Preceding the Seder, Passover Eve Serv

Rabbi Brickner will speak on this worth-while book which has aroused so much interest. He will outline the story and review it, with special emphasis on its unique treatment of immortality.

Sabbath Services

"What Is Holiness?" will be one of the themes that Rabbi Brickner will discuss in connection with his interpretation of the Biblical portion for the week, Leviticus I-1—V-26.

The sermons on Sabbath mornings are homilies on the Biblical texts, treated in the light of Rabbinic commentaries, and the modern point of view.

The congregation should form the habit of reading the Biblical portion each week, in preparation for the sermon.

MEN'S CLUB

Science Talk Next Sunday

"A Trip Through the Universe" will be the subject of the lecture by Mr. David

Dietz next Sunday, March 25th, at 9:30 A. M., in the Sisterhood Parlor. The lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon slides, showing the moon, sun, planets, stars and nebulae.

Mr. Dietz, as many members of the temple know, is a member of some of the world's leading astronomical societies, and has lectured upon astronomy in many cities of the United States.

Brickner will commence a course on "The Religions of Mankind," which he will give on alternate weeks. The first talk will be on "Primitive Religions."

The Round Table affords an opportunity to meet your friends, and participate in stimulating discussion on interesting themes.

Members of the Men's Club are particularly invited to come and bring their business associates.

SISTERHOOD

Child Study Next Monday

The Child Study Group's last meeting for this season, will be held on Monday, March 26th, at 2:30 P. M.

Mrs. Elmer Lang will be the speaker. "Keeping in Tune with Life" is her subject. Tea and informal discussion will follow.

Those who have attended the lectures all season, will be particularly benefited by this last meeting.

All are welcome.

Mr. Remenyi-Friday, March 30th

For the fourth in the series of Mr. Remenyi's talks on "Books and their Authors," he has chosen as his subject "Russian Influence in Modern Literature." The following books will be included in discussion:

Dostoevskv:
Brothers Karamozoff
The Idiot
Crime and Punishment

Chekov:
The Three Sisters
The Cherry Orchard
Uncle Vanya

Gorky:
The Mother
The Lower Depths
Alexander Neveroff:
The City of Bread.

ALUMNI

"Topics of 1928"

"Huge success" was the consensus of opinion of a highly enthusiastic and well-pleased audience that filled our Auditorium to capacity last Sunday. Long before the show was started, people were already standing, and many had to be turned away, with the result that after a hasty conference, it was decided to give another performance on Wednesday evening, March 21st. The promise that this year's show would excel that of the previous year, has been more than faithfully kept.

Oratorical Contests

The Ninth grade oratorical contest will be held next Sunday, March 25th at 9:30 A. M. The prize winners will be permitted to take part in the Machol Contest which takes place on Sunday morning, April 1st. Prizes in gold will be awarded to the winners of the Machol Contest who will then represent the Alumni Association in the city-wide contest.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Children's Service-March 31st

For the next Children's Service to be held on Saturday, March 31st, James Rice has been selected to deliver the sermonette. This choice was made from a number who entered the Sermonette Contest which was instituted sometime ago among the pupils of the confirmation class.

The entire service will be in charge of the children, including the reading from the Torah.

The Children's Services have always been very well attended, and have proved to be a source of inspiration to the children and their parents who were present.

ing this play. If you wish to come, please get your tickets at the temple office.

Unitarian Church Invites you

The Unity Club of the Unitarian Church, across the street from our temple, has extended a cordial invitation to our members, to attend their meeting on Monday evening, March 26th, when Rabbi Brickner is scheduled to address them.

It is hoped that many of our members will be present.

Scholarship Fund

Grateful acknowledgment is made to Mr. A. J. Orkin, for his contribution in memory of Mrs. Rose Orkin.

Jewish Art Exhibit

An exhibition of Jewish art work of the Children's Art School of Boston, will be held at the Cleveland Museum of Art, beginning with Monday, March 26th, for two weeks.

A special program has been prepared for Wednesday evening, March 28th, at 8:15 P. M. Rabbi Brickner will deliver the introductory address, and act as Chairman. Mr. Rossiter Howard of the Cleveland Museum will talk on "The Value of Children's Drawings," and Miss Jeanette Greenberg who is the Director of the Children's Art School in Boston, will tell of her work. A group of Hebrew Folk Songs will be rendered by the children's choir of the Cleveland Hebrew School.

It will be a valuable evening, of interest to parents and educators.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of Mrs. Esther Bialosky, who recently passed away.

Clubs Celebrate

Next Saturday evening, March 24th, the leaders of the clubs will hold a Social, so as to cement even more closely, the spirit of co-operation and friendship that has already sprung up among them.

On Sunday afternoon, April 1st, the members of all the clubs will hold an April Fool party. There will be a good time plus refreshments. Our clubs are growing in size and number.

The Hillel Players

The Independent Order B'nai B'rith, Cleveland Lodge, is bringing the Hillel Foundation Players of Ohio State University to our Temple House Auditorium on Sunday evening, March 25th, when they will produce "Hindle Wakes." The B'nai B'rith has purchased all of the tickets for the Hillel Players performance, and will be pleased to present tickets to the members of the Euclid Avenue Temple who are desirous of see-
