OUR CHILDREN

Due to the fact that this year the Temple House High Holy-day Services will be continuous from morning till evening, the Children's Day of Atonement Services which have in previous years been held on Yom Kippur will be held this Sunday Morning, October 10th at 10 o'clock in the Temple. A special Order of Atonement Services will be conducted by Rabbi Newman and Rabbi Soltes with Cantor Meltzoff in charge of the Order of Music. Mr. Joseph Yasser will be at the Organ. A number of pupils of the Religious School will participate in the reading of the Services. It is hoped that a large gathering of parents will be present with the children. When the day comes that we have additional facilities for worship for children, young people and adults, it will be possible to hold our Children's Yom Kippur Service on the Day of Atonement itself, but for this year, at least, to our regret, we must hold it in the form of a pre-Atonement Day Service. Won't you bear this in mind when we turn to you for cooperation?

NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE

We have just crossed the threshold of the New Year and we can only look with uncertainty and concern to the months ahead. The European scene is still clouded and befuddled. The United Nations continues to flounder hopelessly and offers small likelihood of an immediate solution to the many problems that confront us. Israel is tossed about between Commissions and Assembly, a victim of power politics in the near East. It is not surprising, therefore, that thinking men and women are filled with despair and hopelessness for the future.

The Synagogue which has survived the chaos of 20 centuries of strife, wars and dissension inspires us as Jews to be hopeful and to keep faith. It is symbolic of the fact that the finer essence of humanity can not be destroyed, that the good that exists in Man is immortal and that from the ruins and ashes of each generation there ever evolves a deeper and more abiding faith in Him who rules the Universe. We shall find consolation within the Temple on these High Holydays and renew our trust that the Creator on high does not forsake his children. We shall fervently pray that the year of 1948-49 will bring light out of darkness and order out of chaos. I wish each of our Congregants health, prosperity and peace of mind. May you and your family be blessed on this New Year with all of the best things of life.

Joseph Pulvermacher, President

OUR APPRECIATION

We are grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Weismann for their generous donation in memory of loved ones, which has made possible the attractive decoration of flowers and ferns in the front of our Temple Sanctuary during the High Holydays. The Weismanns have been among the most generous of donors to our Temple activities and we appreciate this additional manifestation of their devotion to Rodeph Sholom.

MEN'S ASSOCIATION

Brotherhood members are requested to schedule the evening of October 19th for the Supper and Get-to-gether, when Harry Hershfield, noted humorist, will be the guest of honor. In addition to this fine treat, a musical program has been planned and a delicious supper will be served at 6:30 sharp. Members are privileged to bring a guest who is interested in enrolling in our Brotherhood. This affair is free of charge but by invitation only.

To Mrs. Milton Blumenthal on the marriage of her son Edwin to Miss Nancy Ruth Hausman.

We also congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hofheimer on the birth of a daughter, Judith to their children Joseph and Natalie Hofheimer. Mr. Hofheimer is the Treasurer of our Congregation and Mrs. Hofheimer is an active member of the Board of Directors of the Sisterhood.

OUR BNEI MITZVAH

We extend sincere felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Levy on the occasion of the Bar Mitzvah ceremony of their son Norman, and to Mr. and Mrs. Simon Savitz on the occasion of the Bar Mitzvah ceremony of their son Joel, which take place on Saturday morning. We also congratulate our new Sons of the Commandment and we hope that they will ever wish to dedicate themselves to their religion, their people, and to all the worthy causes and teachings of Judaism.
