A Discourse based on the Novel "Sorrell & Son"

A Story of a Father and a Son

There have been few great men whose children were great. Why?

How many parents lose the confidence and comradeship of their sons and daughters at the time when they would most like to keep it?

What can parents learn from their children?

Next Sunday the Rabbi will discuss the questions which lie at the root of so many family misunderstandings and tragedies, and show how sympathy, frankness and intelligence can bring beauty and success to the most delicate of human relationship. He will also answer written questions from the pulpit.

Large Sunday Attendance

The Temple was filled last Sunday by a huge congregation that heard Rabbi Brickner deliver a brilliant discourse on "Life—What is It?" in which he reviewed Dr. Crile's recent book, "The Bipolar Theory of Life."

Next Sunday an equally large attendance is expected to hear the Rabbi discourse on the unusually interesting theme which touches every family, "The Art of Parenthood," based on the novel "Sorell and Son," by Warwick Deeping, which so many have read. Many have pondered on its message. Hear the Rabbi interpret it.

Invite a Christian Friend

"Goodwill Between Christian and Jew—How Can It Be Cultivated?" This all-important subject will be the theme of three discourses at SUNDAY MORNING'S SERVICES, DECEMBER 26.

The three speakers will be Mr. Fred Ramsey, Chairman of the Cleveland Community Fund and the Christian World Endeavor Committee, which will bring to Cleveland in 1927, one of the largest conventions of Christians ever held. He will represent the Protestant point of view.

Mr. M. P. Mooney, Counsel for the Catholic Diocese of Northern Ohio, one of Cleveland's most prominent attorneys, and a profound student and reader, will speak for the Catholic point of view.

Rabbi Brickner will present the Jewish point of view.

This service will be the first of its kind ever held in our Temple. Every member should be there. Members are requested to invite a Christian friend to the service.

80th Birthday

The largest number we ever accommodated at dinner, filled the Recreation Hall, the balcony and some of the classrooms, at the 80th Birthday Dinner Celebration. Many of those who could not be accommodated at the dinner, attended the entertainment program and annual meeting which was held in the Auditorium, which was crowded. Dancing in the Recreation Hall closed this most beautiful affair.

The renewing of comradeship and friendship, the lovely "Memory Pictures," and the inspiring message of Rabbi Brickner and Mr. Kohn's report will long be remembered by all who were present.

The officers and trustees of the congregation take this opportunity of extending their sincere appreciation to Mr. Arthur Halle and the members of the Arrangement Committee, Rabbi Brickner, Mrs. Chas. Brown, and to all others who gave unstintingly of their time and effort in arranging this gala event. We are sorry that limited accommodations made it impossible for us to accept many reservations which came too late.

The following new trustees were elected for a period of five years, to replace those whose terms had expired: Messrs. B. B. Eisenberg, A. W. Fox, Fred Frankel, David G. Skall and B. H. Sinks, and Mesdames Myron Rice, Chas. Brown, H. H. Emsheimer, for a period of a year, to represent the Sisterhood. In recognition of the splendid services rendered by the Men's Club, an amendment to the Constitution was unanimously carried which allows a representative of the Men's Club to be a member of the Temple Board.

MEN'S CLUB

"What is Jewishness?"

Can one be a good Jew and not belong to a Temple? Is Jewishness a matter of culture, race or faith?

This absorbing theme, so all-embracing in its implications, will be the subject of discussion next Monday noon at the Round Table, in Parlor 4 of the Statler Hotel. Rabbi Brickner will lead the discussion.

Last Monday, about sixty were present. The Statler luncheon is unsurpassed, the fellowship is fine, the discussion is stimulating, and always timely. Make the Round Table your rendezvous on Mondays, and bring your friends.

"Life—Its Beginnings"

The fascinating story, the early history of life, will be told by Mr. Paul Rea, Director of the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, this coming Sunday morning at 9:30.

As a scientist of note and distinction, Mr. Rea's presentation on this illuminating subject is well worth listening to. In those early stages, life fed on air, water and salts. In time, sponges, corals and jelly fish arose. Today we have in nature, approximately 275,000 species. This entire marvelous tale will be fully outlined and illustrated by Mr. Rea.

An added service that the Euclid Avenue Temple is offering, is the opportunity of drawing books, illustrating the Science lectures, from our own library. These books have been forwarded to us by the courtesy of the Cleveland Public Library. See Miss Wolpaw before or after the lecture.

The Open and the Closed Shop

This timely topic will be discussed at the next meeting of the Men's Club on Tuesday evening, January 4, 1927, in the Temple House.

Mr. Joseph Schlossberg, the noted national Secretary-Treasurer of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, is coming to Cleveland for this occasion. He will uphold the case for the closed shop. Mr. Wm. Frew Long, General Manager of the American Plan Association, will represent the case for the Open Shop. Following the presentation, a general discussion will ensue. Reserve the date: Tuesday, January 4, 1927. There will be a big crowd and a lively discussion.

SISTERHOOD

Co-operative Luncheon

The annual luncheon of the Co-operative League of Jewish Women's Organizations will take place at the Hotel Cleveland on Wednesday, January 5. Miss Irma Kraft will speak on "The Jewish Woman of Yesterday and Today."

Tickets, at one dollar per plate, may be secured from Mrs. Albert Fischer, 2501 Wellington Rd., or at the Temple office.

"Arthur Balfour"

A Uniongram contribution from each member of the Sisterhood Executive Board, has been sent to the Scholarship Fund, creating a fund in honor of Arthur Balfour Brickner, son of Rabbi and Mrs. Barnett R. Brickner.

ALUMNI

Intercollegiate Dance

To specially honor our young people who are coming home for vacation, the Alumni Association is giving a very novel dance on Sunday evening, December 26. The decorations and events will be particularly collegiate. Invitations have been mailed to Alumni and Junior Congregation members, which are redeemable for entrance tickets at one dollar a person. The dance is open to members and their friends.

"The Sage and The Poet"

The Jewish History and Literature class open to all who are interested in the pursuit of Jewish learning, will discuss this topic on Monday evening at 7:45.

Mr. Oscar Steiner's group will continue its discussion on "The Prophets of Today." This group also meets on Monday evenings at 7:45.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Parent-Teachers—Jan. 12th

The Annual Meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association has been postponed to Wednesday evening, January 12.

The symposium on "Moulding Children's Character," the feature of the evening, will be of unusual interest to all.

Mrs. A. V. Fried, Chairman of the Arrangement Committee, advises all parents to mark the date, and forward their reservations at one dollar per plate, on time. Again we remind you that our quarters are limited and the attendance in the past has always been big.

Children's Theatre Circus

With monkeys, sideshows, tight-rope walkers, dancers, peanuts, merry clowns, special saxophone players and all the rest of it, the Third Annual Circus announces itself for the afternoon of Sunday, January 2, at 3 o'clock. Sideshows and refreshment booths will be opened after the show in the Recreation Hall. This is an event that every child should be in. Children who have special talents in dancing, playing instruments, acrobatics, magician tricks or any stunts adaptable to circus, speak to Miss Alice Neuman as soon as possible.

At Mrs. Rosewater's

The Primary Department and the Administrative Staff were the guests of Mrs. Harry S. Rosewater, Primary Department head, last Sunday evening. It was a lovely intimate gathering. Thanks, Mrs. Rosewater. May we come again?

Junior High Parent-Teachers

The teachers and parents of children in the Junior High Department, will hold a

Saturday afternoon Tea on January 8 at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Oscar Fishel and Mrs. J. C. Newman, the Committee on Arrangements, hope that all mothers of the confirmation class and of the seventh and eighth grades will make every effort to be present. An interesting program will be announced in the next issue of the Bulletin.

Personals

Rabbi Brickner would greatly appreciate being informed immediately of any cases of serious sickness in the congregation, or of anyone who, for whatever reason, needs his service as minister and friend.

On Sabbath morning, December 3, Sanford Gelfand, son of Mrs. Rose Gelfand, was Bar Mitzvah in the Temple.

We sincerely regret the passing away of Mrs. Nettie Zweig, and extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Funds

The Scholarship Fund is in receipt of contributions from the following, in memory of Mr. Jacob Fishel: Miss Essie Cohn, Miss Theresa Salburg, Miss Bertha Kaber, and Mesdames J. Licht, H. Weiss, L. Kramer, J. Spitz, C. Wakefield, I. Greenstein, L. A. Straus.

The Altar Committee wishes to acknowledge the following contributions: Mrs. D. Katz, in memory of Mrs. Amy Rice; Mrs. A. T. Fischer, Mrs. Wm. Greenbaum and Mrs. Yetta Kline, in memory of their parents; Mrs. Jake Newman, in memory of her husband; Mrs. Albert Forsch, Mrs. Joe Ruekberg, Mrs. A. Mahrer, Mrs. Rosenblatt, Mrs. Mary Goodman.

Punctuality

The full joy and inspiration of Temple attendance comes from participation in the prayer service as well as from listening to the sermon. A full Temple at the beginning of the service is an inspiration to the Rabbi and to the rest of the congregation as well. Won't you try and come on time?
