MEMO TO: Seymour Fox, Annette Hochstein, Henry L. Zucker
FROM: Mark Gurvis MG
DATE: March 6, 1990
SUBJECT: Dissemination of Papers

Bernie Reisman would like to be able to share his paper with a number of professionals he contacted in the course of his study who are interested in seeing the results of his research. I have told Bernie that after we share the report with commissioners it would probably be okay to also share the studies with other professionals in the field, but that I would need to check with you on this. Please let me know if you think this will be okay.

Dear Mona:

As you know, a series of papers were commissioned during the past year to provide background information for our process and final report. The papers are nearing completion, having undergone extensive review by our staff and senior policy advisors. I am pleased to forward the first of the papers to you, titled "Towards the Professionalism of Jewish Teaching" prepared by Dr. Isa Aron, professor at the Rhea Hirsch School of Education of Hebrew Union College in Los Angeles.

Isa had two assignments. First was an explanation of how the goal of "professionalism" relates to the field of Jewish education. The second assignment was an analysis of data from the field on characteristics of the people now working in Jewish education.

The first three sections of this paper define the profession in terms of three commonly accepted criteria, and analyze the ways in which Jewish teaching meets those criteria. Section three, which looks at the criterion of commitment, encompasses an interesting discussion of the unique dimensions of Jewish teaching. Finally, the last section points toward ways in which policy-makers in Jewish education can work to increase professionalism.

I hope you will share your thoughts with me or our staff.

Please continue to hold June 12, 1990 for our final Commission meeting. Details on time and place will be sent as soon as possible. Warmest regards.

Mort

Morton L. Mandel

April 27, 1990

Dear Friend:

The Commission on Jewish Education in North America has been working for two years to develop recommendations that will lead to improvements in Jewish education. At its final meeting in June 1990, the Commission is expected to review a draft of its final report, which will be issued in the months to follow.

In the course of our work, we commissioned a number of background papers to strengthen the knowledge base for our work and conclusions. I am pleased to share the first of these with you now. The enclosed paper is by Dr. Isa Aron of the Rhea Hirsch School of Education, Hebrew Union College, Jewish Institute of Religion in Los Angeles. Entitled "Toward the Professionalism of Jewish Teaching," the paper explores the relationship of the concept of professionalism to the field of Jewish teaching.

While this and the other papers commissioned reflect the work and ideas of the authors, and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Commission, each report is believed to be a valuable contribution to our knowledge and understanding of Jewish education. In that spirit, the Commission is pleased to share these papers as a service to the community. The other papers will follow shortly, and our final report, when completed, will also be sent to you.

Please feel free to share your comments and reactions on this, or any of the papers to follow, with me, our staff or the authors.

FROM: Morton L. Mandel, Chairman

DATE: May 16, 1990

The enclosed paper on "The Structure of Jewish Education" by Walter Ackerman, Shane Family Professor of Education at Ben Gurion University of the Negev, is one of a series of background papers prepared for the Commission on Jewish Education in North America.

One of the challenges in studying Jewish education is developing a concrete working understanding of this complex field. Ackerman's paper is a clear and concise analysis of the structure of Jewish education, and how various elements relate to each other.

As with our other papers, your comments will be most welcome. Please contact me or Mark Gurvis of our staff with any reactions you would like to share.

The enclosed paper on "The Structure of Jewish Education" by Walter Ackerman, Shane Family Professor of Education at Ben Gurion University of the Negev, is one of a series of background papers prepared for the Commission on Jewish Education in North America.

One of the challenges in studying Jewish education is developing a concrete working understanding of this complex field. Ackerman's paper is a clear and concise analysis of the structure of Jewish education, and how various elements relate to each other.

As with our other papers, your comments will be most welcome. Please contact me or Mark Gurvis of our staff with any reactions you would like to share.

Dear Friend:

The Commission on Jewish Education in North America has been working for two years to develop recommendations that will lead to improvements in Jewish education. At its final meeting in June 1990, the Commission is expected to review a draft of its final report, which will be issued in the months to follow.

In the course of our work, we commissioned a number of background papers to strengthen the knowledge base for our work and conclusions. I am pleased to share the first two papers with you now.

The first paper is by Dr. Isa Aron of the Rhea Hirsch School of Education, Hebrew Union College, Jewish Institute of Religion in Los Angeles. Entitled "Toward the Professionalism of Jewish Teaching," the paper explores the relationship of the concept of professionalism to the field of Jewish teaching.

The other paper enclosed is by Walter Ackerman, Shane Family Professor of Education at Ben Gurion University of the Negev, on "The Structure of Jewish Education." One of the challenges in studying Jewish education is developing a concrete working understanding of this complex field. Ackerman's paper is a clear and concise analysis of the structure of Jewish education, and how various elements relate to each other.

While these and the other papers commissioned reflect the work and ideas of the authors, and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Commission, each report is believed to be a valuable contribution to our knowledge and understanding of Jewish education. In that spirit, the Commission is pleased to share these papers as a service to the community. The other papers will follow shortly, and our final report, when completed, will also be sent to you.

Please feel free to share your comments and reactions on this, or any of the papers to follow, with me, our staff or the authors.

Morton L. Mandel
Chairman

Enclosed is a copy of Dr. Aryeh Davidson's study on training of Jewish educators. Aryeh is chairman of the Department of Education at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

This paper catalogues the scope of professional training activity at institutions of higher learning in Jewish education. Even though data provided is not identified by the individual institution (the need for confidentiality to gain data precludes such disclosure), the aggregate data tell a very compelling story about the need for further development of professional education efforts.

Feel free to share your reactions to the papers with me or Mark Gurvis of our staff.

SUBJECT: Ordering Forms and Distribution of Reports

As we plan towards printing and distribution of the final report it might be helpful to consider a few points:

1. We don't have to do it all at once. An initial printing of 5,000 copies for distribution to key national and community leaders in the Federation and education realms is probably a good start. The Council can deal with later distribution, requests for copies, and reprintings as necessary. For the report it will probably be worthwhile attaching a cost to requests for multiple copies of the report. Leaving reprintings to the jointly funded Council would also mean that the Mandel Associated Foundations doesn't have to bear the full cost of printing the report.

2. David Finn's comments notwithstanding, I do not believe we have a book on our hands unless the research papers are included with the report in one volume. On the whole we have tended towards modesty in our process. I believe we would do well to stay that course.

3. We are distributing upwards of 500 copies of each research paper. We are not being flooded by requests, although there have been a few. I do not believe we should structure an order form for the research papers, although some models provided by Annette are included with this memo. It would frankly be much less hassle to either let JESNA distribute copies or send them out from "the Council."

I would be glad to discuss this further with you so we can work out some kind of procedure for how to deal with this.

The enclosed paper "The Synagogue as a Context for Jewish Education" was prepared by Joseph Reimer, a member of our staff and Assistant Professor at the Hornstein Program in Jewish Communal Service, Brandeis University. It is one of a series of background papers prepared for the Commission on Jewish Education in North America.

During our meetings, the impact of the supplementary school as an educational setting was discussed. Professor Reimer has begun a study of this topic and in his paper, by using qualitative ethnographic methods, is attempting to understand what makes for a "successful" supplementary school.

Dear Ginny,

Hi! Hope you are well.

I've compiled a list of people to whom I'd like you to send my paper. It is everyone I've circled on the first 3 sheets plus the inquiries on the last 2 sheets. I assume you send it to Ysa Aron & Artyh Davidson, but if not - to her too.

I look forward to seeing you on Nov. 8.

Thanks for this.

Sincerely yours,

Joe Resner

Dear Virginia,

I enjoyed talking with you on the phone today. I've enclosed a check for $18.95 for a copy of the report on Jewish education and UPS Blue shipping. Please let me know if this amount is not sufficient.

I've also enclosed some information about the Jewish Software Catalog. The Catalog is an important new resource for Jewish education. It is a reference work as well as a valuable source of ideas about what kind of things it is possible to do with a computer. It brings together in one place most Jewish-oriented software - categorized, explained, indexed and illustrated. It is not addressed to 'techies' or mavens but rather to ordinary computer users who may not be aware of what can currently be done with their computers. A frequent response on first seeing the Catalog is 'I didn't know there was all this software out there!'.

Thank you very much for sending the report and best wishes for a happy Hanukkah season.

Sincerely,

Alan Sobel

FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION

TO: Ginny Levi

DATE: 26.11.90

FROM: Alissa Burstein

NO. PAGES: 7

FAX NUMBER: 216-361-9962

Dear Ginny:

Annette has looked over your lists of who will be receiving the report. If possible, she would like to add a few names, which follow. Please also note that Marc Rosenstein now lives in Israel so we will be sending him a copy from here.

Annette would also like to know whether she should order a new set of the slides she used for her presentation (she will be needing a copy for her presentations here) or whether the copy she used in New York, that Steve Hoffman now has, could be Federal Expressed here.

Best regards,

Alissa

Re: North American Commission on Jewish Education -
Final Report

Dear Mark,

We in Los Angeles will be seeking to develop a number of cooperative projects with the North American Commission on Jewish Education. In order to begin these deliberations, I will be meeting with our leadership on November 29.

For our meeting on that day, it would be very helpful to have 25 copies of the Commission's final report and recommendations.

Thank you very much for your help.

Cordially,

MEMO TO: Stephen H. Hoffman
FROM: Virginia F. Levi Levi
DATE: December 5, 1990
SUBJECT: Commission Report Sales at the GA

I finally spoke with Ellen Bob, the person who ran the bookstore at the GA. She indicated that she sold the Commission reports for $10 apiece, $2 of which went to the San Francisco Federation. She expects a cut of 40% of the difference, leaving $4.80 for us. She did not have a record of the number of books she had sold, but indicates that the remainder are on sale at her bookstore for $10 apiece. Of those, she has sold none.

Ms. Bob suggests that we send her a bill for the 94 books (you indicated that you had taken 2 from her open box) at $4.80 each. I pointed out that the books she has on sale at her store at $10 should yield us a higher return, to which she replied that she doesn't anticipate selling many. She did ask to be permitted to keep them until Hanukkah is over. She will then send us any books which remain.

I have an address to which to send the bill, if you agree. There are a number of details here (i.e., the $2 to the San Francisco Federation and 40% to Bob) that you didn't mention to me, leading me to believe that you may not have been aware of them. If you wish to discuss any of this with Ellen Bob, she can be reached at her store at (415) 329-9050. If I should pursue it further with her, let me know.

Please let me know what my next step should be.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Virginia Levi

FROM: R. Michael Colc Mike

As we discussed on the phone today, Barry Reis has recommended that all checks which are received for purchase of Commission books or research reports be deposited in the "Mandel Associated Foundations -- Morton L. and Barbara Mandel Fund" account. Similarly all postage charges would be paid from that account. Since there is no legal entity "Mandel Associated Foundations" -- only the three separate Funds -- we suggest using one of them for this purpose for simplicity's sake, and Mort's Fund seemed the most logical one.

OK

We also will need to obtain a vendor's license from the State of Ohio in the name of the entity engaged in the sale of the books, and again Barry has suggested using the Mort and Barbara Fund for this purpose. The cost of such a license is minimal, but Ernst & Young has advised us that we need to acquire one as a result of getting into the sale of books.

OK

Before we proceed with using the Mort and Barbara Fund in the two ways I've suggested, we would, however, like to advise Mort of our thinking and make sure he's comfortable with it.

OK

Would you please bring this to Mort's attention, and obtain his response?

Thank you.

Memorandum

To: Virginia F. Levi

From: Daniel Mann

Date: December 20, 1990

Subject: Final Report of Commission

You'll recall our correspondence of a few months ago, at which time you were helpful in sending me all the materials and reports from the Commission on Jewish Education in North America that I had not previously received, including the background material for the final report, dated June 12.

Since then we have of course heard and read much about the final report itself. I would appreciate your sending me a copy of that report and any accompanying material. I also would appreciate receiving the latest background reports, if any more have appeared, particularly (but not only) Bernard Reisman's study of informal education.

If the new Council on Initiatives in Jewish Education plans to issue reports and/or background materials, we'd be pleased to be included on its mailing list. In the meantime, however, my primary interest is in the final report of the Commission and related documents.

Many thanks for your continuing cooperation and assistance.

Dear Mandel Commission:

A colleague recently showed me a copy of the report "The Synagogue as a Context for Jewish Education" by Joseph Reimer. I was quite impressed with the report and would like to share it with members of the staff of Holy Blossom Temple as well as its Education Committee.

Would it be possible for you to send me 25 copies of this report. If not, could you please send me one copy and give me permission to duplicate it?

I look forward to hearing from you soon and thank you for your help and the good work you are doing.

Shalom,
