Sunday Services

Rabbi Brickner has chosen for his theme next Sunday, December 2nd, a subject which has a wide popular appeal—"What Makes Life Worth Living?"

Last Sunday, in spite of the inclement weather, the temple was filled with a large congregation who came to hear Rabbi Brickner discuss "The Island Within," by Ludwig Lewisohn. Another capacity congregation is expected to attend next Sunday.

The congregation is urged to come early, in order not to disturb those who are worshipping. Late-comers must expect to wait in the lobby until such a time as the ushers can admit them.

Rabbi's Addresses

Last week Rabbi Brickner addressed the Jewish Community of Toronto at a large dinner meeting, and this Friday he will give the address at the annual Jewish Religious Education Association Convention in Youngstown.

Among his addresses in December, there is included a debate with Mr. Maurice Samuel on "Resolved that Reform Judaism is Best Adapted to the Spiritual Needs of the Modern Jew." This debate will be held in Rochester before Congregation B'rith Kodesh, on Thursday evening, December 13th. This is probably the first debate of its kind, on this subject, to be held in recent years.

MEN'S CLUB

Round Table

Rabbi Brickner will address the Round Table next Monday, December 3rd at 12 noon at the Statler Hotel, and speak on an interesting theme.

Mr. Dietz Next Sunday

"Power from the Sun" will be the title of the lecture by Mr. David Dietz next Sunday, December 2nd at 9:30 A. M., in the Sisterhood Parlor.

Scientists have pointed out that the world's supply of coal and oil will give out in time. Many think that when that day comes, mankind will draw its power directly from the sun. By means of stereopticon slides, Mr. Dietz will show the attempts which have been made to build solar engines and to solve related problems.

Chanukah At Home

Chanukah is a holiday rich in ceremonies, which can be practised in the home. It is needless to point out that Judaism can best be taught through doing, through active participation in ceremonial life. Here is what you can do at home:

1. If you have no Chanukah Menorah, get one at the temple office, (15c each). Every child in the school will receive a box of candles. Kindle the Chanukah candles every evening. The first candle is lit Friday evening, December 7th, and add one light each night, through Friday evening, December 14th, when all eight candles are lit. (See Union Prayer Book page 351).

2. Sing the Chanukah songs which your child has learned in Sunday School.

3. Play the Dredel game. Your child who goes to Sunday School, knows how.

4. The Story of Chanukah may be read in "The Story of the Jewish People," by Jack Myers, Chapters 1, 2 and 3.

SISTERHOOD

"Books and Authors" Group

"The Relationship of Sex to Literature" will be Mr. Joseph Remenyi's fifth talk on Friday, December 7th, at 11:00 A. M., in his series on "Books and Authors." This question, which seems to play a large part in American literature, will be analyzed and thoroughly discussed in the usual capable manner of Mr. Remenyi.

Community Sewing

In addition to its present departments, the Community Sewing Group conducted by our Sisterhood, has instituted a new department for the making of children's dresses. It is also prepared to accept orders for linen hemming.

Our Sisterhood Entertains Warrensville

On Monday evening, November 19th, Mrs. Henry Sulka, acting for the Sisterhood, arranged a musical program for the patients at Warrensville. Mr. Henry Newman and his orchestra supplied the instrumental music, and several vocal solos were given by our own Mrs. Avery and Mrs. McCullough. As one of the nurses there happily expressed it: "If such evenings could be arranged frequently, many of the patients would be sent home cured, much sooner."

Through the Sisterhood, arrangements have been made whereby services are conducted every Saturday morning, by Roland Gittelsohn. It is fitting at this time to mention the fact that Elmer Berger, a student at the Hebrew Union College, voluntarily conducted these services during the entire Summer.

Sisterhood Chanukah Meeting-Dec. 11th

On Tuesday, December 11th at 2:30 P. M., the Sisterhood will hold its Chanukah meeting, together with an exhibition of Jewish ceremonial objects that have been collected by Mrs. B. R. Brickner, Chairman of the afternoon, from early Jewish settlers in this community and from some of the oldest families in the congregation. The Rabbi will give a talk on the origin, meaning and use of these ceremonials, using the objects as illustrations. A Tea and reception to the new members will close the afternoon. Mrs. Sol Moses and Mrs. Sam Cohn are working with Mrs. Brickner as co-Chairmen.

Members of the Sisterhood are urged to reserve that afternoon. An opportunity of seeing these invaluable treasures at one exhibition, may not present itself again for a long time. Every member of the Sisterhood is privileged to bring a friend. A cordial invitation is extended to the newly-wedded.

Wanted, For The Exhibition:

Such things as Sabbath Candlesticks, Sabbath Lamps, Kiddish Cups, Seder "Bechers" (Cups), Chaloh Cloths, Matzoh Cloths, Mezuzos, Spice Boxes, Havdallah Candles, Wine Pitchers for Seder Night, Esrog Boxes, Chanukah Menorahs, Small Torahs, Megillahs, Small Bibles in Hebrew, Tefilin, Talith, Small Talith known as "Arbah Kanfos," Shofar, and other articles that are not mentioned here.

Be good enough to leave them at the temple office for Mrs. Brickner, where they will be properly cared for until after the exhibition.

ALUMNI

Intercollegiate Dance-Dec. 22nd

Out of town college students who return for the Winter vacation, will be glad to know that a special dance is being arranged for Saturday evening, December 22nd, by the Alumni Association. A large orchestra has been engaged, and a number of interesting novelties are being prepared.

Alumni and their friends will find this an excellent opportunity for a grand reunion. Admission—$1.50 a couple.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Collegiate-Forum Supper-Dec. 9th

"The Two Goyim," a highly-amusing farce-comedy will be given by the class in Jewish Drama, at the first Collegiate-Forum Supper this season, on Chanukah—Sunday evening, December 9th.

In addition, it has been the good fortune of the High School Department to secure Mr. A. T. Fischer, who will give a talk on "Russia." A supper will precede the program, and dancing will follow.

Members of the High School Department and their friends are cordially invited. Tickets, at 75c each, may be secured from a member of the committee or at the temple office.

Chanukah Entertainment

"Mixed Holidays," a musical Chanukah show, with two large choruses and a large cast, will be given Sunday morning, December 9th, by the children of the Religious School. The play has been especially prepared for the occasion, and will be presented the first time on any stage.

Over seventy-five children will be in the cast. The performance will be given free to the children of the Religious School. Parents are also invited.

Children's Sabbath Service Dec. 8th

The monthly Children's Service which ordinarily is held on the first Sabbath of the month, will this time be given on December 8th, because of the fact that Saturday occurs during the holiday of Chanukah. Parents are urged to come with their children on Saturday, December 8th, at 19:30 A. M.

Intermediate-Primary Parent Teachers

The annual Parent-Teachers Meeting of the Primary and Intermediate Departments will be held Monday, December 10th at 8:00 P. M., in the Recreation Hall of the Temple House. This will be the only Parent-Teachers meeting of the year, for the grades in these departments.

Several numbers from the Religious School Chanukah play, a model lesson, and a number by the Hebrew Department, will contribute to a program that promises to be unusually interesting. Rabbi Brickner will be the only speaker of the evening.

Parents of the children who attend the Intermediate and Primary Departments, are urged to reserve the evening, for it will serve as an excellent opportunity, not only to see what the children are doing, but also to meet the teachers in whose hands the religious education of their children has been entrusted.

Club Notes

A costume party will be held by the clubs on Chanukah—Sunday afternoon, December 9th,—in the Kindergarten Rooms.

The program will consist of several reports by Chairmen of Committees, and the choruses of the Chanukah play will give several numbers. Admission is limited to club members and their parents.

The Executive Board of the clubs will meet next Monday afternoon, December 3rd.

The Leaders Meeting will be held on Tuesday, December 4th at 7:30 P. M., at the Temple House.

College Students

Parents, if you have a son or daughter attending an out-of-town college, and if you have not already done so, will you please send us their college addresses at once, in order that Rabbi and Mrs. Brickner may be able to extend an invitation to the annual Student Luncheon to be held on Thursday, December 27th.
