Rabbi Reacts

Being overwhelmed is nothing new to our people. Soon we will be reading the story of our Biblical ancestor Jacob who left his home (after a fight with his brother), and ventured out quite independently. During one of those first nights out he tried to find a restful place to relax and sleep. He dreamt that a ladder near him had angels going up and down on it. He woke up astonished and was quite eloquent: "How awesome is this place. This can be none other than the House of God (Beth Elohim)."

I now echo some of those same sentiments. After leaving Cincinnati, which had become home, I set out for Glenview. During the summer months I attended board meetings, led services and met many of our students at Olin-Sang-Ruby. As September rolled in, so did an unbelievable rush of activity. I am now keenly aware of the rapid pulse of our congregation. How awesome and inspiring it is!

Two recent comments suggest the richness of the Holidays. The first came from someone who was genuinely preparing himself for these heartening days ahead. He came into the Temple office and asked for the Gates of Heaven instead of our prayerbook, The Gates of Repentance. From his lips to God's ears. I wish that chutzpah alone could make it so easy. (If anyone has seen the gates of Heaven, please let me know. I want to hear your story.)

The second occurred during a phone conversation. The receptionist who answered the call noted that my name was Rabbi Fine. She then asked what company I was with. While proud to respond that I was serving BJBE, my mind pondered the myriad of answers I could have given.

An exciting thing happened on the way to religious school: Many of our third grade students and their parents will be participating in a unique project. These learners will be involved in seminars at school as well as at home (where special projects will be completed together). Stay tuned for ongoing developments. (Be sure to ask a third grade student or one of their parents to get the latest update.)

.....

Since Beth and I arrived, we have been warmly introduced and met many of you. We hope to get to know the rest of you in the coming months.

B'Shalom,
David B. Fine

Babysitting Service

The Senior Youth Group is eager to provide another year of babysitting during Friday night services. Youth group members will be available at the Temple to sit for your kids from 8:00-10:15 pm every Friday evening except for Family Service nights.

Children up to third grade level are welcome. There will be a $2.00 charge per child, per evening. All proceeds will be used to support Senior Youth Group activities.

We will begin the babysitting service on October 27.

Reservations are necessary. Please call Barrett Kaiz (945-9685) by 4:00 pm the day of the services to insure that there will be enough sitters. Thank you.

As I See It

Well, by now, the glow of the high holiday season is over. Perhaps your favorite memory is the family gathered around the Rosh Hashana festive meal enjoying both the food and the fellowship. Perhaps the children were in from college or the children and the grandchildren gathered to share the love and warmth. With the beautiful weather, perhaps you were able to go walking in the woods with friends and absorb the late reflections of a passing summer.

Marilyn and I were fortunate enough to have that kind of walk and afterwards we happened to meet another couple from Temple. The standard hello was exchanged and we discovered their walk included a reflection of the past year and putting the New Year in perspective. What wonderful timing! Certainly entering the New Year should be a time of reflection and repentance. Rabbi Shapiro's sermon touched me, and certainly among the reflections and aspirations we should have for 5750 is to rededicate ourselves in a quest to elevate the many relationships we have.

So, I hope you will indulge me in my pensive mood as I encourage you to take the first step to enhance and improve the relationships in your life. Can you feel the joy and gratification a relationship improvement would bring between family members, friends, acquaintances and even your relationship with BJBE?

December Adult Retreat

Adult Retreat at OSRUI in Oconomowoc will take place the weekend of December 1-3. The cost is $87.55 per person (includes MAZON). All reservations received with at least a $25.00 deposit by Tuesday, November 7th will be considered equally (and a lottery "pulled" if we are overbooked at that date).

We also have an adult retreat scheduled for March 2-4, 1990.

Wheelchairs Available

Through the generosity of families in our congregation, we now have two wheelchairs available for use in the Temple. If the need arises, please call the Temple office so arrangements can be made.

BULLETIN DEADLINE
NOVEMBER 1, 1989

Sisterhood

"Violence in a Jewish Home?.....Never!" Unfortunately, we are not immune! Battery is the single major cause of injury to women, more significant than auto accidents, rapes or muggings.

Come and share these concerns as we welcome a guest speaker from SHALVA to our first Open Meeting of 5750, on Wednesday, November 8, at 8:00 pm; join us at 7:30 for "coffee and" a brief meeting before the presentation.

Any BJBEE women interested in attending the next Interfaith Luncheon at Congregation Beth Shalom in Northbrook, Wednesday, November 15, should contact Sue Goldstein (564-0086). This luncheon will give women from churches and synagogues in the area an opportunity to share their thoughts on important issues.

Dominick's Benefit Days are November 6, 7, and 8; should you forget to bring your slip to the store, ask the service desk for an emergency slip and then load up your cart! Send your cash register receipt with your name on it (for earning fund credit) to Elaine Engle, 1133 Pfingsten, Glenview, IL 60025.

Remember those shekels you were saving up for gifts this winter? Here's the time to spend 'em: Sunday, November 19 from 10:00 am until 4:00 pm at our wonderful Chanukah-Holiday Boutique. Macky Cohen (870-0789) is squeezing more vendors into our Community Hall, who knew our sale had a reputation for terrific selections? Sharyl Braverman (291-0799) is planning fresh salads, hot dogs, beverages and a beautiful bake sale in our lower level; helpers are needed....please volunteer an hour or two.

Entertainment '90 Books can be purchased by calling either Gail Ostach (564-2339) or Barbara Goldfine (724-1850). Foodworks, can add new taste treats to your Thanksgiving menu; call Sharon (291-9123) or Marge (272-6595). Both of these books are available at our Holiday Boutique and Gift Shop.

Happy Day and Memorial Cards show you care....call Irene Schatz (729-8812), Iris Friedlieb (966-5749) or Marcia Filerman (272-1960). L'Dor Vador cards are available by calling Lynne Kleiman (215-1357) or Darleen Salomon (498-4443). Uniongrams can be mailed by calling Joan Sacks (272-2325) or Ruth Maller (498-3634).

And of course, in addition to being open the day of the boutique, our Judaica Shop is now featuring many new Chanukah items, including menorahs, decorations and gifts. Hours are Sunday, 10:30-12:00; Friday evenings before and after services, or by arrangements by calling Sara Liebman (564-2393), Paula Wiggins (390-0283), Linda Willis (564-2499) or Carol Kantor (498-1790).

Invitations and Personalized Paper Goods can be ordered with ease by reaching Marcia Simmons (966-2248).

Special thanks to all those who cleaned, tagged and dragged their no-longer-needed items to our Fall Resale.

Sandy Wiczer
967-1349

Annual Blood Drive

There's still time to become a donor for our annual Blood Drive. The drive will be held in the community hall on Sunday, November 5th between 8:30 am and 2:30 pm. Severe blood shortages this year make your donation more important than ever. For more information contact Arlene Morgan (272-9897) or Joan Haase (827-7453).

BJBE Nursery School and Parent/Tot Program

I hope that your New Year is off to a wonderful start. Our committee continues to be hard at work and I want to keep you posted on our progress.

The BJBEE Nursery School will open in September, 1990, and everything is moving along smoothly. Thanks once again to a terrific sub-committee. Our Parent/Tot program is right around the corner and I can't wait to tell you more about the classes.

We will open in January with two classes. One class every Friday morning for children 18-24 months and a second class each Shabbat morning for children 20-30 months old. Temple members will be given priority enrollment.

I am thrilled to announce that we have hired Jill Jacobs to teach our classes. Jill is an experienced Parent/Tot teacher and much more. She is bright, warm, energetic, and part of our Temple family. We are very lucky to have Jill and all she brings to our program.

Our Parent/Tot program will be a special place to be for parents and their children because it is part of BJBEE. That is something you can't find any place but here. Please let your friends and neighbors know about these exciting classes. Feel free to call the Temple office for registration information.

As always, keep in touch.

Board Briefs

September 20, 1989

Harvey Amend, chairman of the long range planning committee, moved that the board adopt the new long range goals. These goals will govern the decisions of the Temple board in the future.

Building vice-president Steve Blonz, asked for the allocation of funds for the following purposes: 1-To repair the damages in the lower level resulting from flooding in August; 2-To replace a pipe and sewer line which is partly responsible for recurrent flooding; 3-To repair the sewer which runs from the parking lot to Milwaukee Avenue; 4-To make a small repair on the roof; 5-To replace doors in the upstairs bathrooms; and 6-To purchase 56 classroom chairs.

Jill Jacobs has been hired for the Parent/Tot Classes which will commence January, 1990. The Nursery School will be opening in the fall of 1990.

Joy Wasserman, Temple educator, reported that "Reform Judaism" was the topic for the recent staff orientation. She also told about the new 8th grade education program called the "mitzvah corps." Students in this program attend Shabbat services once a month with their parents, and the group meets before and after Services for discussions. Each student will perform some type of charity or community service.

Kathy Goldman said the books "Bible Stories for Children" are being sent to Russia.

Dan Wiczer, social action vice president, gave the report for that committee. The Glenbrook hunger walk will occur on October 15th. Congregants are being asked to bring canned food on Yom Kippur day, which will be contributed to the ARK. At Rosh Hashana services congregants will be given postcards to send to their congressmen.

Rabbi Shapiro told about his one-day trip to Toronto where he installed Rabbi Irwin Zeplovitz in his new congregation.

Tele-Help

Tele-Help is a community service of the National Council of Jewish Women, North Shore Section. It is a free, non-sectarian, confidential service which links people who have questions or problems with an appropriate source of help.

For more information or to sign up to become a Tele-help volunteer, call Enid Block (291-0085), weekdays between 9:00 am and 1:00 pm.

Bal Taschit - Do Not Destroy

The following column of Jewish environmental concerns was prepared by the Environment Task Force of SoJurn (Social Justice Religious Resource Network).

Pop bottles, egg cartons, grocery bags and many other types of packaging are increasingly being made of plastic. Unfortunately the use of plastics is causing a very serious environmental threat. Plastic accounts for 7% of our country's waste, but since it is so light, it makes up 25-30% of the volume of solid waste. Plastic is not biodegradable, it does not compress easily, and is toxic when incinerated.

To combat this environmental threat, we can avoid buying items that are packaged in plastic. Whenever possible, choose products packaged in recyclable glass or aluminum. Ask for paper bags at the checkout line. Don't buy styrofoam cups or plates. Reuse plastic bags and wraps whenever possible.

Plastic milk jugs, orange juice containers and liquid detergent and soap containers are now being accepted at the Evanston Recycling Center. In addition, certain biodegradable plastic items are now available.

We can't expect to totally eliminate the use of plastics in our lives. However, by recycling, reducing our usage, and using biodegradables, we can make an important contribution to a safer environment for ourselves and our children.

Social Action Committee

There is Help at the End of the Line

The EZRA Hotline is a 24-hour, 7-day a week service of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago that links callers to specific agencies able to help them.

Illinois Jewish Alliance for Choice

The Illinois Jewish Alliance for Choice is made up of many Jewish organizations, synagogues, and individuals who are determined to see that the reproductive rights of women are protected in our state. The purpose of this coalition is to motivate people to contact their legislators by phone call, letters, and personal visits when action is needed.

Individual membership in the Illinois Jewish Alliance for Choice is $5.00. A phone tree will be set up in our Temple when action is needed. If you would like to be part of this phone tree, please let me know.

If you wish to join this coalition, please send your $5.00 check (payable to Illinois Jewish Alliance for Choice) to me: Roberta Krolick, 3126 Violet Lane, Northbrook, IL 60062 (498-3126).

Soviet Jewry

Urgent! Urgent! Urgent!

With so many newly arrived families from the Soviet Union, there is a desperate and immediate need for numerous basic items. Please help us find the much needed beds, TVs (a vitally important learning tool - to hear English spoken correctly and increase English vocabulary - no English, no jobs!), sofas, chairs, desks, tables, lamps, linens, dishes, etc. If you do not have any of these items to donate, pass the word, ask around.

If you have a truck or van we could use to pick up and deliver furniture, that would be enormously appreciated. If not, and you have an item to donate, arrangements will be made for pick up.

When items are picked up, the donors will have an opportunity to meet the Russian family member(s) accompanying the driver (temple member). So please help in any way you can. It's fun, friendly and it makes you feel good!

For more information call Kathy Goldman (593-1102).

MAZON and the 3% solution

The MAZON Committee gratefully acknowledges donations from the following:

ELAINE and HEINZ HERZ
EVELYN and NORMAN FRIEDMAN
ROBERTA and MARSHALL KROLICK
MERLE and ROBERT TERRY

If you have contributed to MAZON, but are not on the list please let us know and accept our apology. Of course, we will respect any request for anonymity.

MAZON suggests a contribution of 3% of the cost of a celebratory event party, meal, etc. Your contributions will make a difference in MAZON's battle against hunger. Thanks for caring.

For further information about MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger, please contact the Committee: Marga Levy (470-1495); Kathy Goldman (593-1102); Joan Haase (827-7453); Marlene Mendelson (564-4344) or Ethel Schmall (824-6776).

BJBE's December Scholar-In-Residence
A Weekend With
RABBI BERNARD ZLOTOWITZ
Friday, December 8 - Sunday, December 10, 1989

Friday, December 8

Welcome Shabbat by joining us for dinner at 6:00

After 8:00 Services, Rabbi Zlotowitz speaks on "Where Our Customs Really Come From," a discussion of customs surrounding lifecycle events and holidays. Discover why we give our children the names we do, and learn the origin of customs like circling the bride and covering the mirrors after a death.

Saturday, December 9 - 8:00 pm

Join us for Havdalah, wine and cheese, and a discussion of "How to Dig the Bible

Through Archaeology", Rabbi Zlotowitz's personal account of the famous archaeological work near the Western Wall in Jerusalem. Rabbi Zlotowitz will also explain how archaeology can help in understanding and interpreting the Bible, and he will share slides of archaeological digs in Masada, Meggido, and in Jerusalem.

Sunday, December 10

Join us for juice and bagels at 9:30 am.

Rabbi Zlotowitz speaks again on "Where Our Customs Really Come From" at 10:15. Even if you were unable to attend on Friday night, don't miss the continuation of this fascinating discussion on the origin of many familiar Jewish customs.

Rabbi Bernard Zlotowitz is the Director of the New York Federation of Reform Synagogues. He is also a brilliant scholar and a lovely mentsch.

Don't miss this exciting weekend. To join us for Erev Shabbat dinner on Friday night, please fill out the form below and return it with your check by FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1.

BJBE's Scholar-In-Residence Program is sponsored by the Shomrim Fund.

I/We will join you for Erev Shabbat dinner on Friday, December 8th.

Tzedakah for November

This is a difficult Tzedakah recipient to talk about. The very fact that there is a need for an organization such as SHALVA is difficult to accept. The fact that the organization isn't in New York or Los Angeles, but is located here in Chicago is difficult to believe. The fact that the organization is for Jews is incredible. The fact that every day Jewish women and children are the brutal victims of domestic violence inside the home is inconceivable. But, to our shame, all of these facts are true.

SHALVA works to break the tyranny of domestic violence. It provides shelters, medical care, Rabbinic counseling, legal aid and financial assistance for those Jews who are running for their lives.

If you know of someone who is living under the black and blue existence of domestic violence - PLEASE - tell them about SHALVA and give them this phone number (312) 583-HOPE.

A speaker from SHALVA will be featured at the Sisterhood Open Meeting on Wednesday, November 8th at 8:00 pm. All are welcome.

Jewish Life on Campus

The Jewish Life on Campus Directory, published by B'nai B'rith, will soon be available for all congregants. This directory has proven to be an invaluable source of information for all Jewish families in search of a college for their children. There is a reference copy available in the Temple library now and several more will be available shortly. Congregants who wish to have their own copies, at a nominal charge, may send their name and address to my attention at the Temple office.

Network at BJBE

On Friday evening, November 17th NETWORK will hold an Erev Shabbat Service at BJBE in the downstairs all-purpose room at 8:30 pm.

NETWORK is the Jewish singles connection, serving those in the 21-35 age group.

Rabbi Shapiro will be speaking to NETWORK that Shabbat at the end of the upstairs service.

All Jewish singles who fall into the NETWORK framework are invited to attend.

This year . . . Bring Chanuka Home.

Experience the joy and beauty of Chanuka in a home service specially created for the whole family.

Each day, the story of Chanuka unfolds with poetry, song, and prayer. Beautiful, full-page illustrations augment the story as it daily builds to its inspiring conclusion. An elegant retelling of the timeless struggle for dignity and religious freedom, a beacon of light and hope for every generation — for all mankind.

Haneirot Halalu includes nightly blessings in Hebrew and English (with complete transliterations), the dreidle-game, music — even a traditional recipe for latkes.

The text and liturgies, edited by Rabbi Elyse D. Frishman, plus nine vibrant watercolors by renowned artist Leonard Baskin infuse the story with warmth and rare beauty.

Purchase Haneirot Halalu for those you love — enrich your celebration of Chanuka for years to come.

An Evening for Adults Only a chance to be a kid again!

Spend an evening exploring one of the most fascinating museums in the country - Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry. At the same time, you'll be benefitting an institution that has enriched the lives of thousands of Jewish children over the past four decades: Olin-Sang-Ruby Union Institute in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin. Join us on Saturday, November 11, 7:30-11:00 pm as we...explore the depths of the Coal Mine...experience the excitement of Omnimax...watch the miracle of life in the Hatchery...stroll down Yesterday's Main Street...and much, much more. The minimum donation is $60.00 per person, which includes a buffet supper. Sponsored by the OSRUI Alumni Association, this evening is truly for all those adults who know what a great place Camp is for kids. For information, contact Judi Goode (948-7490).
