Holy Day Services

It was an inspiration to behold the numbers that thronged to the High Holy Day Services in the Temple, Auditorium, and Unitarian Church where the Junior Congregation worshipped. The music was beautiful and the decorum excellent.

For the Children's Services, the temple was filled to capacity. The splendid way in which the children read the ritual, the excellent sermonettes by members of last year's confirmation class, and the inspiring talks by Rabbi Brickner and Dr. Marcus make these Children's services memorable.

Succoth

The Succoth Festival will be inaugurated with services on Friday, September 28th, at 5:30 P. M., and Saturday the 29th at 10:30 A. M. Rabbi Brickner will speak on "Say It With Flowers" at the Saturday morning service.

Succoth commemorates the Feast of Ingathering which our people celebrated in Palestine, and also stands for the Jewish Feast of Thanksgiving. It is a festival marked with the spirit of joy and gladness. The symbols of the Festival are the Succah, the ethrog and the hullav.

As usual, the temple pulpit will be transformed by the Sisterhood, into a beautiful Succah decorated with evergreen, flowers and fruits of the Harvest season.

The concluding day of Succoth falls on Saturday, October 6.

MEN'S CLUB

Political Symposium—Thurs., Oct. 11th

The Hon. Henry Morgenthau of New York, former Ambassador to Turkey, will speak for Alfred E. Smith, and Mr. Gilbert Bettman of Cincinnati will uphold the side of Herbert Hoover, at the Political Symposium which will open the Men's Club program in the Auditorium on Thursday evening, October 11th.

Mr. Henry Morgenthau, diplomat, lawyer and financier, was Chairman of the Finance Committee of the National Democratic Party in the Wilson Campaign, and a member of Woodrow Wilson's "unofficial cabinet"; Ambassador to Turkey 1913-1916; nominated as Ambassador to Mexico, 1920; Chairman of Greek Refugee Settlement Commission created by the League of Nations, 1923; Vice Chairman of the Near East Relief. He has been honored by many countries and is a personal friend of the Democratic candidate for the presidency. He comes to us from New York especially for this occasion.

Mr. Gilbert Bettman, who comes specially to us from Cincinnati, is the Republican nominee for Attorney-General of this state, and for a long time was State Commander of the American Legion. Mr.
Bettman, one of the ablest lawyers in the state, is an unusually good speaker—eloquent and convincing.

The meeting will be open not only to the men of the temple, but to the women as well, and to the general public.

Among the outstanding events planned by the Program Committee of the Men's Club, for the season, are a Symposium on

World's greatest singer of ballads and folk songs will appear at the

SUCCOTH MEETING OF THE SISTERHOOD

TUESDAY, OCTOBER SECOND

Isa Kremer is unique in her artistry. In her rendition of folk songs, she expresses the soul of the song. She portrays the joys and sorrows inherent in folklore. It is this skill that has brought her so close to the hearts of her audiences.

Luncheon 12:30 ($1.25 per plate)

Isa Kremer Program, 2:30

The luncheon at 12:30 in the Recreation Hall, will precede the program which will be given in the Auditorium at 2:30. A special section will be reserved in the Auditorium for those present at the luncheon. Admission will be by 1928 Sisterhood membership cards, or by guest ticket. Each Sisterhood member is entitled to bring one guest. Guest cards may be secured in temple office.

Judaism, in November. "Why I am a Reform-Conservative-Orthodox Jew," will be discussed by outstanding Rabbis of each group.

An informal dance, inter-city debate, Father-Son Night, Stunt Nite, and Field Day are included in the plans for the year.

The Men's Club will also continue its support of the Boy Scouts; the Science Lectures; and weekly Round Table conducted by Rabbi Brickner, which is scheduled to open on Monday, October 15th.

The plans for the Symposium, as well as the entire program of activities for the year, were mapped out in detail at a series of meetings of the Board of the Men's Club, held in June. Announcements of the projected program were sent to all the men of the Temple in August.

Those who have not as yet sent in their dues, will please send a check of five dollars to the Men's Club Treasurer, Mr. Fred Bukstein, care of the temple office.

ings from 11 to 12 o'clock, under the auspices of the Sisterhood.

The first of these lectures will be held on Friday, October 12th at 11 A. M.

Mr. Remenyi's lectures last year proved so popular, that the course which was originally limited to 100, had to be increased to 150, and even then there was a long waiting list. This year the limit will again be placed at 150.

Mr. Remenyi is one of the keenest critics of contemporary European and American literature in these parts. We deem it a privilege to be able to present him again this year.

Mrs. Theo. Fishel (1728 E. 115th St.), Chairman, announces that the course of fourteen lectures will be offered for $3.00. Single admissions will be 50c.

Because of lack of space in this week's Bulletin, the entire course of lectures will be published in a future issue.

SISTERHOOD

"Books and Authors"

Mr. Joseph Remenyi, instructor of Literature at the Cleveland College, prominent author and lecturer, Editor of the Szabad-sag—the Cleveland Hungarian newspaper, whose course attracted so much attention last year, will again deliver a series of fourteen lectures on "Modern Books and their Authors," on alternate Friday morn-

Altar Flowers

The Altar Committee wishes to inform you that the floral decorations on the altar for each Sabbath and Holiday are emblematic of the kindly spirit of some members wishing, by subscription, to honor the celebration of some important event, or it may be the Jahrzeit of a departed one. The flowers are sent to the sick after service, with words of cheer. If you wish to continue this custom, kindly send your check to Mrs. Louis Neuman, Chairman (2330 Euclid Blvd.)

College Students

Parents, if you have a son or daughter attending an out-of-town college, will you please send us their college addresses at once, in order that our files may be complete?

This is done in order that they may receive attention from the Sisterhood where they are attending college, and also that we may keep in touch with them.

1928 Confirmation Class Presentation

The Confirmation Class of 1928 is presenting to the temple, an Isaac M. Wise Memorial plaque made in the Bezalel School of Palestine. This and the gift to the Hebrew Union College Scholarship Fund, are in honor of Rabbi Brickner.

A gift was also made to Mr. Brilliant for his efforts.

ALUMNI

Alumni Day Oct. 14th

The Alumni Association is completing its plans for the celebration of Alumni Day to take place on Sunday, October 14th.

This day is set aside for the Alumni to welcome into fellowship, the members of the 1928 confirmation class. It also serves as an opportunity to renew old acquaintances, and to cement new friendships.

Details of the program will be announced in next week's Bulletin.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Opening Session

The first session of the Religious School opened with the usual large registration of former pupils and many new pupils. The perfect decorum and smoothness with which the day's program was carried through, was a compliment both to teachers and to pupils.

We are glad to take this opportunity of welcoming the Misses Emma Federman, Mollie Horwitz, Lillian Wiener and Mrs. B. Dorfman, who have rejoined our staff after a brief absence. We also wish to extend our welcome to the following new teachers: the Misses Sylvia Atlas, Celia Davis, Helen Englander, Lillian Miller, Rosalind Rosewater, Mary Arnoff, Esther Gressel, Gertrude Raskind, Miriam Schway, Mrs. M. Rehmar, Mr. Otto Margolis, and Mr. David Zahm.

High School Department

The opening session of the High School Department will be held next Sunday, September 30th, at 10:15 A. M. All pupils of the High School Department will report to the Auditorium where they will be assigned to their rooms. Program cards, containing the courses elected by the students under the new plan of elective studies, will be distributed.

Harvest Festival

The Feast of Tabernacle will be celebrated by the children of the Religious School next Sunday, September 30th at 9:30 A. M., with a Harvest Service in the temple. A new service with a special dramatic and musical program have been written and will be presented on the occasion. Robert Desberg will take the part of the high priest to whom the offerings will be made. Children of the V, VI and VII grades will participate as Pilgrims bringing their offerings to the temple.

Funds

The Scholarship Fund has received contributions from the following: Mr. E. M. Friedman in memory of Benjamin Levy; Mrs. Ida Kornhauser in memory of Henrietta Loewenstein; Mrs. H. R. Pazol in memory of her sister Josephine Rosenberg; Mr. and Mrs. A. Keller in memory of Della Schwarz and Herman Goldsmith; Miss Clara Schott in memory of her father, Emanuel Schott.

The Library Fund acknowledges contributions from the Sondheimer family in memory of their mother; Gertrude Graves in memory of her mother.

Named In Temple

On Sabbath morning, September 22nd, Edwin Theodore Bamberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bamberger; and Charlotte Ann Skall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Skall, were blessed in temple.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of Mrs. Regina Tronstein Braun, who passed away during the past week.
