Dear Marty:

I am very pleased to confirm officially the invitation I extended to you to serve on the senior policy advisors to the Commission on Jewish Education in North America. I believe you will be a very good addition to the group. In any event, it fits in very well with your new duties as the chief executive of the CJF.

Carmi Schwartz serves on the senior policy advisors as do Art Rotman and Jonathan Woocher. The CJF, JWB, and JESNA are crucial to the thinking of the Commission. Moreover, the Commission is committed to being proactive, and the findings of the Commission will surely help set the agenda of all three organizations in the post-Commission period.

I am looking forward to your participation in the senior advisory group and on the Commission itself, and anticipate the pleasure of working with you. Warm regards.

Sincerely,

MORTON L. MANOEL
Chairman

Dear Art,

Thank you very much for all the information and the invitation to participate in the next meeting of the Commission, as well as the debriefing session. Unfortunately, I will be unable to attend.

In going through the throes of a transition, I have to be very sensitive to the Detroit community in terms of the time in which I am out-of-town. This transition is requiring me to be in New York at significant intervals, both professionally to facilitate a smooth transition and personally, to arrange for the relocation of my family. I must be in New York for the day on Friday, June 16. As such, in order to attend the Commission meetings and their revised schedule, I would be out of the office most of that week. The following week I have to be Israel.

I am hopeful that I will start becoming a regular attendee at the October meeting as I am most interested in this process.

Please offer my apologies to Mort. I wish I could be with you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mort,

I certainly enjoyed being a part of the Technical Advisory Committee of the Commission on Jewish Education. I found yesterday's meeting exciting and as you put it, the variables of academic integrity and community pragmatism always have to be negotiated in such an arena.

In any event, I suspect that I will learn more from this process than I will be able to give, but I look forward to being a part of it with you and the rest of the esteemed group.

I am forwarding to Hank Zucker prototypes of some of the material which we have produced through the Study Committee on Jewish Education in Detroit. I am sure that Hank will share this with you at the appropriate time.

Thank you for your warm hospitality and a very fine meeting. I enjoyed it.

Sincerely,

Martin S. Kraar
