13th Annual Service in Tribute to
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
Friday, January 23, 1998 - 8:00 p.m.

This year, the guest speaker for our annual service of tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. will be Theodore Brunson. Mr. Brunson, who was born and educated in Jersey City, worked as a New Jersey State parole officer and with the Internal Revenue Service, retiring after 23 years with the IRS. After his retirement, he and Captain Thomas Taylor, Jersey City NAACP President, began the Afro-American Historical Society Museum. The museum, which opened in 1977, is presently the only Afro-American Museum in the State of New Jersey. During Governor Whitman's first inauguration, the museum was asked to set up an exhibit in Atlantic City where she held her inauguration.

Mr. Brunson left the museum in 1997 and now acts as a consultant. Mr. Brunson has also served on the boards of a number of other organizations, and he has received numerous awards. Temple Beth-El is privileged to have Theodore Brunson address our congregation. We encourage our members, as well as their friends in the community, to join us as we welcome him to our Temple.

FROM RABBI BRICKMAN

It is with regret that I inform the congregation that Cantor David Bentley will be leaving us as of January 31, 1998. Cantor Bentley will be taking a leave of absence from his cantorial studies at that time and returning to his home in Australia. We are grateful to Cantor Bentley for sharing his cantorial skills with us, and we wish him well.

For the remainder of the winter and spring, the Hebrew Union College, School of Sacred Music will provide us with student cantors to serve our congregation.

ATTENTION: RELIGIOUS SCHOOL PARENTS
Note Change of Date for Family Service
The next Family Service originally scheduled for Saturday, January 24th will now be held on Saturday, February, 7th. Andrew Davids will provide further details to parents soon.

THANK YOU
The Temple acknowledges with sincere appreciation another very generous contribution from Mr. Murray Lerner.

SAVE THE DATE!!
Please note on your calendars the date for the Annual Sisterhood Donor Luncheon, which will be held on Tuesday, April 21 at the Hilton in Secaucus.

NOTICE!
Though the winter has been snow-free so far, there still is a long way to go before we can say that the chance of snow has passed. If you are not sure whether services or another activity at the Temple will be held when the weather is inclement, please call the office first, 333-4229, before making the trip. On weekends, check the Temple answering machine for messages concerning cancellations.

CLOTHING FOR THE HOMELESS
The members of the Temple have been most generous in their donations of clothing for the homeless, and the staff and clients of the St. Lucy’s shelter have been very appreciative of our contributions.
We may not have needed winter coats so far this winter, but February and March can still be very cold. We hope that you will continue to bring coats and other warm apparel to the Temple, or call Esther Burg, 434-5568 to arrange to have the clothing picked up.

TEMPLE BETH-EL WEBSITE
Greg Zsidisin, our congregation’s webmaster, continually updates our website. Greg also has linked our site to other Jewish sites, so it is worth a visit. You may find us at:

What’s this? 1997 came and went and you didn’t get a chance to visit your favorite little winery in Burgundy? Napa Valley was not in your travel plans? Even the Brotherhood Winery in Washingtonville, NY, seemed to have escaped you?

Fear not. Fret not. On Saturday, January 24, 1998, you can have the enjoyment of a delightful wine tasting right here in Jersey City at the home of the Sambuls.

Every year, we try to have a special event as a fund-raiser for Temple Beth-El and this year promises to be unique and memorable. From 3:00 to 4:30 PM, we will have a wine tasting conducted by Jacqueline Friedrich, the author of recently published Wine and Food Guide to the Loire. Gourmet magazine called it “informative and very entertaining. What more could one ask for in a book?”

Jacqueline Friedrich’s articles have appeared in Wine Spectator, Travel & Leisure, the New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, just to name a few publications. She is charming, knowledgeable, and one of the few Americans whom the French embrace as a true wine expert. She has a home in Paris and in a little farming village in the Touraine.

Here is an opportunity to learn a little about the nectar of the gods, ask questions you’ve always wanted to ask, and make a charitable contribution at the same time. Even if you don’t drink, you’ll have a fun time and do a good deed.

Here’s all that you need to know:

Saturday, January 24, 1998
3:00 – 4:30 P.M. — Wine Tasting
4:30 – 5:30 P.M. — Light buffet

At the home of Nancy and Nathan Sambul
97 Mercer Street, Jersey City, NJ 07302

Voice: (201) 413-1003
Fax: (201) 432-3429
Email: ngsambul@aol.com

RSVP: Wednesday, January 21, 1998 (We really need to know — otherwise we won’t know how much wine to order.)

Contribution of $18 per person, checks made payable to Temple Beth-El.

One last item: For those who can stay around, please join us as we’ll go to a local ethnic restaurant for dinner, somewhere around 6:00 to 6:30.

We hope to see you on the 24th.

Regards,
Nancy & Nathan
