Dear Mr. Mandel:

Thank you for your invitation to join the CIJE. I look forward to working with you on this important project, and intend to be with you on August 26. If there is material that I can read in advance to catch me up with the work of the Council, I trust that someone in your office will forward it to me.

I'll take care of this. DT

Best wishes,

Dr. David Teutsch

Dear Rabbi Teutsch,

Congratulations on your appointment to the presidency of the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College. I wish you a long, successful presidency.

We would like to invite you, in your capacity as President of RRC, to serve on the Board of Trustees of the Council for Initiatives in Jewish Education. We meet three times a year in New York. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, August 26. I hope your schedule will permit you to attend the Board meeting. Details will be forwarded later in the summer.

If you have any questions about this, please feel free to call me at (216) 391-8300, or Dr. Barry Holtz, our Program Officer at (212) 678-8034.

I look forward to hearing from you, and send my best regards.

Mort Mandel has forwarded your letter of July 6 to me for response. He is pleased that you will serve on the board of CIJE and looks forward to meeting you on August 26.

Enclosed are materials which you may find helpful in orienting yourself to CIJE. I've included A Time to Act, the report of the Commission on Jewish Education in North America, which recommends the establishment of CIJE. Also included are several publications put out by CIJE, the minutes of past board meetings and related documents which were distributed at those meetings.

I believe this should be ample to give you a flavor of the work of CIJE. You can expect to hear from Barry Holtz, if you have not already, who can provide you with more background information.

I, too, look forward to meeting you on August 26.

Sincerely,

Virginia Levi
