"THE STATE OF THE UNION"

(The Crouse-Lindsay Play)

Its Message for Today

Tuesday, January 22nd, at 8

MR. JACOB S. MANHEIMER on

"MOHAMMED"

RABBI J. X. COHEN

This Saturday Morning, our guest preacher will be Rabbi J. X. Cohen of the Free Synagogue whose discourse on "College Quotas: Inequity and Iniquity" is certain to be of great interest, particularly to parents of growing young people who aspire to enter the college of their choice. We trust that a large number of Congregants and parents will come to hear Rabbi Cohen's important and helpful advice to us all.

This Sunday Morning, Rabbi Newman will discuss the play by Messrs. Lindsay and Crouse: "The State of the Union." The discourse on Tennessee Williams' play "The Glass Menagerie" has been postponed until February 3rd, when we will have the pleasure of welcoming Mr. Eddie Dowling, one of the chief personalities in the play. In his consideration of the "State of the Union," Rabbi Newman will deal with many of the vexing problems which confront our country today in the light of the characters of "The State of the Union" and their sentiments.

OUR CONGRATULATIONS

We are happy to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Miller upon the birth of a granddaughter, Marjorie Jane Ballen, for whom the Welcoming and Naming Prayer was recited at Sabbath Services last Saturday.
We congratulate the happy parents, Frederick and Doris Ballen, and the great-grandmother, Mrs. Jacob Kling-enstein. Marjorie Jane's Father has just completed his service in the navy, having been on active duty as a Lieutenant for over three years.

BIRTHDAY CONGRATULATIONS

We are pleased to extend our hearty congratulations to Mrs. Seligman Manheimer, Mrs. Dore Felbel and Mrs. Max Minzesheimer on the attainment of a milestone birthday.
We wish our good friends many more years of health and happiness among their dear ones. Mrs. Minze-sheimer is rapidly recovering from a recent accident, and we look forward with her to the happy day when she can be at home, in the Temple, and among her many friends as before.

OUR RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Sunday Morning, January 20th, a Hamishah Asar Bishvat program conducted by the Boy Scouts was held in our Religious School. Those who participated included Arnold Cohen, Tommy Bernstein, Michael Brinitzer, Thomas Treeger, Ralph
Noveck, Gerald Goldstone, Frederic Brown, Maurice Kingsley, Jerry Jacobs, Walter Perner and others.
There will be a dedication by the Rabbi of the Motion Picture Camera presented by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Oppenheimer in memory of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Gun-zendorfer. There will be a special Tree Planting Ceremony. On January 13th, a Program was held in the Assembly which included among the participants Julia Marcus, and the participanats in "A Rhode Island Refuge" an "Eternal Light Script", among them Frederica Zerner, Adrian Levy; Ralph Abrams; Irwin Robins; Lawrence Stein; Irwin Cashman; Meta Ellen Cohen; Michael Berniker; Lawrence Marx; Peter Albin; Edwin Apfel; Louise Breuer; Emmy Lou Adams; Robert Daitz;

Stern; Douglas Tarshas and others.

REVISION OF BY-LAWS

A Committee has been appointed by the Board of Trustees to review the By-Laws of the Congregation and to make recommendations at the Annual Meeting in May which will enhance the administrative welfare of our Congregation. Congregants are invited to submit suggestions for amendment of the By-Laws to Mr. Samuel Falk, Chairman, and to the Committee members: Messrs.
Joseph Eisner, Nathan Friedman, Henry Hofheimer, Maurice Lewis and Arthur J. Messing. These suggestions will receive careful attention.

MRS. HATTIE BERLINER:IN MEMORIAM

Congregation Rodeph Sholom grieves at the passing of Mrs. Hattie Berliner, whom we delighted to call the "matriarch" of our Temple. Mrs. Berliner, who was the mother of Mr. Jacob S. Berliner and Mrs. Edwin Kessler, had attained the age of nearly 95 years, and maintained her enthusiasm for her beloved Congregation to the very end. Services in honor of Mrs. Berliner were held in the Temple Sunday, January 20, at 2 o'clock. "Let her works praise her in the gates."

LEAGUE ACTIVITIES

On Tuesday evening, January 22, at the closed meeting of the League, Mr. Benjamin Sellinger, Principal of our Religious School, will address the group on "Are We Losing the Peace?" On Tuesday evening, January 29th, the League will hold a program dedicated to the memory of Franklin D. Roosevelt. A dramatic playlet: "An American Legacy" by Jerome Bayer, in which members of the League will participate, will be presented as a part of the program. Mr. George Kaufman will direct the play. On Saturday evening, February 2nd, the group will hold its annual Winter Dance. Young folks of Temple families are invited to attend these activities.

THE CAMP UPTON PARTY

Wednesday Evening, January 9th, the Entertainment and Dance for Purple Heart Veterans at Camp Upton took place. Over 1000 wounded and disabled Service men were entertained from 8:30 until midnight. A large number of Hostesses organized by our Rodeph Sholom League were dance partners for the occasion. Harry Muller's Band furnished the music. At 11 o'clock, refreshments were served, donated by our War Service Committee, and an entertainment was given through the courtesy of the Theatre Wing. The War Service Committee, headed by Mr. Felix A. Greenhut and Mrs. Simon R. Gottlieb, are to be congratulated upon the affair they have thus made possible for men confined to their post by disability. We are especially grateful to the following hosts and hostesses who were present to assist in the arrangements for the evening: Mrs. Philip M. Stern, Mrs. Joseph Pulvermacher, Mrs. Myron Harrison, Mrs. S. R. Gottlieb, Mrs. Jonas R. Goldberg, Mrs. Leo Keiser, Mr. George Kaufman, Mr. Harold Kaufman, and Mr. Max Feder. We wish to thank also the numerous Congregants who through their generosity made this Party possible.

MEN'S ASSOCIATION

To be fully informed concerning the activities of the Men's Association your attention is directed to the enclosed January issue of the "Bulletin". The next two meetings will be open to friends of members, both ladies and gentlemen. Please reserve the dates and plan to attend!

Tuesday Evening, January 22nd, at 9:00 o'clock:

Major John Levbarg will speak on "HYPNOSIS AS RELATED TO MEDICINE", including, in his talk, actual demonstrations.

Tuesday Evening, February 5th, at 9:00 o'clock.

"Philip M. Stern Night", an evening dedicated to the Men's Association first Honorary President.

Please note that both these meetings will follow Mr. Jacob S. Manheimer's Lecture. Everyone is invited!
