Welcome Cantor Michael Shochet

Temple Beth-El is privileged to welcome to our congregation, our new Student Cantor, Michael Shochet. Cantor Shochet is a third year student at the Hebrew Union College School of Sacred Music. He has served as a Cantorial Soloist at the Baltimore Hebrew Congregation, the choir director at Temple Emanuel in Baltimore and most recently, as Temple Emanuel's Student Cantor. Prior to entering Cantorial School, Cantor Shochet worked as a Television News Reporter at WMAR-TV, NBC in Baltimore and as a police officer for the Baltimore City Police Department. Cantor Shochet has also been an active volunteer in the Baltimore Jewish Community, where he served as a member of the Board of Trustees at Temple Emanuel. Cantor Shochet and his wife, Denise, are the proud parents of their first child, Jacob, who was born this summer. We look forward to welcoming Cantor Shochet to our pulpit at his first service on Friday, September 11th, and to meeting his family at the Sabbath dinner in his honor on Friday, September 25th.

A Letter of Welcome from Cantor Shochet

I am delighted to begin serving Temple Beth-El as Cantor this month. My wife, Denise, and our newborn son, Jacob, are looking forward to becoming part of your Temple "family" over the next two years. As you get to know me, you'll see that I am very interested in congregational life. I look forward to assisting Rabbi Brickman with any event in the life of our congregants. As far as services are concerned, I have always insisted on congregants singing along with me. Much of the music that you will hear will be similar to what you're accustomed to, so please join in! Also, share your feelings about music with me as we meet each other. The more I know what you like to hear and sing, the easier it will be to plan the music for each service.
I look forward to sharing with you Shabbat, Holy Days, Festivals and all the "simchas" of our congregation. Let the music of our services be for you the rewarding fulfillment of prayer that it has always been for me.

High Holy Day Reminders

High Holy Day tickets are being sent to those members who have paid all of their financial obligations to the Temple. If you are in arrears, please send your check to the Temple now, so that your tickets can be sent to you in time for Rosh HaShanah. If for some reason, you are unable to send in your payment at the current time, please call the office to make an arrangement, so that you will be able to receive your tickets.

It is customary for members of the Temple to bring their own copies of our High Holy Day prayerbooks to each service. If you do not own a set of prayerbooks, please come to the Temple office to purchase a set. Prayerbooks must be purchased prior to the Holy Days, because they will not be available at services. If you have extra sets of the High Holy Day prayerbooks which you no longer use, we would appreciate it if you could bring them to the Temple office.

High Holy Day Baby-sitting

Once again, we plan on providing baby-sitting at the Temple during the High Holy Days. Baby-sitting will be available on the morning of the first day of Rosh Hashanah and on the morning of Yom Kippur. If you are interested in baby-sitting at either of these services, please call the Temple office immediately. We must have an accurate count of how many children to expect in order to be able to provide proper supervision.

Violet Zall-Hordes Family Education Program
Families with young children should watch their mail for the announcement of our first "Mishpacha" Family Education Program. We are pleased to have Ms. Susan Stepper returning to Temple Beth-El to coordinate this exciting program. Susan has lots of new ideas in store for the new year, including an opportunity for the parents to meet with Rabbi Brickman while their children participate in the program. For more information about "Mishpacha," call Rabbi Brickman at the Temple(333-4229).
Aid to the Victims of Hurricane Andrew

Many people have called our Temple office asking how they can help those affected by the recent devastation in Florida. Our Reform Movement has suggested sending contributions to Temple Kol Ami, a Reform congregation in Plantation, Florida, which is coordinating an effort to aid those in Southern Florida in conjunction with the area JCC and Federation. Those who wish to make contributions may make them to: "Temple Kol Ami Hunger Fund."

Checks can be sent to Temple Beth-El or directly to Temple Kol Ami, 8200 Peters Rd., Plantation, FL, 33324.
Slichot Service

On Saturday evening, September 19th, we will hold our Slichot Service in preparation for the arrival of the High Holy Days. This beautiful service, which sets the mood for the coming penitential season, will be conducted by Rabbi Brickman and Cantor Shochet and will feature our High Holy Day Choir, under the direction of our organist, Andrew Moore.

The service will be preceded by a special program, which will begin at 8:30 p.m., featuring a performance by dancers, Mich'i'el Murkofsky and Dragan Tanitovic. Mich'i'el Murkofsky is a dancer, teacher and performer who has worked professionally throughout the United States and Israel with a number of dance companies. She currently teaches ballet and ballroom dance throughout the metropolitan New York area.

Dragan Tanitovic is a dancer, teacher and choreographer who was born and raised in Yugoslavia. He has an extensive background in ballroom, ballet, modern, jazz and tap dance and has taught dance since he came to the United States in 1991. Refreshments will be served following the entertainment.

Membership

Increasing our Temple membership continues to be our highest priority. Temple Beth-El welcomes all unaffiliated Jews in our community to join our congregation. If you know anyone who may be interested in Temple membership, please let the Rabbi know so that he or a member of the Membership Committee can call them and introduce them to our Temple. Prospective members are also invited to our Slichot Service or to worship with us at any of our Sabbath Services.

Cardio-pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) Course

The Temple is considering offering a CPR course. If you are interested in learning CPR, please call the Temple Office. (333-4229)
