Please cooperate and make this Pledge Luncheon the most successful one ever held!

PRESIDENT MAX FEDER

Mr. Max Feder, Executive Secretary of Congregation Rodeph Sholom, has been elected President of the National Association of Temple Secretaries at its Convention in Boston, Wednesday, November 17th. Mr. Feder was one of the founders of the National Association of Temple Secretaries and has served for some time as a Vice-President. We congratulate our indefatigable and brilliant Executive Secretary, who is recognized as one of the most eminent personalities in his calling. Rodeph Sholom considers itself fortunate in his service among us, and we are delighted that high national recognition has come to him in this way. Mr. Feder has been instrumental in building up the profession of Temple Secretary, and has recommended many outstanding men to the synagogues of America.

HONOR TO OUR YOUTH

Rodeph Sholom League was placed second in the national Original Service Contest of the National Federation of Temple Youth. The Service was written by George Kaufman, President of the League and Phoebe Katz of the Rudolph Grossman Society. It was a special Service presented at the Labor Day Convocation of the New York League of the N.F.T.Y. The award is a certificate of Merit and twenty-five dollars in books published by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. These books will be donated to the Temple Library in the name of the Youth Council.
MRS. ABRAHAM STEIGERWALD
HONORED

Mrs. Abraham Steigerwald, President of Rodeph Sholom Sisterhood, was elected at Boston a member of the National Executive Board of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods. We congratulate the Sisterhoods on the wisdom of their choice.—Mrs. Steigerwald at Boston described the Rodeph Sholom Judaica Shop which has become one of the foremost activities of the Sisterhood.—Mrs. Joseph Glanzer, Vice-President of the Rodeph Sholom Sisterhood, was Chairman of the Resolution Committee of the N.F.T.S. convention.

JEWSH DAY AT THE SALE
FOR THE BLIND

Wednesday, December 1st, has been chosen as Jewish Day at the Sale of Articles made by the Blind. As this is the only means many of these sightless persons have of selling the articles they make, we urge all our congregants to make every effort to attend the sale on that day and make their holiday purchases there. Articles are priced from fifteen cents upwards and the entire proceeds are given to the blind person who made it. The address is 11 West 57th Street; the date is Wednesday, December 1st.

OUR BNEI MITZVAH

We are pleased to felicitate Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bernstein on the occasion of the Bar Mitzvah ceremony of their son Alan, and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Muhlstock on the occasion of the Bar Mitzvah ceremony of their son Arthur, which take place this Saturday morning. We also congratulate our new Sons of the Commandment and we hope that they will be so impressed with this ceremony that they will be always devout and loyal Jews, ever desirous of serving their religion and all its worthy causes.

DR. SAMUEL ORGEL

On Monday evening, November 29th, at 8 o'clock the speaker for the series on “Psychiatry and the Individual” will be Dr. Samuel Orgel, physician, psychiatrist and psychoanalyst. Dr. Orgel is the consulting psychiatrist at Barnert Memorial Hospital in Paterson, New Jersey, visiting psychiatrist at Hillside Hospital, lecturer in psychiatry at the Mental Hygiene Association, consulting psychiatrist at the Jewish Child Care Association, and the author of the text-book “Psychiatry Today and Tomorrow.” Dr. Orgel's topic will be “Problems of Adolescence,” and we trust that members of our congregation will attend whether or not they have subscribed to the entire series.

Mr. Benjamin Sellinger, Director of our Adult Education Program, wishes to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Men's Association and of the Rodeph Sholom League who have given very generously of their time to help with the ushering and admissions at these Monday night lectures.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On Sunday morning, November 28th at 10 o'clock, the Religious School will hold an assembly which will be dedicated to Jewish Book Month. The pupils of Class 11A, B and C have written an original play whose theme is based on arousing interest in Jewish books, and it will be presented as part of the assembly program. The Religious School Library has been awarded a certificate of Merit by the Jewish Book Council, and a representative of the Council will be here on that morning to present the award to our librarians, Mrs. Bernard Epner and Mrs. Ernst Mayer. We invite parents and friends to be with us for this celebration of Jewish Book Month.
