Sunday Services

Mr. William R. Hopkins, City Manager of Cleveland, has kindly consented to occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning.

Mr. Hopkins is a public speaker of genuine eloquence, and a man with a message. He is nationally known for his work in Cleveland.

It is expected that a very large congregation will greet Mr. Hopkins.

Sabbath Services

Mr. Eugene Hibshman will occupy the pulpit at the regular Sabbath morning services. The subject of his sermon will be “Temple of the Lord.”

Mr. Hibshman is now in the graduating class of the Hebrew Union College. He is well-known to our membership, having been in charge of our Summer services during the past few years.

MEN’S CLUB

Science Talk Next Sunday

“The Human Telephone System” will be the subject of the lecture by Mr. David Dietz next Sunday, April 15th, at 9:30 A. M., in the Sisterhood Parlor.

Mr. Dietz will discuss the organization of the human brain and nervous system. He will also discuss how the eyes, ears and other sense organs function.

“These facts of physiology form the basis of psychology,” Mr. Dietz says. “It is impossible to understand psychology without knowing them.”

Round Table Discontinued

Mr. Philip Frankel, Chairman of the Round Table Committee, announces that owing to the illness of Rabbi Brickner, there will be no further sessions this season. It is regrettable that we were unable to complete the season with a very promising series of talks on “Comparative Religions” which Rabbi Brickner had planned to give.

It is with a sense of satisfaction that we can look back upon a successful season of Round Table discussions, at which several men of note appeared with Rabbi Brickner. This marks the conclusion of the third year for the Round Table.

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhoods District Meeting

On Tuesday, April 17th, the Executive Boards of The Temple Women’s Association and the Euclid Avenue Temple Sisterhood, will entertain the Sisterhoods of Lorain, Elyria and Ashtabula, with a luncheon at The Temple (E. 105th and Ansel Rd.).

The afternoon program will be held at our temple, and will begin at two o’clock. Mrs. Milton H. Fuldheim will review “Power” by Lion Feuchtwanger. Admission will be by membership card.

Current Events

Rabbi Brickner's illness makes it necessary to conclude the Current Events Lectures, somewhat sooner than had been planned. Members, please note that there will be no further sessions this season.

The attendance this year, has been most gratifying, and membership in the group had to be limited to 150.

ALUMNI

Dansante-April 22d

The next Dansante of the Alumni Association will be held on Sunday afternoon, April 22nd.

Dancing to good music will contribute to another pleasant afternoon spent among congenial companionship.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

PARENT-TEACHERS SOCIAL

of the Primary Department

MONDAY, APRIL 16th, 8:00 P. M.

MRS. A. V. FRIED, Chairman

MRS. HARRY ROSEWATER, Supervisor of the Primary Dept., will present an original playlet in which the Teachers of her department will participate.

MISS JEANETTE DAVIS will render several vocal selections.

MR. NATHAN BRILLIANT will speak.

REFRESHMENTS . . . SOCIAL HOUR

Meet the Teacher of Your Child

last Sunday before a general assembly of the entire school. It was a performance that in its precision and stage settings, bore all the earmarks of a professional performance. The best criticism was given by a number of the children, in the brief remark—"Is that all?"

Confirmation Class Party Sunday

Next Sunday, April 15th, at 3 P. M., the Confirmation Class will hold a party in the Recreation Hall.

With entertainment, refreshments and dancing, another very pleasant afternoon is in store for all the members of the confirmation class.

Collegiate Forum Supper

The fourth and final Collegiate Forum Supper of the season, is scheduled for Sunday evening, April 29th. A special program of entertainment, a speaker of note and other interesting features will bring the Collegiate Forum Suppers to a fitting conclusion.

Members of the High School Department and their friends are requested to mark this date on their calendars.

Attendance and Banner Classes

The attendance of the Sunday School for the month of March, maintained the high standard set this year. We had an average attendance of 92% for the entire month. The following classes were awarded banners for the month of March, for having attained the highest percentages in the school:

IIA—Mildred Levin

IIIB—Ruth Steiner

VA—Jack Fallenberg

IXA—Mrs. Wm. Cohen

IXB—Al Siegel

IXC—Adolph Salsburg

During the six months that school has been in session, Miss Levin's IIA class has won the banner four times, and Mr. Salsburg's IXC class has won the banner five times, while five other classes have won the attendance banner three times each. This is a very gratifying and encouraging record. Within the next week, we will announce the treat that is in store for all classes that have won the banner one or more times.

Delightful Passover Assembly

A beautiful and colorful presentation of a series of tableaux depicting episodes from the story of Passover, was given

Clubs

The Arts and Crafts Club, under the direction of Mrs. Wm. Cohen, is completing the project which it set itself at the beginning of the season, to redecorate the Kindergarten Room in a manner suitable for a Jewish school. The room will probably be ready for the Primary Department Parent-Teachers' meeting next Monday evening. It is a fine piece of work, and we recommend that everyone take the opportunity of inspecting the room.

The clubs are continuing to meet as follows:

MONDAY	THURSDAY
Modelling	Orchestra
Art	Girls' Keystone
WEDNESDAY	Stamp
Dramatic	FRIDAY
Ukelele	Keystone
	Young Judaea
	Stage Crew

Our Rabbi

In response to the many inquiries, we wish to state that Rabbi Brickner has been suffering from sub-deltoid bursitis, which has confined him to his bed during the last few weeks. We are happy that his physicians report him on the mend, though it may still be several weeks before he can resume his duties.

The numerous inquiries touching the Rabbi's well-being, have been a source of much encouragement to him, and he is thoroughly appreciative of them.

Rabbi Brickner sincerely regrets that his numerous speaking engagements before outside organizations, in and out of town, for the latter part of March and all of April, have had to be cancelled. Among them were:

A joint meeting of the Wellington Kiwanis, the Seville Rotary, the Lodi Rotary and Medina Kiwanis Clubs, at Medina, Ohio;

The Father-Son meeting of Shaker Heights High School;

Washington Boulevard Temple at Chicago;

Ohio State Conference of Business and Professional Women's Clubs;

The Jewish Art Exhibit at the Cleveland Art Museum;

Lakewood Woman's Club;

Cleveland Ministerial Association;

Akron Community;

Canton Community;

Buffalo Community;

Cleveland Kiwanis Club;

Woman's Club of Cleveland;

Real Estate Board of Cleveland;

Cleveland Chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

Those planning for the Rabbi's services commencing with the latter part of April, will kindly communicate with his secretary at the temple office.

Our Library

It is with satisfaction that we note that our Library has successfully maintained its high record of circulation which it has set itself for the year.

The total number of books circulated for the month of March was 719, which compares favorably with that of the preceding months. In addition to the book circulation, pictures and clippings were distributed.

The following books have been added to our Library during the past month:

Lewisohn—"Island Within."

Esse—"Nathan Hyland."

Case—"Jesus."

Baldwin—"Prophets."

Blunt—"Israel in World History."

Vend—"Israel's Treasures."

Cross—"Hebrew Family."

Maurois—"Disraeli."

Perez—"Bontshe the Silent."

Lindheim—"Immortal Adventure."

Funds

Milton Schlesinger, one of the winners in the recent Machol Oratorical Contest, has contributed his prize-money to the Library Fund, in memory of his mother.

Until further notice, all contributions to the Scholarship Fund should be sent to Mrs. Sol Moses, Co-Chairman, 2040 East 96th Street.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved families of Mrs. Fanny Baum and Mr. L. W. Lederer, who recently passed away.
