Sunday's Lecture

The Temple was filled to overflowing last Sunday.

It is anticipated that an equally large congregation will attend next Sunday to hear the Rabbi discuss The Open Letter to Gov. Smith, in the Atlantic Monthly.

This letter challenges Gov. Smith to state how, as a loyal Roman Catholic, who must put the Church and the Pope before all temporal power, he can uphold the constitution of the United States which separate church from state, and the secular law which in this country takes precedence over church law.

Mr. Marshall is an authority on the canon law. He raises a great many questions concerning the possibility of a Catholic as well as a Jew to be president of these United States. It involves one of the most important religious issues before this country.

The Rabbi "On The Air" Again

Commencing at 7:15 next Saturday evening, April 9, and every Saturday thereafter, Rabbi Brickner will again be "on the air" over Station WTAM. He has accepted the invitation of this broadcasting station to introduce a new educational and cultural feature over the radio, which has never been tried in this country.

He will answer questions submitted by radio listeners care of Station WTAM, Cleveland, on subjects of an educational, religious, ethical, social and cultural character.

The Rabbi's answers to questions every Sunday morning after the lecture, which was broadcast, proved so popular that Station WTAM has received numerous requests that this feature be made a regular feature of the WTAM service.

MEN'S CLUB

"The Record in the Rocks"

This will be the subject of the lecture by Mr. David Dietz in the Sisterhood Parlor, next Sunday, April 10, at 9:30 A. M. Mr. Dietz will tell you how the story of past life upon the earth is unravelled from a study of the layers of strata of rock and the fossils found in them.

The Rabbi at the Round Table

Rabbi Brickner will address the Round Table next Monday, April 11, at 12 noon, at the Statler Hotel.

Last week the Round Table had the pleasure of listening to Mr. McGinty, on some of Cleveland's problems, and also to Mr. A. M. Loewenthal of Sydney, Australia, who spoke on the Jews of Australia and some of their problems.

Father-Son Dinner

It was an inspiring occasion when the hundreds of fathers and sons of the Temple gathered in the Recreation Hall last Wednesday evening. The humorous talk of "Billy" Evans, relating the incidents of his vast experiences as baseball umpire and sport writer, and the spirited addresses of Mr. Michael Sharlitt, superintendent of the Jewish Orphan Home and Rabbi Brickner were well received.

During the dinner our Children's Theatre Orchestra furnished the music. The debate and other specialties were thoroughly enjoyed.

SISTERHOOD

Congregational Seder - Sat. April 16th

On Saturday evening, April 16th, the first night of the Passover Festival, the congregation will give Seder in the Recreation Hall. Preceding the Seder, Passover Eve services will be held in the Temple from 6 to 6:30.

The Rabbi requests that all members of the congregation who are not holding Seder in their homes, celebrate the Passover with us. The Temple choir will sing the traditional melodies of the Haggadah. A series of Seder sketches will be presented by children of the religious school. Rabbi Brickner will conduct the Seder. Mr. Fisher of the Jewish Center will cater an "echt" Seder supper with many special dishes like "mother used to make."

The Sisterhood, under whose auspices the Seder is being arranged, requests that members forward reservations at once, on the appended blank.

Mother-Daughter Day

The entire Temple was filled to capacity last Saturday, on the occasion of the annual Mother-Daughter event. The services, and sermonette, by the daughters were indeed inspiring.

The feature of the afternoon's program, following the luncheon in the Recreation Hall, was Mrs. Brickner's address. The humorous debate, vocal selections, group singing—all contributed towards making this affair a long remembered event. Out-of-town girls attending local colleges, were guests of the Sisterhood.

ALUMNI

Alumni Classes

In view of the Passover season, Alumni Classes will close for a period of two weeks. The groups will resume sessions on Monday evening, April 25th.

Spring Prom - Apr. 24th

Special preparations are being made for the annual Spring Prom to take place on Sunday night, April 24th, in the Recreation Hall.

This annual Spring Promenade will be far more interesting this year than ever before, because most of the cast of the famous "Topics of 1927" will be at the Prom to renew acquaintances, and even rehearse in spirit, some of the acts of the performance.

Tickets, at a nominal price may be secured from Alumni Board members, or at the door.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Sessions

There will be no sessions of the Religious School on Sunday, April 17th, this being the first day of Passover. Children and parents are urged to attend the Temple services.

Regular sessions will be resumed Sunday, April 24th.

Special Hebrew Class

Children whose marks in Hebrew are not up to par will be given an opportunity to make up in a special Hebrew class meeting on Saturday mornings at 9:30.

Please Notice!

Mr. Pearlman requests that all parents who are desirous of interviewing teachers, receive permission from the general office before entering the class room. A card of admission will be given to the parents.

Teachers Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Religious School staff, is to take place next Tuesday evening, April 12th, at 7:45 P. M. All members of the staff are expected to attend.

Grade Club Pictures

Pictures of Grade Club members and their leaders, will be taken for the Confirmation number of "The Effort" on Thursday, April 14th. All members of the clubs are requested to meet in their regular rooms, and bring ten cents with them to cover the cost of the picture.

School Board Meeting

A meeting of the School Board was held last week, at which the following important matters were decided upon:

The board reaffirmed its decision of last year that all children of the Religious

School will be required to attend ten grades prior to confirmation.

The proposal of the Educational Director that all children who will fail, be required to make up their work during the Summer in special classes or take the work over again, was unanimously upheld by the School Board.

Special prizes are to be awarded to all children for effort, attendance and scholarship at the end of the year.

Funds

In accordance with the traditional spirit of Passover, we urge that our fortunate brothers and sisters of the congregation, help the needy on the occasion of joy and festivity. Contribute to the Matzo Fund, thereby making it possible for the needy to celebrate the Passover Festival.

Our Sisterhood and Religious School have each contributed to the Shema Yisroel Society of Paris, through Mrs. Emil Brudno, who is taking an active interest in their work.

The Library Fund has received contributions from Mrs. Ed. Schwartz, in memory of Adele Lazarus; Mr. C. I. Goldsmith, in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwartz; Eugene Hibshman and Benjamin Hibshman, in memory of their grandfathers, Jacob Hibshman and Simon Kohn, and grandmother, Rosa Kohn; Mrs. A.
