, then, are the results of our survey of senior policy advisors and critical commissioners for a meeting on June 12, 1990:

Bill Berman	Cannot commit this far ahead
Charles Bronfman	Possible (see above)
Lester Crown	OK
Max Fisher	Out of the country
Donald Mintz	On his calendar, depends on the outcome of his mayoral campaign
Bennett Yanowitz	OK
David Hirschhorn	Not available
David Ariel	OK
Steve Hoffman	OK
Marty Kraar	OK
Art Rotman	OK
Herman Stein	OK
Jonathan Woocher	OK
Joseph Reimer	OK

I suggest that we proceed with plans for June 12.

SUBJECT: SUGGESTIONS FOR THE CLOSING MEETING

GOALS

1. Provide opportunity for Commission to formally adopt the final report;
2. provide opportunity for Commission members to give guidance and blessing to implementation efforts;
3. focus public attention on the work of the Commission, its recommendations, funding, and start of the implementation entity;
4. thank commissioners and other involved in the process for their efforts.

Suggested schedule of events for June 12:

9:00 a.m.-noon -- Senior policy advisors meeting noon-1:00 p.m. -- Lunch break
1:00-4:00 p.m. -- Commission meeting with following agenda:

- a. opportunity for Commission comments on final draft,
- b. presentation on IJE and commissioner response,
- c. opportunity for Commission comments on overall process.

4:00 p.m. -- Press conference with Commission leaders
6:30 p.m. -- Celebratory event--open to commissioners, policy advisors, staff, researchers, outreach contacts, community leaders, etc.

Public relations component -- The press conference should provide an opportunity to present the final report to the public. The key elements should be:

- a. completion of study,
- b. development of implementation entities,
- c. securing of initial funding for five-year period,
- d. statements of support by key commissioners.

While the press conference should catch the daily news opportunities, June 12 should also be the focus of feature stories on the Commission in the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, and major Jewish periodicals.

Contact person: Michael Aschenbrand Joe - 6th
Phone no.: (212) 879-9300
Comments: They have one large room which would be used for the meeting and the meal. A buffet table can be set up outside the room. They do have smaller rooms for breakout purposes. SMALL CONF outside LO
3. 92nd Street Y: 1395 Lexington Avenue
Contact person: Susan Vitucci, assistant to Saul Adler
Phone no.: (212) 415-5473
Comments: Two large rooms available. The main meeting room has pillars which could obstruct view. Smaller meeting rooms may be available, depending on timing.

All three places will waive the rental fee. The only charges will be for catering.

SUBJECT: OPTIONS FOR JUNE 14 COMMISSION MEETING

We have multiple options for the June 14th meeting. They include the AJC facility, HUC, and the Board of Jewish Education offered most recently by Alvin Schiff. I would like to put forward the advantages and disadvantages of each and a recommendation.

AJC

Advantages:

1. Centrally located
2. Nice clean space, quite functional
3. Good breakout rooms

Disadvantage:

1. Would have to have lunch in the room in which we meet. This is a considerable disadvantage. It could be worked out but it would be awkward.

HUC

Advantage:

1. Very functional space. Could meet all the requirements that need to be met and have been met through the use of the Federation/UJA facility.

Disadvantages:

1. Poor location
2. Possible negative message in that it would suggest a leaning toward one denomination as opposed to others. When we had considered HUC a month or so ago, we were told by Al Schiff and Joe Reimer that Isadore Twersky and perhaps others might have a problem participating in a formal meeting at HUC. They went on to say that it could move the Commission away from the wonderful sense of balance that you have created between the three denominations. Alvin Schiff was most forceful in putting forward that opinion.

Recommendation:

I believe we should consider using HUC, but that it has to be made clear by you that we are using HUC, not to send a signal that we are moving toward favoring one denomination or that, in fact, we are going to be starting a process of rotating between HUC, Yeshiva University, the Seminary in the Reconstructionist College. Instead, it needs to be put forward that we are only using the facility because of an emergency that occurred and were unable to use the space at Federation/UJA, that all future meetings will be, in fact, at Federation/UJA and this is a once only occasion.

INTER-OFFICE CORRESPONDENCE

I also believe you should personally call Twersky and ask if he would have a problem participating in a meeting at HUC. I might call, if you think it's appropriate, Professors Lamm, Schorsch and Green and explain to them why we are using HUC.

If you feel that's too much to go through in order to use that facility, we should probably consider looking at hotel space. I think you are right that the lunch at AJC in the same meeting room could be a problem.

For your information, Alvin Schiff, having heard that we are in the need of space, he may have picked it up at the educators meeting which was held at the Board of Education, called me to offer his facility for the meeting. His board room can sit fifty in tables arranged in a horseshoe. However, I do believe there are significant disadvantages in using his facility.

1. The building is over 100 years old and looks it.
2. It is on the west side between 9th and 10th Avenues.
3. The rooms he is talking about are quite small and it would be very cramped.
4. The building has one small elevator and his board room or conference facility is on the 4th floor.

SUBJECT: JUNE 12 COMMISSION MEETING

I have reconfirmed with the American Jewish Committee our desire to hold the June 12, 1990 meeting of the Commission in their conference room. The space is being held for us from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

During the next several weeks we have a number of questions to answer:

1. Will there be a Commission meeting on June 12, 1990?
2. Do we still want to hold it at the AJC? If not, where?
3. How long should the meeting be? What format will we use? (The AJC does not have breakout rooms, so presumably we would meet in plenary the entire time.)
4. Do we want to plan some sort of celebratory event now or should that wait until we are ready to issue the final report?
5. Will we want to schedule a preplan meeting of senior policy advisors for the preceeding day? A follow-up meeting for the day after?

I believe we should be discussing these matters in the next several weeks and we may wish to put this on the agenda for the senior policy advisors on May 3.

Seymour and Annette would like to meet with you, Mark and me from 8-10 a.m. on Thursday, May 3 for a staff meeting prior to the senior policy advisors meeting. We may wish to discuss some of these issues at that time.

In case you find you have an opportunity to view the space we plan to use for the June 12th Commission meeting, the American Jewish Committee is located at 165 East 56th Street (56th and 3rd Avenue), phone number (212) 751-4000. My contact there is Sima Tanzer at Ext. 203.

If it looks as though you may get there, perhaps we could discuss details before you go.

Thanks for considering this.

Re: Visit to AJC

If you can visit the American Jewish Committee building at 165 E. 56th Street (56th and 3rd), it would be a great help. Annette is not going to be able to get there. My contact there, again, is Sima Tanzer (212) 751-4000, ext. 203. I've gone over this with her, but would appreciate your looking over the space and making sure that they can do the following:

1. Registration table in foyer. Place to hang coats nearby. Access to telephones throughout the day.
2. Meeting room set for plenary sessions in AM (starting at 10:00) and PM, ending at 4:00. Open square to seat 60 (max) - 15 on a side. Table to be covered with table cloths and water pitchers and cups available to all.
3. For lunch (time to be determined) participants to go into foyer for juice while tables broken down to seat 8, each. There should be a side table in the room where people can leave their papers during lunch.
4. Buffet table in foyer. People will help themselves and return to the transformed meeting room for lunch. After lunch, open square to be reset.
5. I'll go over menu with Phyllis Booth, from AJC. You needn't worry about that.
6. Plenary meetings are to be taped. Mario Nunez is to have the room set up for this. If possible, Nunez will make a duplicate set of tapes at the end of the day. (His dubber was at the shop when we spoke.)

Please let me know if you have any questions or if you find that you won't be able to schedule this visit. Thanks very much.

Dear Sima:

I have not yet heard from Phyllis Booth, but thought I would write and try to give you a comprehensive picture of our needs for Tuesday, June 12, 1990.

1. The Commission meeting is scheduled to begin at 10:00 a.m. and to conclude at 4:00 p.m. We will ask participants to plan to arrive at 9:30 so that we can begin promptly at 10:00. Several staff people, including myself, will wish to arrive between 8:00 and 8:30 a.m. to get set up and organized.
2. We will need a registration table in the foyer as well as a place to hang coats. If possible, please let me know a telephone number at which commissioners can be reached during the day.
3. For the period from 9:30 to 10:00 a.m. we would like to provide people with coffee, tea, and miniature pastries in the foyer. I am envisioning an area large enough for people to mill around in as they wait for the meeting to begin. Please let me know if this is incorrect.

4. I spoke with Mario Nunez, who said that he could set up the meeting room so that the meetings can be taped. Given the size of the table, I assume that this will mean several microphones strategically placed and a tape machine in the room which a Commission staff member will monitor. Mario also said that if his dubbing machine is back from the shop, he would be willing to make a copy of the tapes before we leave at the end of the day. I would appreciate your confirming this with him.

E208

212-751-4000
X 208*

*slide proj. or

5. The room should be set up with a table in an open square to seat 60. Contrary to what I said on the telephone Tuesday, we prefer that it be arranged as an actual square, with seats for 15 on each side. We would like this to be covered with tablecloths, with pitchers of water and glasses readily accessible throughout the day. Please have someone available to keep an eye on those pitchers and refill them periodically.

I'll go there late AM 12:30

6. At lunchtime the group will be excused to the foyer while tables in the meeting room are rearranged to accommodate 8 people, each. If possible, there should be a place in the meeting room where papers can be put during lunch. I envision a table along one wall for this purpose.

*Pres. Off.?
Proskauer Rm.
(7th Fl.)*

I understand that a buffet table will be set up in the foyer from which people can serve themselves and return to the meeting room to eat. I would appreciate some suggestions as to menu and cost. The meal must be glatt kosher. We will also need a set-up adjacent to the buffet table for ritual handwashing. This would include a large bowl, one or two pitchers of water, two small pitchers, and some napkins or towels.

Beinstein on Essex St.

7. Following lunch we will need the room to be reset in the open square, with pitchers of water for the afternoon session.

*Tuna salad meat platters fruit salad
potato salad
cole slaw breads
coffee tea
soft dr.
cookies, rugelach*

8. Please let me know if you will need a list of participants authorized to attend the meeting for use by a guard at the front door.

bring mon.

I appreciate your help in arranging all these details. Please feel free to call me at (216) 391-8300 to discuss this. We will, in any case, need to talk further about menu.

Sincerely,

Virginia F. Levi

SUBJECT: June 12 Commission Meeting

-----

The attached letter was sent to commissioners last week. Please remember that we also have senior policy advisor meetings scheduled for Monday, June 11 at 2:30 p.m. and Wednesday, June 13 at 8:30 a.m. Both will be at the JCC Association, 15 East 26th Street.

Please let me know if you cannot attend either of these meetings or the June 12 Commission meeting.

If you are conducting interviews with commissioners, please remember that these should take place as soon as possible. Each interview should be tailored to the special interests of the individual commissioner, including a review of relevant recommendations for the final report taken from the background materials for the February meeting.

Commissioners will receive chapters 2 through 5 of the final report, in draft form, during the week of June 4. (We hope to have chapters 4 and 5 to you this Friday and will need your reactions by Tuesday.) They should understand that this is the proposed substance, but that the language may change before final publication. It is our hope that, based on these drafts, commissioners will authorize the final report for release at a final, celebratory meeting in October.

You may wish to provide commissioners with a general update on the structure of the implementation mechanism and on fundraising, based on the teleconference of May 11. We plan to discuss this in more detail at the June 12 meeting.

Finally, please strongly encourage attendance and let me know as soon as possible the outcome of your discussions.

Attached is a list of commissioner assignments with a notation of attendance intentions where we have heard from commissioners.

TO: Members of the Commission on Jewish Education

FROM: Morton L. Mandel, Chair

DATE: June 1, 1990

Enclosed is a working paper which will be discussed at the sixth and final meeting of the Commission on Jewish Education in North America on Tuesday, June 12 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the American Jewish Committee office, 165 East 56th Street, New York. PLEASE NOTE THE CHANGE IN LOCATION.

This working paper supplies the background material for the Commission's final report. After we have the input of the Commission, we will proceed to prepare a final report for presentation to leaders of the North American Jewish community at a celebratory event in October or November.

I look forward to a fruitful meeting on June 12, which I hope will lead to important improvements in Jewish education throughout North America.

You asked me to take care of the following items so that we would discuss them in more detail on Tuesday May 29:

1. I am to propose to Arthur Green that he (and possibly one other person) meet MLM for breakfast on Tuesday, June 12. You also authorized me to suggest that he consider bringing an assistant to the Commission meeting. --I left a message about the breakfast meeting and he is to call me on Tuesday.
2. As you requested, I called AJN and told him that we will take a table for the June 7 Histadrut dinner. You and I will talk Tuesday about processing the grant and identifying people to attend. I did request that you be seated at the Premier table. Each table seats ten.
3. You suggested that I check three dates for a Commission celebratory event. Following are the results, so far:

	October 23	November 5	November 8
Bronfman	ok	ok	ok
Hoffman	ok	ok	ok ?
Stein	ok	ok	ok ?
Kraar	ok	ok	ok

Fox	ok	ok	ok
Hochstein	ok	ok	ok
Ariel	ok	ok	ok
Hirschhorn	no	ok	ok
Ariel	ok	ok	ok
Crown	- will call back

Based on the above, I recommend November 5.

You advised that I limit the list of people with whom I check. For earlier meetings I also checked with Berman, Fisher, Mintz, and Yanowitz. Please advise if I should call any of these.

4. I left a message with Lipset's office that we will arrange for him to meet with MLM sometime on June 12 and that we will be in touch with a specific time within the next week to ten days.
5. I have scheduled a lunch for Monday June 11 at 12:30 p.m. at JCC Association for you and MLM with SF, AH, and SHH. All are available to attend.

6/7/90

June 12, 1990 Commission Meeting

Working Agenda

I. Morning Plenary Session (10:00 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.)

A. Opening Statement (10:00 - 10:20 a.m.)

1. Why the Commission?

Throughout the past two years we have been working as a group to examine the problems and opportunities facing Jewish education and to develop a comprehensive plan to dramatically improve Jewish education. As you know, what has driven us is our common concern for the Jewish continuity of our people.

2. The Process

We have tried throughout our process to ensure that our results are reflective of the group's deliberations. Therefore, in addition to our meetings, we have had extensive consultations with commissioners in private, as well as active review of all materials by our senior policy advisors group.

What really marks this process as unique is the partnership between public institutions of organized Jewish life and private foundations, and educators. I hope that this reflects a new model of public/private cooperation within the Jewish community that can emerge from our work.

3. Findings and Recommendations

At this point we are ready to review our findings and recommendations. The working paper prepared for today outlines the findings, including an analysis of the challenges and opportunities facing us in Jewish education. It also lists the recommendations we will consider. Annette Hochstein will review all of this with us shortly. We hope to have your reactions to all of this today so that we will be able to work towards our final report.

4. Research

In the process of this study we commissioned a number of research papers to help fill the void of knowledge available about Jewish education. A number of papers have been completed and released. These include Isa Aron's paper on professionalism in Jewish teaching; Walter Ackerman's paper on the structures of Jewish education; and most recently, Aryeh Davidson's paper on training. Several others are due shortly and will be released when completed. With each of these, I hope you will share with me or our staff any comments or reactions you may have. Our intent is to include these papers in what we release as the work of the Commission.

5. Update on Funding

I know that many commissioners are anxious to know what reactions we are getting in our discussions with funders. Solicitation of funders and matching funders with service providers will be a prime function of our implementation entity. We have made a good beginning in this process.

A major aspect of the implementation mechanism's work is to see to it that long-term support for Jewish education continues to be provided generously by current sources: tuition income, congregational and organizational budgets and fundraising, and gradually increasing federation allocations. However, the implementation mechanism has the special responsibility now to encourage support from some relatively new and critically important sources: family foundations, individual funders, and federation endowment funds. These sources can provide a "quick start" for the initiatives which we are proposing while traditional sources gear up.

Thus far, we have discussed funding with representatives of thirteen private foundations. This includes several foundations not represented on the Commission. We have asked them to set aside substantial funds to address Jewish education initiatives during the next five years. Several have agreed to share in funding the proposed implementation mechanism. Several have agreed also to set aside substantial sums to fund Jewish education initiatives during the next five years. A number of others have taken our request under advisement and a few are already funding new programs to address major Jewish education needs.

We are very encouraged by the serious consideration which these sources are giving to stepping up their commitments to support Jewish education. While it is premature to put an exact figure on our projections, we have reason to believe that foundations will increase their Jewish education grants over the next five-year period by twenty-five to fifty million dollars. This is a rough estimate, but we believe it is a conservative one.

6. Today's Meeting

Here is what we will be trying to accomplish today.

- a. We are looking for reactions to the working paper, particularly on the recommendations.
- b. We should discuss and agree upon how we will proceed with writing the final report.

- c. We should discuss and agree upon proceeding with the establishment of the follow-up entity.
- d. Finally, we should discuss how to release the report and publicize it--what kind of closing event would be appropriate and helpful to our objectives.

7. Stop for comments and questions. (MLM - You may want to use this time as an opportunity for funders to comment on your update on funding, and to indicate what their participation might be. A few should be prepared to comment--Crown, Bronfman, Hat, Melton, Hirschhorn, Corson.)

B. Presentation of Working Paper (10:20 - 10:45 a.m.)

Introduce Annette Hochstein to briefly review the contents of today's working paper.

C. Discussion (10:45 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. - and to continue after lunch)

We will begin our discussion with an opportunity for general comment on the whole paper, and will follow that with a review by section.

- 1. Reactions to document as a whole
- 2. Review of chapters 2-4.
- 3. Review of chapter 5.

II. Lunch Break (12:15 - 1:15 p.m.)

We will convene promptly at 1:15 p.m.

III. Afternoon Plenary (1:15 - 3:30 p.m.)

A. Continue chapter by chapter review (1:15 - 2:30 p.m.)

B. Discussion on process toward final report (2:30 - 2:40 p.m.)

1. Emphasize that out of today's discussion will come the basis for our final report. A suggested process is as follows:
Staff would work with David Finn on a draft report. The report would be reviewed by our senior policy advisors group, or an editorial committee comprised of commissioners, or both. Based on this input a revised draft would be prepared and circulated to the full Commission. Comments and reactions from commissioners would then be worked into a final draft to be reviewed again by the policy advisors or editorial committee. This work should be completed by the end of August. Reactions?
2. I would suggest that although this is the final working meeting of this group, it shouldn't be the final gathering. I would plan to convene the Commission in the fall (tentative date - October 23) in order to publicly release the final report, celebrate as a group our accomplishment, and discuss progress on implementation. Reactions?

C. Report on Status of Implementation Mechanism (2:40 - 2:50 p.m.)

Call on Steve Hoffman to report.

D. Good and Welfare (2:50 - 3:20 p.m.)

Given that this is our last working meeting, this is an opportunity for commissioners to share any thoughts about the overall process and product.

IV. Concluding Comments (3:20 - 3:30 p.m.)

Call on Rabbi Isadore Twersky.

COMMISSION ON JEWISH EDUCATION IN NORTH AMERICA

Mission Statement

by

Professor Isadore Twersky

Our goal should be to make it possible for every Jewish child to be exposed to the mystery and romance of Jewish history, to the enthralling insights and special sensitivities of Jewish thought, to the sanctity and symbolism of Jewish existence, to the power and profundity of Jewish faith. As a motto we might adopt the dictum that says "they searched from Dan to Beer Sheva and did not find an 'am ha'aretz!'" 'Am ha'aretz,' usually understood as an ignoramus, an illiterate, may for our purposes be redefined as one indifferent to Jewish visions and values, untouched by the drama and majesty of Jewish history, unappreciative of the resourcefulness and resilience of the Jewish community, unconcerned with Jewish destiny. Education, in its broadest sense, will enable young people to confront the secret of Jewish tenacity and existence, the quality of Torah teaching which fascinates and attracts irresistibly. They will then be able, even eager, to find their place in a creative and constructive Jewish community.

RE: Plans for the day

You've done this enough times that you probably don't need any reminders from me. In any case, I hope you know how appreciative I am of your being here. Here we go, one last time (I think)...

1. I've attached the checklist for your use in registering people and checking on transportation needs to the airport and have lightly marked those most likely to request rides. The concluding time of the meeting is uncertain, but should be no later than 3:30. Most people will be able to give you departure times to assist in scheduling rides.
2. Please distribute name tags and check off names on the list.
3. The meeting is all in the same room. No small groups this time. Lunch is to be set up in the foyer to be served around 12:15. Please do your best to ensure that this is done quietly.
4. Phyllis Booth is our contact person in the building. Her extension is #208.
5. There will be a small group meeting separately over lunch. I will tell you what room that will be in and ask that you help them to find their way. Those involved are: Mort Mandel, Hank Zucker, Steve Hoffman, Charles Bronfman, and Lester Crown.
6. As with the last meeting, I'll try to give you a seating chart so that you can direct people who arrive late.
7. Thanks!

DATE: June 8, 1990

Enclosed is a draft outline of working notes for Tuesday's Commission meeting. We will be reviewing this at Monday's policy advisors meeting.

6/7/90

June 12, 1990 Commission Meeting

Working Agenda

I. Morning Plenary Session (10:00 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.)

A. Opening Statement (10:00 - 10:20 a.m.)

1. Why the Commission?

Throughout the past two years we have been working as a group to examine the problems and opportunities facing Jewish education and to develop a comprehensive plan to dramatically improve Jewish education. As you know, what has driven us is our common concern for the Jewish continuity of our people.

2. The Process

We have tried throughout our process to ensure that our results are reflective of the group's deliberations. Therefore, in addition to our meetings, we have had extensive consultations with commissioners in private, as well as active review of all materials by our senior policy advisors group.

What really marks this process as unique is the partnership between public institutions of organized Jewish life and private foundations, and educators. I hope that this reflects a new model of public/private cooperation within the Jewish community that can emerge from our work.

3. Findings and Recommendations

At this point we are ready to review our findings and recommendations. The working paper prepared for today outlines the findings, including an analysis of the challenges and opportunities facing us in Jewish education. It also lists the recommendations we will consider. Annette Hochstein will review all of this with us shortly. We hope to have your reactions to all of this today so that we will be able to work towards our final report.

4. Research

In the process of this study we commissioned a number of research papers to help fill the void of knowledge available about Jewish education. A number of papers have been completed and released. These include Isa Aron's paper on professionalism in Jewish teaching; Walter Ackerman's paper on the structures of Jewish education; and most recently, Aryeh Davidson's paper on training. Several others are due shortly and will be released when completed. With each of these, I hope you will share with me or our staff any comments or reactions you may have. Our intent is to include these papers in what we release as the work of the Commission.

5. Update on Funding

I know that many commissioners are anxious to know what reactions we are getting in our discussions with funders. Solicitation of funders and matching funders with service providers will be a prime function of our implementation entity. We have made a good beginning in this process.

A major aspect of the implementation mechanism's work is to see to it that long-term support for Jewish education continues to be provided generously by current sources: tuition income, congregational and organizational budgets and fundraising, and gradually increasing federation allocations. However, the implementation mechanism has the special responsibility now to encourage support from some relatively new and critically important sources: family foundations, individual funders, and federation endowment funds. These sources can provide a "quick start" for the initiatives which we are proposing while traditional sources gear up.

Thus far, we have discussed funding with representatives of thirteen private foundations. This includes several foundations not represented on the Commission. We have asked them to set aside substantial funds to address Jewish education initiatives during the next five years. Several have agreed to share in funding the proposed implementation mechanism. Several have agreed also to set aside substantial sums to fund Jewish education initiatives during the next five years. A number of others have taken our request under advisement and a few are already funding new programs to address major Jewish education needs.

We are very encouraged by the serious consideration which these sources are giving to stepping up their commitments to support Jewish education. While it is premature to put an exact figure on our projections, we have reason to believe that foundations will increase their Jewish education grants over the next five-year period by twenty-five to fifty million dollars. This is a rough estimate, but we believe it is a conservative one.

6. Today's Meeting

Here is what we will be trying to accomplish today.

- a. We are looking for reactions to the working paper, particularly on the recommendations.
- b. We should discuss and agree upon how we will proceed with writing the final report.

c. We should discuss and agree upon proceeding with the establishment of the follow-up entity.

d. Finally, we should discuss how to release the report and publicize it--what kind of closing event would be appropriate and helpful to our objectives.

7. Stop for comments and questions. (MLM - You may want to use this time as an opportunity for funders to comment on your update on funding, and to indicate what their participation might be. A few should be prepared to comment--Crown, Bronfman, Hat, Melton, Hirschhorn, Corson.)

B. Presentation of Working Paper (10:20 - 10:45 a.m.)

Introduce Annette Hochstein to briefly review the contents of today's working paper.

C. Discussion (10:45 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. - and to continue after lunch)

We will begin our discussion with an opportunity for general comment on the whole paper, and will follow that with a review by section.

1. Reactions to document as a whole
2. Review of chapters 2-4.
3. Review of chapter 5.

II. Lunch Break (12:15 - 1:15 p.m.)

We will convene promptly at 1:15 p.m.

III. Afternoon Plenary (1:15 - 3:30 p.m.)

A. Continue chapter by chapter review (1:15 - 2:30 p.m.)

B. Discussion on process toward final report (2:30 - 2:40 p.m.)

1. Emphasize that out of today's discussion will come the basis for our final report. A suggested process is as follows:
Staff would work with David Finn on a draft report. The report would be reviewed by our senior policy advisors group, or an editorial committee comprised of commissioners, or both. Based on this input a revised draft would be prepared and circulated to the full Commission. Comments and reactions from commissioners would then be worked into a final draft to be reviewed again by the policy advisors or editorial committee. This work should be completed by the end of August. Reactions?
2. I would suggest that although this is the final working meeting of this group, it shouldn't be the final gathering. I would plan to convene the Commission in the fall (tentative date - October 23) in order to publicly release the final report, celebrate as a group our accomplishment, and discuss progress on implementation. Reactions?

C. Report on Status of Implementation Mechanism (2:40 - 2:50 p.m.)

Call on Steve Hoffman to report.

D. Good and Welfare (2:50 - 3:20 p.m.)

Given that this is our last working meeting, this is an opportunity for commissioners to share any thoughts about the overall process and product.

IV. Concluding Comments (3:20 - 3:30 p.m.)

Call on Rabbi Isadore Twersky.
