Dear Members:

Now that the public sale of Lecture Course tickets is on, I hope that temple members will secure their seats before the course is sold out. Last year we had very many complaints from members who failed to secure tickets before the close of the sale. Who is to blame for your delay? Surely not your warning Chairman,

Mollie R. Brudno

Concluding Succoth Service

Next Saturday will be Shemini Azeret (Eighth Day of Assembly). It is designated in the Bible as a day of holy assembly, and is celebrated after the seventh day of Succoth as the concluding festival of the season.

Rabbi Brickner will conduct the services on Friday evening at 5:30, and on Saturday morning at 10:30 and will preach on the subject: "What Divine Love Is." A large congregation should attend the closing service of the Succoth Festival.

The Succah this year is more beautiful than ever, and for it, we express our thanks to the Sisterhood Committee.

The Harvest service and pageant conducted by the children last Sunday in the temple, and which were especially written for the occasion by Mrs. S. Braverman and Mr. N. Brilliant, were most inspiring. The temple was filled to overflowing.

MEN'S CLUB

Round Table - Monday Oct. 15th

The fourth season of the Round Table will reopen its sessions on Monday noon, October 15th at the Statler Hotel. Rabbi Brickner will be the speaker at the opening session, and Mr. Ben Sinks, Chairman of the Round Table this season, will preside at the opening meeting.

In keeping with the enlarged program of activities that the Men's Club is planning for this season, the Round Table also anticipates a year of increased attendance and of keener interest in their discussions.

All friends of the Round Table are urged to be present at the first meeting on Monday, October 15th.

SISTERHOOD

Community Sewing - Monday Oct. 15th

The Community Sewing Group will meet for the first time this season on Monday, October 15th from 9 to 3 o'clock.

The Jewish Orphan Home, Maternity Hospital and the Jewish Welfare Association are among the institutions for which this group is contributing its sewing.

The Art Department of the sewing group makes such items as aprons, lamp shades, bird cage covers, dolls, bridge sets, flowers, shoe bags, afghans, etc. The proceeds from the sale of these articles go to the Hebrew Union College Scholarship Fund.

Spend the day with us next Monday. Luncheon is served at noon.

Child Study - Monday Oct. 15th

The Sisterhood Child Study Group has been very fortunate in securing Dr. A. Caswell Ellis, President of Cleveland College, for the opening of this year's course, on Monday, October 15th at 2:30 P. M. The subject of his lecture will be "Training of the Will."

The relationship of sex to literature.

Mereschkovsky: The romance of Leonardo da Vinci.

Contemporary American poets:

(Vachel Lindsay, Louis Untermeyer, Carl Sandburg, Edgar Lee Masters, Robert Frost, James Oppenheim, Edwin Arlington Robinson)

Arthur Schnitzler: Theresa.

Eugene O'Neill: (The Great God Brown, Lazarus Laughed, Marco Polo, Strange Interlude)

The relationship of science to literature.
Great biographers: (Strachey, Keyserling, Ludwig)

James Joyce: The portrait of an artist as a young man.

American Negro Literature: (Paul Lawrence Dunbar, Claude McKay, Langston Hughes, Jean Toomer, Alain Locke)

Alfred Neumann: The Devil.

The course of lectures is offered for $3. Tickets, which are non-transferable, may be procured from Mrs. Theo. Fishel (1728 E. 115th St.), Chairman, or at the temple office. Single admission will be 50c.

Membership in this course will be limited to the first one hundred and fifty who register.

Jewish Current Events

The Current Events lectures will open its third season on Friday, October 19th at 11 A. M., and will alternate with the "Books and Authors" Group on Friday mornings. Rabbi Brickner will again take the leadership.

Membership in the Current Events Group this year will be limited to the first 150 who register. The registration fee of one dollar per person, is devoted to subscriptions for American and foreign periodicals.

Those desirous of registering, please communicate with Mrs. Milton Halle, Chairman (Fairmount 5024), or the Temple office.

ALUMNI

Alumni Day - Oct. 14th

The Alumni Association is all set for the big event of the year—Alumni Day, Sunday, October 14th.

PROGRAM

- 5:30—Reception to welcome into fellowship the members of the 1927 class.
- 6:00—Supper.
- 8:00—Entertainment.
- 9:00—Dance.

The affair will open with a reception at which the Alumni Mantle will be officially transferred to the 1928 class. At the supper table, Rabbi Brickner and several of the past Alumni presidents will speak. The entertainment will be given in the Auditorium, and the evening will conclude with a dance in the Recreation Hall.

Tickets for Alumni Day may be procured upon application at the temple office.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

High School Department

The High School Department held its opening session last Sunday, with an unusually large attendance. The new plan of elective courses has attracted a number of confirmands who had not previously enrolled in the High School Department. The new program of studies, together with the enlarged plan of extra-curricula activities, hold promise of a season of distinct advancement in high school work.

The first big event of the High School Department will be a new activity, namely: the High School Department Supper on October- 28th, at which the newly-elected officers will be installed.

Clubs

Every child in the Sunday School, from the IV through the IX grades, was given an opportunity last Sunday to register for one of the many club activities that are being planned for the coming season, under the direction of Mrs. Braverman and a group of competent club leaders.

Parents are urged to encourage their children to join one of the following groups:

Dramatic	Debating
Art	Girls Social
Modelling	Boys Social
Marionette	Orchestra
Stage Crew	Glee Club
Boy Scout	Literary
Girl Scout	Young Judaea

These clubs will meet on week days after school.

Week-Day Hebrew

Special classes in Hebrew will be conducted during the week, some classes meeting Monday and Wednesday, and others Tuesday and Thursday.

Those children desiring additional Hebrew instruction will please register with their Hebrew teachers next Sunday.

"Young Israel"

All children in the Intermediate Department, that is: the IV, V and VI grades, are required to subscribe to the "Young Israel" magazine, which is a part of the school curriculum.

"Young Israel" is without a doubt the best Jewish children's magazine available. Subscription price is one dollar per year. Children who have not yet brought their money, should do so next Sunday morning, without fail. Only one child in a family will be required to subscribe.

Named In Temple

On Sabbath morning, September 29, Susanne Grace Haas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Haas, was blessed in Temple.

Funds

Contributions to the Library Fund, have been received from Mrs. D. B. Stone, in memory of Della Schwarz; Mrs. L. S. Desberg, in memory of her husband.

The Altar Fund gratefully acknowledges contributions from the following: Mrs. Jacob Newman, in memory of I. Rice; Mrs. Jos.
