Dear [Federation Executive],

The Council for Initiatives in Jewish Education (CIJE) was created in November, 1990 to carry out the recommendations of A Time to Act, the report of the Commission on Jewish Education in North America.

We are now pleased to launch the Lead Communities Project, our first major initiative. Several communities throughout North America will be invited to develop models for system wide improvement of Jewish education based on broad coalitions of educators, rabbis, lay leaders, professionals and philanthropists. A description of the project and procedures for applying are detailed in the attached Guidelines.

I encourage you, in consultation with other leaders in your community, to seriously consider applying to be a Lead Community.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen H. Hoffman
Acting Director

The Council for Initiatives in Jewish Education, chaired by CJF Past President Morton L. Mandel, will host an important teleconference over the facilities of the CJF Satellite Network on FEBRUARY 24, 1992, 3:00 - 5:00 PM EST.

The conference will deal with the CIJE's Lead Communities Project - an opportunity for communities to become participants in an experiment to improve Jewish education and thereby help insure the continuity of the Jewish people.

A formal and more detailed invitation has been sent to all Federations eligible to apply (those with Jewish populations between 15,000 - 300,000) by Ukeles Associates, Inc. (UAI) which is coordinating the planning of the project for CIJE. Contact person at UAI is:

Dr. James Meier
212-260-8758

Please put the day and time on hold for your satellite receiving center and let me know if you have any conflict in the event that members of your community want to attend this important meeting. If your Federation is not currently a member of the CJF Satellite Network, please call the closest Federation which is a member and make arrangements to participate at their facility. If that is not feasible, contact me for instructions on locating an alternate facility near your community.

For technical issues please call me at 212-598-3519.

Here is my suggestion for a cover letter. Please feel free to edit: no pride of authorship here!

I'm not certain who should sign the letter. It is something you should discuss with Steve. My recommendation would be that Steve and Mort co-sign OR that Mort sign himself. If he is to sign, then I imagine Ginny will have to give him a copy for his approval.

I leave at 8 in the morning and won't be back until late in the evening. Barry is coming in and I have another meeting downtown. If you need me, leave a message on the tape at 301-230-2012 and I'll check that machine only at noon and then again around 4.

Good-night!

DRAFT/Letter for REP packet
Assume colleagues are Executive Directors of Federations

January 1992

Dear Colleagues,

The Council for Initiatives in Jewish Education (CIJE) is now prepared to launch its Lead Communities Project, one of the specific recommendations made by the Commission on Jewish Education in North America in its final report A Time To Act.

The Lead Communities Project is the CIJE's program to establish several model communities in North America. It is based on the assumption that systemic change on behalf of Jewish education and significant improvement in programs can take place within a community when lay and professional leaders, synagogues and educational institutions, and all those involved in formal and informal Jewish education plan and work together in a planful way.

The plans call for each lead community to prepare and undertake the implementation of a program most suited to meet its own needs and resources and most likely to have a major impact on the scope and quality of Jewish education provided in the community.

This information packet has been prepared to assist communities with Jewish populations of over 15,000 in the application process. It contains information about the Lead Communities Project, the criteria for selection, detailed information about the application process and the project timetable.

DOES THIS GO HERE? DO YOU HAVE THIS ELSEWHERE? Questions concerning the project and the application process should be directed to Dr. Jim Meier at (address and phone number also fax number). WHAT ABOUT INFORMATION ABOUT THE BIDDER'S CONFERENCE?

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, Senior Policy Advisors and the staff and consultants to the CIJE, I invite the participation of your community in the Lead Communities Project.

Sincerely yours,
