SABBATH SERVICES

Tonight, Friday Evening, October 26th, at 8:15

OPENING LATE FRIDAY EVENING SERVICES

RABBI NEWMAN

will preach on

"THE BURNING OF RABBI MORDECAI M. KAPLAN'S PRAYER BOOK AND HIS EXCOMMUNICATION"

A Reform Jew's Viewpoint

Reception to New Congregants

This Saturday Morning, October 27th, at 10:15

NAVY SABBATH SERVICES LIEUT. SOLOMON N. BAZELL,

Chaplain Corps, USNR

will preach on

"WILL PEACE FOLLOW VICTORY?"

This Friday Evening, at 8:15 the Late Sabbath Eve Services for the Synagogue year will begin, and the Rabbi's sermon will deal with the subject now agitating the Jewish religious community, namely, the burning last June of the Sabbath Prayer Book, compiled by Rabbi Mordecai M. Kaplan and his collaborators. Conservative and Orthodox Rabbis have discussed this action by a few irresponsible fanatics, as well as the "excommunication" of Rabbi Kaplan. This Saturday Morning, Navy Sabbath will be observed at our Temple, and Chaplain Solomon N. Bazell of St. Albans' Naval Hospital will be our guest preacher. It is hoped that a large congregation will be present to greet Chaplain Bazell, to hear his message, and to honor our Navy. Children and young people are invited to be present, and it is hoped that our men-folk will wish to commemorate this national observance by attendance at divine worship. Chaplain Bazell is a stimulating and inspiring preacher and we await his sermon with keen interest.

POST-WAR CAMPAIGNS

The final Campaign for the National War Fund has begun and seeks support for the work of thirty-one relief and home-front agencies. By helping the War Fund, we can aid the program of the Veteran Service Center and the U. S. O. We are also entering the final War Bond Campaign; needless to say it deserves our whole-hearted response. We did not forget our war responsibilities, and we cannot forget our Peace obligations. In the words of our President we must "give more than thanks. Let's finish the job!"

COURSE IN JEWISH ART

Under our extended program of adult educational activities, we are planning a course in creative drawing and painting, with particular emphasis on Jewish subject matter. In addition to the creative aspects, each session will start with a discussion and demonstration of the contribution which Jewish artists have made and are making to present day life.

There will be occasional exhibits of class room procedure and wider exhibits of the works of leading Jewish artists now in America. The course will be under the personal direction of Miss Eleanor Lust, owner of the Norlust Gallery, and a well-known artist in her own right, having won the Alger Prize in 1938. She is also on the faculty of the Little Red Schoolhouse. The subscription for the course will be nominal, possibly $5.00, and interested Congregants are urged to enroll through the Temple Office.

MR. HARRY BRANDT

Mr. Harry Brandt of our Congregation, President of the Independent Motion Picture Exhibitors of America, and eminent communal leader and philanthropist, has kindly consented to serve as Chairman of a Congregational Affair to be held at Carnegie Hall in April. This Affair will be in the nature of a variety performance, and will feature stars of the stage and screen. It is being projected by the Ways and Means Committee of Rodeph Sholom, which recently held a well-attended meeting to discuss plans. Mr. Albert M. Kahn is Chairman of our Ways and Means Committee, and Mr. Samuel G. Staff, Co-Chairman. We are confident that this April Affair, with Mr. Brandt as Chairman, and with the cooperation of our Congregants, will prove a most helpful event on behalf of the liquidation of the remaining mortgage indebtedness of our Temple. In addition to this large money-raising Affair, Mr. Walter W. Weismann has been appointed as head of a special committee to reach those who have not yet contributed to the Mortgage Campaign and Congregants who have expressed an interest in aiding us to bring our Mortgage Campaign to a successful conclusion. With vigorous effort on the part of all our Congregants, we may be able to make the April Affair the occasion for the burning of our Temple Mortgage.

MR. & MRS. BENJAMIN SELLINGER

will be the guests of honor at the

WELCOME AND RECEPTION

by the P. T. A.

This Tuesday Evening,

October 30th, at 8:15

Mr. Sellinger is the new Principal of our Religious School. Members of the Faculty and School Committee will present, and parents will have an opportunity to make their acquaintance.

DR. ALEXANDER DUSHKIN, director of the Jewish Education Committee, with which our Religious School is closely cooperating, will bring a message of greetings to Mr. Sellinger and our Congregation.

Come with your friends! A social hour with refreshments will follow the program. Let us make this a memorable evening in the life of our religious education of your boys and girls.

DANCE GROUP

The Social Dancing Classes which were so popular last year, will commence again on Sunday afternoon, November 11th, under the direction of Miss Helen Rigby. Boys and girls above the age of 12 are eligible to join and can enroll through the Religious School office. The subscription is $15.00 for 10 lessons, payable in advance.

BIRTHDAY SABBATH

This Saturday Morning, pupils whose birthdays have occurred in recent months are invited to come to the Temple Services for their Birthday Blessing. In addition to the Prayer at the Altar, a floral token will be presented by a representative of the Parent-Teachers Association. Fathers and Mothers are invited to attend with their children.

MR. JOSEPH PULVERMACHER

Mr. Joseph Pulvermacher, the President of Congregation Rodeph Sholom, has been signally honored by an invitation from the State Department to serve as a member of a Commission of three, to investigate on behalf of HIAS (Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society) the conditions of displaced Jews in Europe.

NEW CONGREGANTS

We anticipate greeting our new Congregants and their friends at Sabbath Eve Services tonight at 8:15. Following the Services there will be an Oneg Shabbat (Delight of the Sabbath) in the Marcus Loew Auditorium, including a Social Hour with Refreshments.

OUR CONGRATULATIONS

We are pleased to extend felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Falk on the occasion of the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to Dr. Leon M. Hart. Mr. Falk is a member of the Board of Trustees of our Congregation, Mrs. Falk is a member of the Board of Directors of the Sisterhood and Jane is an officer in the Rodeph Sholom League for young people.

To Mr. and Mrs. Harry Z. Cohen we also extend congratulations on the occasion of the marriage of their daughter, Florette to Simpson E. Cohan.

We wish these young couples a life of happiness and achievement, and we are confident that they will continue to evince the same devotion to the cause of Israel that their parents have always shown.

We extend our hearty congratulations to Cantor and Mrs. Nathan G. Meltzoff upon the birth of their first grandchild, a little girl, Judith Lee, to their daughter Rosalyn and her husband Arthur Meyer. May every blessing attend little Judith Lee Meyer, her parents and grandparents in the years to come!
