Sunday Services

The Sunday Lecture Services commence
next Sunday, October 14th at 10:30 A. M.

Rabbi Brickner has chosen as his subject for the opening lecture: "The Moral Issues of this Presidential Campaign." In view of the current interest in this subject, a very large congregation is anticipated. Please come early.

Following his usual practise, the Rabbi will answer written questions submitted to him after the lecture, on the discourse of the morning.

Sabbath Services

This Sabbath is known as Shabbos Bereshith, because on this day the reading of the Torah is recommenced, and the word "Bereshith" is the opening word of the Torah. The theme of Rabbi Brickner's sermon will be "Emergent Evolution."

Mothers may bring their little children,
who will be cared for by a Kindergartner,
during the Sabbath morning service,
throughout the season.

Many members have enjoyed stopping at the temple on the way home from their business, to spend a half hour in meditation and prayer at the services which are conducted every Friday evening at 5:30. These services, with beautiful musical program, are soul-comforting
to all, and are not intended for mourners alone. Why not acquire the habit of meeting your family at temple every Friday at 5:30?

MEN'S CLUB

Round Table Opens Monday

The fourth season of the Round Table
conducted by the Men's Club, will reopen
next Monday, October 15th at 12 noon,
at the Statler Hotel. Mr. Ben Sinks,
Chairman of the Round Table this season,
will preside.

As a result of Rabbi Brickner's studies
and observations at the Institute of Politics, Williamstown, the past Summer, he has chosen as his subject for the opening discussion of the Round Table: "Some Aspects of International Relations."

All friends of the Round Table are reminded to be present at the first meeting
next Monday, October 15th.

Let us make this a reunion.

Fischer Travelogues

Mr. Albert T. Fischer will begin a series of illustrated Travelogues on Sunday mornings, beginning with Sunday, October 21st at 9:30 A. M. This will be a continuation of pre-lecture service activities which have been conducted with so much success in the past.

Mr. Fischer has been in practically every corner of the globe, and has, himself, taken the pictures which he will present to illustrate his talks. "Russia" will be his first subject—a timely topic, in consideration of the interest evinced in that mammoth experiment.

The David Dietz Science lectures which have always been so popular will be continued in the near future.

SISTERHOOD

Community Sewing Next Monday

The Community Sewing Group will meet for the first time this season, on next Monday, October 15, from 9 to 3 o'clock. This group has always been well attended in the past, and an even more successful season is anticipated. Many Cleveland charitable institutions receive contributions from the Sewing Group.

that those interested, attend the first session in order to familiarize themselves with the continuity of the course, which will be along new lines this year. Mrs. J. C. Newman, the chairman, will make detailed announcement of the course, at this meeting.

Commencing on Monday, October 29th, and every Monday thereafter, Dr. O. A. Ohmanns, Professor of Psychology at Cleveland College, will conduct a series of five lectures on "Taking the Kinks Out of Every Day Living."

Sisterhood members and their friends are cordially invited.

Noted Actor At Current Events-Oct. 19

Mr. Jacob Ben-Ami, noted Jewish actor, who will star in the play "Samson and Deliah," at the Little Theatre next week,

ALUMNI DAY

Sisterhood members and their friends are urged to attend next Monday, and every Monday thereafter. Luncheon, prepared by members of the Sisterhood, is served at noon.

Adult Hebrew

The Adult Study Hebrew Group will hold its first meeting on Monday, October 15th at 1:00 P. M., in the Sisterhood Parlor.

All Sisterhood members interested in the study of Hebrew, are cordially invited.

Child Study-Dr. A. Caswell Ellis

Dr. A. Caswell Ellis, President of Cleveland College, will open the series of Child Study Group meetings on Monday, October 15th at 2:30 P. M., with a lecture on "Training of the Will."

The sessions of this group will be held on alternate Mondays, and it is essential will speak on some subject pertaining to the theatre before the Current Events Group which will open for the third season on Friday, October 19th. Mr. Ben Ami will speak at 10:15, and Rabbi Brickner will commence his discussion on Jewish Current Events at 11 o'clock. Mr. Ben Ami is not only a gifted actor, but knows the theatre and its art, and ought to give us a very fine address.

The Jewish Current Events Group, which met with such notable success for the past two years, will again be limited to the first 150 who register, and will alternate with the "Books and Authors Group" on Fridays at 11 A. M.

This course is more than a course in Current Events. It is as well, a course in Jewish History, because Rabbi Brickner supplies the historical background significant to events of the day.

The registration fee of one dollar per person is devoted to subscriptions for foreign and American periodicals. Those desiring to register, please communicate with Mrs. Milton Halle, Chairman (Fairmount 5024) or the temple office.

ALUMNI

Dramatic Group

The Alumni Dramatic Group will hold its meeting next Wednesday, October 17th at 7:30 P. M.

Those interested in dramatics, or work connected with this field, are invited to attend the meeting.

This group, which is open both to members of the Alumni Association and to members of the Junior Congregation, has many projects in view, and looks forward to a promising season.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Week-Day Hebrew

Special classes in Hebrew will be conducted during the week, some classes meeting Monday and Wednesday, and others on Tuesday and Thursday.

Those children desiring additional Hebrew instruction, will please register with their Hebrew teachers next Sunday.

Boys planning to be Bar Mitzvah, are reminded of the ruling that one year of week-day Hebrew instruction is required. Such instruction may be obtained in our week-day Hebrew classes, or its equivalent.

Confirmation Class

All the students of the IX grade, are required to meet with Rabbi Brickner on Saturday, October 20th, at 9:30 A. M., for the purpose of organizing the confirmation class. Commencing with that Saturday morning, they will be required to attend Sabbath services regularly.

Sermonette Contest

The one to deliver the sermonette for the first Children's Service on Saturday, November 2, will be chosen by a contest which is open only to the members of the confirmation class. Get busy at once! Sermonettes must be submitted to Mrs. Braverman by Sunday, October 21st.

Jewish Teachers' Institute

The Jewish Teachers' Institute will hold its sessions this year at The Temple (E. 105th and Ansel Rd.) Classes will be conducted in Jewish History and Literature, Jewish Liturgy, Jewish Movements and Institutions, Methods of Pedagogy, and Palestinian Geography.

Students are requested to report to Room 10 at The Temple, next Tuesday, October 16 at 4:30 P. M. Classes will meet regularly every Tuesday and Thursday from 4:30 to 6:00 P. M., throughout the school year. Tuition is free. Cleveland Rabbis and leading Jewish Educators will be the instructors.

Rabbi Brickner Broadcasts

Station WHK, on the Engineers Bldg., has again arranged with Rabbi Brickner, to broadcast. He will be "on the air" every Wednesday evening from 8:00 to 8:30, commencing with next Wednesday, October 17th.

This year, the arrangements call for his usual Question-and-Answer period on alternate Wednesday evenings. The other two Wednesdays each month, he will devote to conducting a "Radio Editorial" in which he will give his opinions and comments on current events and significant books.

Questions on life's problems, and requests for his opinions and comments on current events, may be addressed to Rabbi Brickner, care of the temple, or through Station WHK on the Engineers Bldg.

Please Note

When arranging for funerals or weddings, will you please consult the Rabbi before setting the time, so as to avoid a possible conflict?

The Rabbi and Sisterhood Visiting Committee will be pleased to call at homes where there is illness, sorrow or on occasions of joy, if they be notified. In a large congregation, it is impossible to know these things, unless they are brought to our attention. In order to avoid any unhappy misunderstandings in such event, kindly send word either to the Rabbi, or to Mrs. Chas. Frankel (1057 E. 97th St.), who is Chairman of the Sisterhood Visiting Committee.

United Palestine Appeal Campaign

The Cleveland campaign for the United Palestine Appeal, with a quota of $125,000 for the coming year, opens on Sunday evening, October 14th, and will last for a period of ten days.

The United Palestine Appeal is worthy of the support of every member of the Euclid Avenue Temple.
