Sunday Services

Rabbi Joseph L. Fink of Temple Beth
Zion, Buffalo, N. Y., a classmate of Rabbi Brickner at the Hebrew Union College, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning, and will speak on “Unseen Certainties.” Rabbi Fink is Corresponding Secretary of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, and one of the able young men of the Rabbinate. We appreciate his coming, especially under the circumstances of Rabbi Brickner's indisposition.

We trust that a large congregation
will welcome him to the pulpit.

To Dr. Daniel Huebsch who so ably occupied the pulpit last Sunday morning,
and who came to us in less than a half day's notice, we are doubly grateful.

Children's Sabbath Service

Saturday, March 31st, 10:30 A. M., in the temple.

Conducted entirely by the children.

Reading from the Torah: of darw
Natalie Gittelsohn

Sermonette:

James Rice, winner of the Sermonette Contest.

Participating in the services:

Louis Duber

Joan Stein

Alvin Verstein

Evelyn Edgert

Harold Lazarus

Attendance at these services is required of all children from the fourth grade and up.

Parents, accompany your children!

MEN'S CLUB

Science Talk Next Sunday

“Shooting Rockets to the Moon,” will be the subject of the Science Lecture by Mr. David Dietz next Sunday, April 1st, at 9:30 A. M. in the Sisterhood Parlor.
The lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon slides.

Mr. Dietz will discuss the difficulties which would have to be overcome before a rocket could be shot to the moon or one of the planets. He will also discuss what an observer would find on the moon or any one of the planets, providing the difficulties of the journey could be overcome.

Round Table Next Monday

In spite of the disappointment last Monday when Rabbi Brickner, due to unforeseen circumstances, was unable to lead the discussion at the Round Table, a real treat was in store for the many regular attendants. Mr. Louis Selzer, Associate Editor of the Cleveland Press, addressed the group on "Cleveland 25 Years From Now."

Members of the Round Table are anticipating another enjoyable meeting next Monday, April 2nd, when Dr. J. Slawson, Director of Research of the Jewish Welfare Federation, will address them on "The Implications of Democracy."

The Round Table, which has been meeting every Monday noon at the Statler Hotel, under the auspices of the Men's Club, has been one of the most gratifying and worthwhile activities of the temple.

ALUMNI

New Alumni Ventures

Harry Grossberg, President of the Alumni Association, is very anxious to know of activities, in which members wish to take part. This refers to present activities, and any new ones which may be suggested.

Please forward all suggestions to Miss Estelle Aarons, care of the temple office.

Machol Oratorical Contest

Next Sunday, April 1st at 9:30 A. M., before an assembly of the Junior and Senior High Departments, the contestants in the Machol Oratorical Contest, will deliver their orations.

The Machol Contest is an annual event sponsored by the Alumni Association. Prizes in gold are awarded from the Machol Fund. The winners will be entitled to represent the temple in the city-wide contest to be held in the near future.

All are welcome!

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Ninth Grade Oratorical Contest

The Oratorical Contest of the ninth grade was held last Sunday before an assembly of the Junior High Department. After a closely contested exhibition, the following were declared the winners: Milton Schlesinger, James Rice and Naomi Schwartz. They will be permitted to take part in the Machol Contest which takes place next Sunday at 9:30.

Clubs Celebrate

Members of all our Junior Clubs will have an "April Fool" party next Sunday, April 1st, at 3:00 P. M. April fool caps and appropriate favors will lend color to the party. A song-and-cheer contest will be part of the program in which every club will give of its original efforts. Games, songs, and refreshments will round out a pleasant afternoon.

The club schedule for the coming week is as follows:

MONDAY	THURSDAY
Modelling	Orchestra (4:30)
Art	Girls' Keystone
TUESDAY	Stamp
Girls' Social	FRIDAY
WEDNESDAY	Young Judaea
Dramatic	Stage Crew
	Boys' Keystone

Passover Celebration

Preparations are now in progress, under the guidance of Mrs. Braverman, for a Passover service and entertainment, which will be presented on Sunday, April 8th, before a general assembly of the entire Religious School.

Several interesting tableaux and pantomimes depicting the story of Passover, are now in the process of rehearsal.

Considering the excellent work done by our Dramatic Department, in the past, another delightful program is anticipated.

Thank You

Mrs. Wm. Cohen's IXA class, presented a felt table cover to our Library.

Thanks, IXA! We hope the other classes will be likewise stimulated.

Primary Parent-Teachers—April 16th

The Primary Department will hold its Parent-Teachers' Social on Monday evening, April 16th.

An interesting program of discussion and entertainment is being prepared. All the teachers of the Primary Department will participate in a little playlet especially prepared for the occasion.

These Parent-Teachers' meetings are sponsored by a committee of the Sisterhood headed by Mrs. A. V. Fried.

"M-H"

At the next meeting of the "M-H" Society to be held next Friday evening, March 30th, Mr. Oscar Steiner will lead the discussion. The meeting will be held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Rice, 2741 Hampshire road.

Booklovers Club

The first meeting of the Booklovers' Club was held Wednesday evening, March 21st, when Mr. Brilliant, our Educational Director, reviewed that much-talked-of novel "Power" by Lion Feuchtwanger. It was a well-attended meeting, and the group participated in an interesting discussion which followed the review.

Plans were made for future meetings which are to be held on alternate Wednesday evenings. Because of Seder night next week, it was decided to hold the second meeting on March 28th, and the succeeding meetings will be held on alternate Wednesdays.

Named In Temple

On Sabbath morning, March 24th, Alvin Ramond Mahrer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mahrer, was blessed in temple.

Funds

Contributions to the following funds, are gratefully acknowledged:

Scholarship: Mr. Sig Haiman, in honor of Natalie Haiman's birthday.

Matzo: In accordance with the traditional spirit of Passover, it is hoped that many of our members will contribute to the Matzo Fund, thereby making it possible for the needy to celebrate the Passover Festival.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved families of Mrs. Ray Elsoffer and David Sampliner, who recently passed away.
