Affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations
This year at our annual service of tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., we will honor Harold A. Ross, Director of the Jersey City Safe Haven in recognition of his exemplary efforts on behalf of the young people in our community. Mr. Ross is a graduate of Morehouse College and currently serves as a Pharmacy Specialist and Field Medic in the United States Army Reserve. As Director of Jersey City Safe Haven, Mr. Ross directs the program, which provides after school programming for children in our community. Many members of the Temple met Mr. Ross last summer when his students helped work on the creation of the community garden at the corner of Communitipaw Avenue and Bergen Avenue. Having seen him in action at that time, we decided to pay tribute to him at our Martin Luther King Service, and recognize him as a member of our community who is keeping Dr. King’s dream alive by his actions.

We will also be making a presentation to “Let’s Celebrate” on behalf of “MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger.” Temple Beth-El is a MAZON partner synagogue, and “Let’s Celebrate is a recipient of a grant from MAZON this year. Therefore, as a local MAZON partner, we have been given the privilege of presenting the MAZON grant to “Let’s Celebrate.” This will surely be an exciting and memorable occasion for our congregation. We encourage all of our members, as well as their friends in the community, to join us as we recall the legacy of Dr. King and pay tribute to those who carry on his work in our community.
