Sunday Lecture

Next Sunday the Rabbi commences a series of addresses touching major problems before the American public, the first of which will be "If I Were City Manager—Can Government be Made Democratic and Efficient at the Same Time?"

The answer to this question is really at the heart of most of the political conflict in America.

Why is it that the best men refuse to enter politics?

Why does the trend in government, fluctuate between attempts at the introduction of efficiency through commission form of government, city manager form of government, and the old line corrupt political patronage system?

Why don't morals and politics mix?

Must Democracy be the rule of the mob?

The Rabbi will not only answer these questions, but will continue his practice of answering questions from the pulpit, following each lecture.

Sabbath Services

The Bible reading which Rabbi Brickner will interpret in his sermon next Saturday morning, will be Genesis XII-1 through XVII-27.

The congregation is requested to read each week, the Biblical portion, in preparation for the interpretation and elucidation which the Rabbi gives in his weekly sermons, based on texts from these readings.

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

MEN'S CLUB

Science Lecture—Sunday, 9:30 A. M.

"The Life History of a Star" will be the subject of Mr. David Dietz's lecture next Sunday, November 6th, at 9:30 A. M., in the Sisterhood Parlor.

Mr. Dietz will discuss the number, size, and kinds of stars, theories as to their origin and evolution, and theories concerning the structure of the universe.

The lecture which will be illustrated by stereopticon slides, is the fifth in the series by Mr. Dietz.

Round Table Nov. 7th at Noon

Mr. Maurice Samuel, the brilliant author of "You Gentiles" and "I the Jew," and one of the keenest minds among the younger literary men of America, was the speaker at the Round Table last Monday. There was the usual large attendance, and a stimulating discussion followed. It was easily one of the best sessions that the Round Table has had.

Rabbi Brickner will be the speaker at the Round Table next Monday at noon, at the Statler Hotel.

Members are invited to bring their friends. You are depriving yourself of something worthwhile if you do not attend the Round Table regularly. It is one of the best activities we have.

SISTERHOOD

Jewish Current Events—Friday 11 A.M.

Mrs. Milton Halle, Chairman of the Jewish Current Events Course, announces that Rabbi Brickner has been prevailed upon to extend the registration of the course from 100 to 150. This number has already been reached, and therefore, those registering now will be placed on the waiting list. The Sisterhood Parlor where the course is given, cannot accommodate more than this number. During the Winter, some of those attending the course leave the city, and those on the waiting list will be substituted in the order of their registration.

The first lecture of the course will be given Friday, November 4th, at 11 A. M.

Gentle Reminder

When sending good wishes for wedding anniversaries, birthdays, or on many other occasions, remember to use a Uniongram. These may be obtained from the chairman, Mrs. Leon Mansell (Fairmount 4415-R) or at the temple office.

A social hour will follow Mrs. Hertz's lecture.

ALUMNI

Alumni Day

A very large crowd of Alumni turned out for Alumni Day last Sunday.

The program began with the reading of a letter of greeting from Rabbi Wolsey, which was followed by an address from Rabbi Brickner.

Mr. Brilliant, our Educational Director, was then introduced to the Alumni. The supper, which was prepared by a committee of the Sisterhood, ended with a few witty remarks from Mr. Elmer Babin, one of the past Alumni Presidents.

"Wurzel-Flummery," the farce play given in the auditorium, was screamingly funny.

Miss Marian Fishel, in a few well-prepared remarks, turned over the Alumni

The evening ended with a dance in the Recreation Hall.

The faculty of the Sunday School will hold its first supper meeting on the evening of November 15th.

The meeting will begin at 6 P. M., with a supper prepared by the committee of the Sisterhood. A general discussion will follow, led by Rabbi Brickner and Mr. Brilliant. Radio Questions and Answers

The families of our temple are not only invited to tune in every Monday evening from 7:15 to 7:45, to Station WHK which operates on 113-265.3, and to listen in on Rabbi Brickner's questions and answers, but are also invited to send their questions to him. Questions may be sent in anonymously, by those who would rather not give their names. They may cover the wide range of human interests. For evident reasons the Rabbi will not deal with political questions that do not involve a moral issue.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of Mr. Sam Warner, who recently passed away in Los Angeles.
