MEMO TO: Stephen H. Hoffman

FROM: Henry L. Zucker

DATE: November 29, 1990

Following up on your visit and correspondence with Maurice Corson, I had a good meeting with him yesterday in New York. Ferne Kattelman joined us for part of the session.

We agreed that it is very important for the Mandel Associated Foundations and the Wexner Foundation to keep in close touch with each other with reference to our activity in the training and educating of educators. They are already involved in some of this as are we, and we surely should know what each one is doing. This applies especially to contacts with the seminaries.

We agreed that the next step should be a meeting among Maurice, Ferne, you, Ginny and me. They will respond positively to an invitation to join us for discussion in the near future.

YOUR MEMO OF:

SUBJECT:

This is the camper report on Steve Hoffman's and my meeting with Maurice Corson.

Maurice seems pleased now with the work of the CIJE and appears to be glad to be part of it.

We discussed the CIJE agenda. While he is not yet ready to buy in on some of our ideas, he seems to be warming up to a collegial relationship with the MAF and with other foundations.

He plans to attend the January 16 meeting.

I believe that he is warming up to the CIJE process, and eventually will cooperate and participate in some of our joint activities.
