RABBI STEPHEN S. WISE
Congregation Rodeph Sholom joins in mourning the passing of Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, son of our late Rabbi, Dr. Aaron Wise. Rabbi Stephen S. Wise was reared in our congregation and was a constant, devoted and helpful friend of our synagogue and its Rabbis. To the family of Doctor Wise, to the Free Synagogue, and to the Jewish Institute of Religion — Hebrew Union College, we extend our heartfelt sympathies. Our Rabbis and lay leaders were present at the obsequies for Doctor Wise at Carnegie Hall on Friday, April 22nd. This Saturday Morning, Rabbi Newman who was associated with Rabbi Stephen S. Wise between the years 1916 and 1921 and was ordained as Rabbi in 1918 by Doctor Wise, Rabbi Martin A. Meyer and Rabbi Sidney E. Goldstein, will deliver a memorial tribute to Doctor Wise. We trust that our Congregants and friends will wish to be present for this Service.

Congregants are invited to attend the Annual Dinner of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations at the Statler Hotel on Thursday evening, May 19th. RACE, NATION OR NATIONALITY?

The fourth and last lecture of Rabbi Newman's course on "New Problems Facing Jewry Today" will be this Monday, May 2nd, at 8 o'clock.

He will discuss the problem of whether we are a race, nation, nationality, religious community or people, and will comment on the international Jewish relief and reconstruction units, the form of "government" within Jewish communities, the Hebrew government and the religious structure in the new Judea, and a new Temple in Zion, as Jewry's spiritual center.
