THE LECTURE COURSE

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 1st 8:30 P. M.

in the Temple House Auditorium

Sunday Lecture

You are frequently called upon to contribute to funds to help foreign Jewry. Ought you not to know the facts? Rabbi Brickner's lecture this Sunday will throw a flood of new light on the whole situation "over there."

The Rabbi will deal particularly with the great importance to American Jewry, which the foreign Jewish situation presents.

Don't miss it!

His incisive analyses of the general European situation last Sunday morning, elicited much commendation from the large congregation that attended.

Sabbath Sermons

Last Saturday, Rabbi Brickner inaugurated a new series of sermons. In these sermons at every Sabbath service, he will elucidate and interpret significant passages of the Biblical readings for the week, with critical comment embellishing them with Midrashic tales. The Sabbath morning sermons will, in reality, be Bible lessons whose religious and ethical teaching will bear a direct relation to the vital problems of our own life today.

The congregation is requested to read each week, the Biblical portion traditionally assigned for the week.

For next Saturday's sermon, the Biblical reading is Genesis, Chapter VI-9 through XI-32. Thus in the course of the year, the congregation will acquire not only a knowledge, but, it is hoped, an appreciation of the Bible—the Book that nobody knows.

ALUMNI DAY SUNDAY, OCT. 30

MEN'S CLUB

"Is Mars Inhabited?"

This subject will be discussed by Mr. David Dietz next Sunday, October 30, at 9:30 A. M., in the Sisterhood Parlor.

In addition to discussing Mars, Mr. Dietz will tell of the other planets in the solar system, the pertinent facts concerning them, and what astronomers think of the possibility of life on any of them. The lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon slides.

This is the fourth in the series which Mr. Dietz is giving this season.

Round Table - Oct. 31st Noon

The Round Table started auspiciously last Monday when Mr. Phil Frankel, Chairman, outlined briefly the plans for the year. The attendance was large.

Mr. I. F. Freiberger gave a fine address.

The luncheon was a banquet meal, and all for one dollar.

One of the members of the Round Table, who was out of town and could not attend, even sent a telegram of regret. That shows interest.

Rabbi Brickner will be the speaker, at the meeting next Monday, October 31, at 12 o'clock sharp at the Statler Hotel.

Members may bring friends.

Make the Round Table your rendezvous on Mondays.

SISTERHOOD

Register For Jewish Current Events

Since membership in the Current Events Group this year will be limited to the first hundred who register, those desirous of joining (non-members of the Sisterhood are welcome) are requested to communicate at once with Mrs. Milton Halle (Fairmount 5024), or the temple office (Cedar 0862).

Registration fee is one dollar.

Opening lecture by Rabbi Brickner on Friday, November 4, at 11 A. M.

First Call

In preparation for its next entertainment program, which will be a big dramatic production, the Sisterhood asks its members who can do interpretative dancing, chorus singing or dramatics, and who wish to be enrolled in the cast, to send their names to Mrs. Chas. Brown at the temple.

Do it now!

Community Sewing

It was an enthusiastic assembly of women who met last Monday for the opening of the Community Sewing Group. The usual goodly attendance of loyal workers was present, and it is hoped that many more will join this worthy group.

The Community Sewing Group meets every Monday from 9:00 to 3:00. Luncheon is served at noon.

Hebrew Classes

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Wm. Green, the Sisterhood Hebrew classes are now being organized, and will hold their opening sessions shortly.

Inasmuch as registration in these classes is limited, it is advisable to enroll at once.

Mrs. A. H. Friedland will be the instructress.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Confirmation Class

For the purpose of organization, Rabbi Brickner met with the confirmation class last Friday. Hereafter one group will meet on Fridays at 4:15 P. M., and the other on Saturdays at 9:15 A. M.

All members of the confirmation class are required to attend Sabbath services on Saturday morning.

Week - Day Hebrew Classes

Children of our Religious School who have not yet enrolled with the week-day classes, which will meet on Wednesday afternoons and Saturday mornings, should do so next Sunday morning.

Reception - Supper - Play - Dance

There is no fee for this service which is rendered our own children.

Children's Theatre

A musical dramatization of the "Queen of Sheba" story will be the first performance of the Children's Theatre on Sunday morning, November 13. It will be given at a general assembly of the whole school.

Orchestra

The Senior Orchestra of the Religious School, will resume rehearsals on Monday, October 31 at 7:00 P. M., under the direction of Mr. Jerome Goldsmith, who so ably directed the orchestra last year.

Members of the ninth grade and High School Department are eligible for membership.

Parking On Sunday

We don't know where you can park your car on Sunday mornings, but we must ask you not to park on the West side of 82nd St. The street is too narrow for parking on both sides.

Dr. Lupton and the Rabbi have agreed that 82nd street, north of Euclid should be reserved for those attending the Unitarian Church.

Welcome New Members

The Rabbi and officers extend to the many new members who have recently joined with our temple, a cordial welcome into the fellowship of the Euclid Avenue Temple which now counts close to thirteen hundred families.

Annual Meeting

The 81st Annual Meeting of the Congregation, will be held on Sunday, November 13. It will take the form of a "supper" at 6:30, followed by reports, election of officers, and a program of entertainment in the Auditorium.

A large attendance is anticipated. Reservations at one dollar per plate, should be sent at once to Mrs. H. H. Emsheimer, care of the temple office.

Mrs. Chas. Brown is Chairman of the Entertainment Program.

Reserve the date:

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13th, 6:30 P. M.

"Tune In"

The thousands of listeners who last year "tuned in" for Rabbi Brickner's Question and Answer period, will enjoy the same feature again this year, over Station WHK, commencing on Monday,

November 7, from 7:15 to 7:45, and every Monday thereafter at the same time.

Questions of a religious, literary, historical, moral, scientific, educational and domestic nature—in a word, every sort of human interest question, excepting strictly political questions—may be sent in care of Station WHK at Carnegie Hall, Cleveland, or to the Rabbi's study at the temple.

Next Monday, October 31, the Rabbi will give the second and concluding of his lectures on Palestine, from 7:00 to 7:45, on "THE RETURN OF THE JEW TO PALESTINE."

United Palestine Appeal Campaign

Our Men's Club teams, under the Chairmanship of Mr. Ed. Schwartz, and the Sisterhood teams under the direction of Mrs. Sam Cohn, are soliciting subscriptions for Palestine.

We bespeak for them, a cordial reception.

Let us roll up for Palestine, a large subscription from the membership of the Euclid Avenue Temple.

Rabbi's Symphony Orchestra Message

The program of the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra's first concert, contained a full page excerpt from an address by Rabbi Brickner, entitled "A Message to an Audience." This address was originally delivered to the women working for the Cleveland Orchestra, at their luncheon in the Ballroom of the Statler Hotel on Wednesday, October 12.

Mayfield Mausoleum

Through the efforts of Messrs. Eldred and Countryman who are representing the Board of Governors of the United Jewish Cemeteries in the sale of space in the Mayfield Mausoleum, a number of the very desirable rooms have been subscribed for, as well as family sections and single crypts.

It is the feeling of the Board of Governors that those of the temple members who are interested in making provision for themselves and families, will find it advisable to arrange for the purchase of the spaces they may wish, at this time and before they have been sold.

The attention of the temple members to this matter, is urged.

We express our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family of Mrs. Sarah Schlessinger, who passed away this week.
