RABBI'S COLUMN

Dear Friends,

I write this column to you, having just finished the first day of Religious School. And what an exciting day it was! Our school is growing each week. This is the first year our school has grown to such a large size, that we now require a "double session" on Sunday mornings. Our Religious Education Committee struggled for many months last year to find the best possible solution for our growing school, and I can now tell you that they made a wise decision. If our opening day is any indication, we are off to a great start. It was so exciting to see so many new faces, and to watch our students, old and new, arrive, ready to learn about our traditions, and have fun.

I have no doubt that one of the main reasons people initially join any synagogue is to educate their children. I think the reason more and more young families are joining Har Sinai is because our religious school has earned such a fine reputation within our community. We have a superb staff of dedicated professional teachers, who are led by our wonderful new educator, Ann Kanarek. If you have not yet had a chance to meet Ann, I hope you will stop by Temple soon and introduce yourself.

But the education of our young people cannot be the responsibility of the Temple staff alone. We need your help. We need you to practice what we teach at home. Nor is the quality of the educational program, or the needed support of our school only the responsibility of families with children in the school. If we are truly to be a "Temple Family," (and I hope we are), then all of us, young and old, need to care about what happens on Sunday mornings at Temple.

Several years ago, Rabbi Leonard Schoolman wrote the following article, which first appeared in Welcome to Reform Judaism. It is appropriate to quote as we all begin another year of Religious School. "There was once a time when the primary reason most people joined a congregation was to provide a Jewish education for their children. All too often, once their children had reached confirmation, these men and women disappeared from synagogue life along with their teenagers."

Happily, synagogue affiliation today reflects the needs, aspirations, and commitments of the entire family. Living alone in the modern world is increasingly difficult. Being Jewish alone is nearly impossible. The values of human caring and mutual support that have characterized Judaism through the centuries are even more important today. People increasingly need around them a secure network of caring and concerned individuals.

The synagogue can be that caring community, and for increasing numbers of Jewish adults, Reform Temples are fulfilling that function.....

Is Jewish education for our children still important? Of course it is, so important in fact, that growing numbers of adults are themselves pursuing Jewish studies in order to better influence and inspire their children as well as to enrich their own lives. The synagogue cannot carry the burden of Jewish education alone. Your participation is essential.

— Broaden your own Jewish education. Enroll in adult education classes at the Temple. Read Jewish books, build a Jewish home library. Reclaim the heritage that is yours by right. Become a model of Jewish living for your children.

— There are some things you can do to affirm your partnership with the Temple: seek out programs, services, and festivals which you can participate in as a family, or join others in. There are scores of such events and activities every year at Temple.

— Extend the Temple into your home. Jewish tradition speaks of the home as a mikdash me'at, a small sanctuary. Begin to observe Jewish rituals and practices in your home. Why not invite a friend over to do Shabbat with, and then come together to Services.

— Ask your children what they do and learn each week. Encourage discussions about Jewish values....while the Religious School does help children to develop an ethical sense, ongoing moral development requires your invaluable contribution.

— Share your concerns with your child's teacher, with our educator, our cantor, and with me. All of us appreciate your interest and concern, and by reaching out to us, you help us to serve you and your family more effectively.

I look forward to seeing many of you soon, and I hope often.

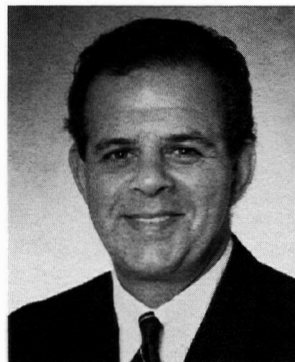

Meet the Candidates Forum Friday Evening October 11

Joe Bocchini and Bob Prunetti, the Democratic and Republican Candidates for Mercer County Executive will be our special guests on Friday Evening October 11 for a Meet the Candidates Forum. Each candidate will make a brief presentation, and then answer questions from the congregation. The Mercer County Executive is the highest elective office in the county, and is responsible for all of the county's programs, including parks, streets, human services, and social welfare programs.

About the Candidates

Joe Bocchini, Jr., is the Democratic candidate for Mercer County Executive. He served three terms in the General Assembly of the State of New Jersey. While in the Assembly, he sponsored the New Jersey Merit Scholarship Program, Farmland Preservation, and Transfer of Development Rights. In 1987, he chose not to seek reelection, and unanimously received the Democratic nomination for Mercer County Executive. He is currently in private law practice, and active in numerous local civic and charitable organizations.

Joe Bocchini

Bob Prunetti

Robert D. Prunetti is the Republican Candidate for County Executive. He was elected in the Mercer County Board of Freeholders in 1984. As a Freeholder, he created and established an Open Space Trust Fund to preserve the county's dwindling supply of fields and woods, and created and founded the Commission on Child Abuse and Missing Children. He has served as Mercer County Budget Director, and Director of Policy and Planning for the state Department of Human Services, and is currently Hopewell Township Administrator. Prunetti is an active and dedicated volunteer in many local charities and service organizations.

Talmud Study Group to Resume Sunday Mornings at 11:00

Who wrote the prayers in our prayerbook? Why did they write them? Does God hear our prayers? Does God pray? What does it really mean to lead a Jewishly ethical life? What are our obligations as parents, and what should we teach our children, or require of them?

These are just some of the questions and issues that are raised in the section of Talmud known as Barachot. Last year, our Talmud Study Group began to read and study this section of Talmud, and this year we will continue where we left off.

We hope you will join us for a weekly hour of learning, lively discussion, questioning, and debate. Our Talmud Group will meet on Sundays, from 11:00-12:00. We welcome new participants. Please call the Rabbi if you plan to attend.

(P.S. finding a "good" time to meet has not been easy, now that we have a split session religious school on Sunday mornings. If you would like to join our group, but this is an impossible time for you, please call the Temple Office, and let us know what time is best, and we will try to accommodate as many people as possible.)

Focus on Ethics, Belief and Morality

Theme for Home Study Group Wednesday Evening October 16

Every day ethical choices will be the focus for our home study group for this year. What standard of ethics should we live by? What does Jewish tradition teach and require about personal ethics? About business ethics? About Temple and community ethics? How do we find the proper balance between making a living and leading an ethical life? Is "whistle blowing" ethical? How does one lead an ethical life in a "treif" world?

These are some of the questions we will discuss this year in our home study group. Our home study program, coordinated by our Adult Education Committee is open to all members of the congregation. The discussion is led by our rabbi, and we meet monthly in each other's homes, providing for a more informal, intimate and relaxed atmosphere. A delicious dessert has become a tradition of this group!

Our first meeting will take place Wednesday evening October 16 at the home of Eli and Rita Allen in Yardley. Please call the Allen's, (215) 295-0115, or the Temple office to RSVP and for directions.

Adult Learning Opportunities

E.T. (Early Torah) Resumes Saturday October 5, 9:15

E.T., our weekly Early Torah weekly Saturday morning Torah Study Group, led by Rabbi Straus, will resume on October 5. This is the fourth year of our weekly Torah study group. This year, in addition to our reading and discussing a selection of the weekly portion, we will read English translations from some of our traditional Torah commentators, and see how they relate to our text, and how we relate to their interpretation of the text.

We invite you to join our lively group. No former experience is required...why not drop in one Saturday morning, join us for a cup of coffee, Danish and fun...you will be surprised when you see who else is there.

OPENING DOORS: AN INTERFAITH COUPLES WORKSHOP TO MEET

ON THURSDAY EVENINGS

Har Sinai Temple invites you to participate in Opening Doors, an innovative program of open and frank discussion about the concerns and issues in interfaith marriage.

Participants will come together with other couples in a supportive, comfortable and non-judgmental setting to share their personal ideas about family, holidays, raising children, and other interfaith issues.

Every couple must deal with many issues as they build their lives together. In a marriage between a Jew and one who is of another faith, such concerns as separating from family, establishing a home, working out a balance between the need for closeness and the need for individuation are often complicated by real differences in background and experience. Whether or not both partners consider themselves religious, strong feelings often arise for both members of the couple as well as their extended families.

Some questions that will be discussed include: how do we raise the children? What faith should our children practice? How do I deal with my in-laws? I do not want to convert to Judaism, can my home still be Jewish?

The program is open to affiliated and unaffiliated couples, and those contemplating marriage. This is not a conversion class. The 6 week program is co-sponsored by the Jewish Family Services of the Delaware Valley and the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC), and will be led by Linda Levy, a member of the professional staff of the JFS.

Opening Doors will meet on Thursday evenings from 7:30-9:30 at the Temple, beginning Thursday, September 26.

For further information, and to register, please call the Temple, (609) 392-7143, the Jewish Family Service, 882-9317, or the UAHC (201) 599-0080.

Community Programming

BASIC JUDAISM CLASS TO MEET MONDAY EVENINGS 7:30-9:00

The Fall Semester of Basic Judaism will begin on Monday evening October 7. The class, sponsored by the Delaware Valley Board of Rabbi's, is taught by our community's rabbis, including Rabbi Straus. Many members of our congregation have taken this class in the last few years.

The class is a first step for those considering conversion to Judaism, and is a wonderful learning opportunity for all those who wish to know more about the fundamentals of Jewish belief, practice, and history. It is a great place to begin to learn for those coming back to Judaism. An introduction to Jewish life cycle, holidays, history, prayer and the prayerbook, and theology will all be covered in this class.

The class will meet this semester at Ahavath Israel Congregation in Ewing. A nominal tuition is charged to cover the cost of books and materials. For further information, and to register, please call the Rabbi.

BEGINNING AGAIN: A WORKSHOP FOR DIVORCED AND SEPARATED MEN AND WOMEN TO MEET ON TUESDAY EVENINGS

Divorced or separated men and women are invited to join in a 6 session workshop at the Temple, Tuesday evenings, from 7:30-9:00 beginning October 8.

Sadness, anger, loneliness — these are part of the experience of being single again. The workshop, led by Linda Levy, MSW, LSW, ACSW, and a member of the professional staff of the JFS, is for those divorced or separated, and will focus on coping with change and revitalizing your life.

Topics to be discussed include: self-esteem, changing roles and relationships, dealing with ties from the past, what's happened to all my friends, challenges of parenting, dating again, looking to the future, coping with the unknown, and other topics the group will formulate.

Refreshments will be served, and time will be available throughout the evening for socializing and making new acquaintances.

The program is sponsored by the Jewish Family Services of the Delaware Valley. There is a $60.00 fee. JFS programs are available on an adjusted fee basis for persons who are unable to pay the full cost. For further information, and to register call the JFS, (609) 883-9317, or the Temple.

Religious School Reports

by Ann Kanarek, Educator

There is a story in the Talmud about some strangers who approach a town. The strangers ask those who greet them to take them to the protectors of the town. The townspeople call out the military leaders in all their finery. "These are not your protectors," say the guests. The mayor and the elders are brought forth. "No, no," shout the guests, "we want to see your protectors!" "We have brought you our military leaders and our elected officers, and you say these are not our protectors?" ask the townspeople. "Who then are the protectors of our community?"

In one voice the strangers shout, "THE TEACHERS!"

The teachers on our Har Sinai Religious School staff are a dedicated and devoted group of people. They inspire and nurture, and set excellent examples and serve as wonderful role models for our children.

Meet our Primary Religious School and Specialty Teachers:

ELAINE DEMBE (Kindergarten) — is a certified elementary education teacher and is presently teaching at the Ring Nursery School (JCC-Ewing). She has a Bachelor's and Master's Degree in Elementary Education and Reading and has been teaching primary grades and remedial reading for 10 years. Her qualities of patience, and love of young children will be a very positive addition to our school.

CINDY ASAYAG (First Grade) — is a graduate of Rider College with a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education. Cindy brings a positive Jewish feeling and enthusiasm to our school. This is her fourth year with the Har Sinai faculty.

BOBBIE FRANK (Second Grade) — is a dedicated and long standing member of our faculty and an active Temple congregant serving as the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. She is a licensed sixth grade teacher in Ewing Township. Bobbie has been teaching in our school for 28 years and provides our school and its children with warmth and stability.

JUDY WOLF (Third Grade) — is a financial aids administrator at Rider College. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Rutgers University and is certified from preschool through 8th grade. In Judy's many happy years on the Har Sinai staff she has brought a unique Jewish understanding and experience to our school.

POLLY PASSIS (Music Specialist) — has a Bachelor's Degree in Music and is at present diligently pursuing a Master of Arts degree in the Humanities. Polly has been teaching music and music education for the past ten years. She enjoys playing and collecting musical instruments and will enliven our school with a Jewish musical spirit.

BONNIE CUSACK (Resource Person for Children with Special Needs and Pre-School Program Teacher) has a BA in Psychology and Education and has Graduate credits in Special Education. She is a certified teacher of the Handicapped (K-12) with 15 years of experience. Bonnie brings a very special compassion and love to teaching.

Three New Special Programs for Children in Our Religious School

We are delighted to be able to offer three new programs to meet specific needs of children in our Religious School this year. All three programs will take place on Sunday mornings.

We have many students who are new to our school this year in grades four, five and six who have never been in religious school before. These students are in classes where children have learned Hebrew in past years, and they come to us with no Hebrew background, or a very weak Hebrew background. For these students, we are now able to offer a special intensive Hebrew remedial program which we hope will help them "catch up" to their classmates.

Several of our students currently attend the Abrams Hebrew Academy, or have studied at the day school for many years. Their Hebrew skills tend to be much more advanced than the Hebrew skills of their classmates in our school. For these students, we are now able to offer an advanced supplementary Hebrew Program on Sunday mornings.

For too many years, parents of children with special educational needs have had to struggle with the decision of whether or not to enroll their children in religious school. They have had to look for programs that would be able to meet their children's needs, and be sensitive to them as young people who want to have a religious identity. We are delighted to now have on staff Bonnie Cusack, a teacher certified in special education, who will be available to work with any child with special needs. We ask that if your child has special needs, please call the Religious School Office.

If you have any questions about these programs, please call the Religious School Office.

THANK YOU FOR TEMPLE CONTRIBUTIONS!

Hope everyone's school year is off to a terrific start! HSTY's year certainly is! Everyone who attended had a great time at our FIFTH Annual Progressive Dinner, when we elected our two new Freshmen Representatives, Rachel Griffin and Karen Welt. Thanks go to our chairpeople Benji Frost and Josh Goldman, and to our hosts, the Welts, the Griffins, and the Edelsteins.

Can't wait to see everyone on October 20th for Walleyball at Newtown Racquetball Club. Last year, everybody had a great time. Looking ahead...make sure to reserve your tickets now so you can join us for a performance of "Lost In Yonkers" on November 10th.

Also, keep a look-out for info on JFTY goings-on! If you have any questions, contact Benji Frost or the Temple office. Good-bye until next month.

Announcing

The 1991-1992 CHILDREN'S CONCERT SERIES

Sunday, November 17th — "ROSENSHONTZ"

Sunday, January 19th — "PAPER BAG PLAYERS"

Har Sinai will sponsor a series of two productions geared specifically for children under ten years old.

The first in the series is "Rosenshontz," who will appear on November 17th at 2:00 p.m. With six award winning albums for family entertainment to their credit, the duo of Gary Rosen and Bill Shontz speak to the heart and the imagination with musical wit and energy.

The second is the "Paper Bag Players," a company of adults who create and perform original theater for young children. Their performance will be on Sunday, January 19th, also at 2:00 p.m. Having received critical acclaim and numerous awards including an OBIE, this company creates a world on stage which is humorous, friendly, and exciting, using everyday materials for props and costumes.

Both productions will be held at the Temple. Ticket prices are $8.00 per ticket for general seating and $12.00 per ticket for patrons. Series tickets are $12.00 for general seating and $20.00 for patrons.

This project has the support of many Har Sinai members and friends. We hope that it will be a significant fundraiser for the congregation as well as a memorable experience for our children.

If you would like to participate on the Children's Entertainment Series Committee, please call Lynn Sanborn at 215-493-0139 or Judy Millner at 215-321-0433.

Good Clean Fun to lead off our Family Service

Friday October 18, 7:30

We are delighted to be able to bring to our Family Service Good Clean Fun, an Improvisation Theatre Company. Good Clean Fun will lead us in a creative theatre presentation about our Jewish Religious Values and their application to real life situations.

Good Clean Fun is a troupe of young actors who have been working for many years in bringing dramatic scenes to help our children understand themselves, and our traditions. By bringing the "audience" and actors together to explore a wide range of topics, we will each have a wonderful opportunity to learn and experience Jewish Values at work.

Our 7th graders will lead our service, which will include birthday blessings by the rabbi and cantor, and a special birthday gift from our sisterhood for our children who celebrate an October birthday.

Before the service, our 7th graders and their parents will have a special Shabbat dinner and program with Good Clean Fun on the experience of celebrating a Bar Mitzvah.

We are very excited this year about our Family Services. We are planning to bring to our Family Services several special programs, including Creative Theatre Groups, Story Tellers, Puppeteers and more. We appreciate the support of those who have contributed to our Religious School Special Programs Fund which is making possible this year's special programs.

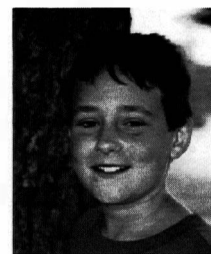

If you would like to sponsor one of these special programs, or have ideas for future programs, please call the Rabbi or Ann Kanarek.

ATTENTION!

All Parents of Pre-Schoolers

We are pleased to welcome you to attend our special pre-school programs planned for the coming year. Har Sinai will offer four special holiday events to meet the needs of pre-schoolers and their parents. Led by the team that brought you last year's very successful two-part pre-schooler program, Bonnie and David Cusack, you can now plan to celebrate Sukkot, Chanukah, Purim and Passover with your 2 to 6-year old at special holiday festivities designed especially for them. These programs will include storytime, crafts, songs, and holiday snacks. The first of these programs was held on Sunday, September 22nd, in celebration of Sukkot, in the afternoon, included participating in the decorating of the social hall sukkah, and culminated with the option of staying to join the congregation for the Sukkot Family Dinner and Service. A wonderful time was had by all.

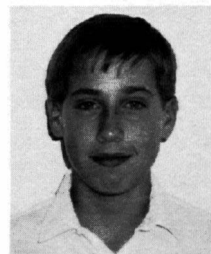

The Chanukah Pre-School program is planned for Sunday, November 24th, the Purim program for Sunday, March 8th, and the Passover Pre-Schooler celebration on April 5th. Grandparents and parents are invited to participate. Each child must be accompanied by an adult. To register, please call the Temple office at 609-392-7143. Pre-registration is essential to a successful program!

OUR LIBRARY IS TO BE USED!

by Rita Allen, Librarian

Our Library has been re-arranged, with beautiful NEW bookcases, to display our collection, spreading into the adjacent room. All interested congregants are welcome to borrow our materials by signing their full name on the book card in the back of the book, and leaving it in the blue box on top of the Card Catalog. Books may be returned by placing them in the file cabinet/book drop beneath the Catalog.

The Library Committee wishes to express our heartfelt thanks to:

- the Jewish Education Committee, whose fundraising efforts provided the new bookcases and the book truck, worth its weight in gold.
- Rob Norman, of Norman's in Bristol, for helping us with the purchase.
- Michael Rein, for cheerfully moving old bookcases out of our way and to new locations in the building.
- Karen Reiser, for hammering and adjusting shelves.
- Our movers and shakers: Andrew Kanarek, Brian Kanarek, David Kanarek, David Passis, Katie Passis, Polly Passis, and Karen Reiser.
- Rabbi Straus, for agreeing that it could be done.
- Ann Kanarek, for encouragement, Dorothy Zorn, for advice, and most of all to Laura Reiser, for unclogging the log jam and figuring out how to get it done.

Social Action News

touches the community.....
how will you help?

Our Temple Family is involved with community projects which benefit from three different types of participation. Projects of "Category A" require financial contribution. Those listed under "Category B" involve contribution of both time and modest amounts of money. "Category C" items require the donation of time.

Please consider which style of participation appeals to you! Your completed response cards can be mailed back to Har Sinai or dropped off at the Temple.

We would appreciate your participation!

CATEGORY A - FINANCIAL

Resettlement of Russian Jews in our community - By law, some furnishings (like bedding) which we provide must be newly purchased. Your contribution would allow us to assist Jewish Family Service in helping our people.

Social Action Fund - Funds are used to purchase supplies for current projects (monthly meals for the homeless and TASK holiday meals). Funds are also used to allow the Temple to support a variety of ongoing programs in our area, and special programs as the need arises.

CATEGORY B - DONATION OF SPECIFIC ITEMS

Donations of Prepared Foods - Specific prepared foods are needed for both the monthly meals we serve the homeless and special holiday meals we donate to the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen.

Donations of Newly Purchased Goods - We collect and distribute school/art supplies and packaged "unmentionables" to the area needy.

CATEGORY C - "HANDS ON"

Holiday volunteers (Mercer Medical Center) - Dick Nitzberg has coordinated this Christmas Day effort for 20 years!

Monthly meals for the homeless - Helpers are needed to heat, pack, and deliver the meals.

TASK holiday meals - Volunteers are needed to prepare and package the food.

Tutoring - "Route 1 Readers" provides the Children (3-14 years) of the homeless currently housed in Rte 1 motels extra stimulation. Tutors read or draw with preschoolers, provide assistance with schoolwork to older children.

Route 1 Reader Supplies - The donation of children's books and used art or office supplies would be appreciated!

Coat drive - Gently used coats will be collected at the Temple for distribution to the area needy again this fall.

Resettlement of Russian Jews - Household items (in good condition) are needed to facilitate the establishment of their new homes. Moving help, including the usage of a van or pickup, is also needed.

Habitat for the Humanities - We will join the Trenton-area organization in the rehabilitation of defective housing to provide low-cost residences.
