Sunday Service

Next Sunday Rabbi Brickner will give a book review lecture. He will tell the story and analyze the problems raised by Ludwig Lewisohn in his most recent work “Mid-Channel,” his sequel to “Upstream,” and equally as interesting.

Lewisohn is one of the most brilliant modern literary figures. “Mid-Channel,” like “Upstream,” is autobiographical in character, and reveals the author in his attempt to “find” himself as a Jew. From “Upstream,” to the Jewish “Island Within,” Lewisohn finds himself again in “Mid-Channel.”

In his last book he writes not only about the Jew and Jewishness, and his reactions to them, but also about America, Marriage and Divorce, and about great literary figures whom he has met.

Sunday services will, as heretofore, come to a close at the end of April. The last lecture will be on Sunday, April 28th.

Passover

Passover is celebrated annually for seven days, beginning with the fifteenth day of the Jewish month of Nisan which this year falls on Thursday, April 25th. Passover celebrates Israel's deliverance from Egyptian bondage. During this holiday, Matzos are eaten in place of leaven bread, and the very beautiful Seder ceremony is conducted on the first evening. Passover will be observed in our temple as follows:

Sunday, April 21st—Departmental Seder Assemblies.

Wed., April 24th, 6:00—Half-hour Service.

Wed., April 24th, 6:30—Congregational Seder.

Thurs., April 25th, 10:00—Services.

Sunday, April 28th, 9:30—Religious School Entertainment.

Wed., May 1st, 10:00—Concluding Services.

MEN'S CLUB

Round Table

Rabbi Brickner closed the fourth successful season of the Round Table last Monday. In his summary of the year's activities, Mr. Ben Sinks, Chairman, indicated that the Round Table had held 26 successful sessions, 18 of which had been personally conducted by Rabbi Brickner. Prominent guest-speakers led the other sessions in the Rabbi's absence.

The average attendance this year was larger than it has ever been in former years. Members have taken occasion to bring their friends and business associates to the meetings. A large variety of subjects has been discussed that have aroused keen interest and very lively discussions.

The Round Table is an institution of public discussion, unique in its way, not only in our congregation, but in Cleveland. It will resume sessions again early next Fall.

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood Annual - May 7th

An unusual musical program has been prepared by the Sisterhood, for its XX1st annual meeting to be held Tuesday afternoon, May 7th, at which Felix Eyle, eminent violinist of Vienna, and Sonia Essin, contralto of New York, will be featured.

Miss Essin who has recently returned from a successful concert tour through England and Germany, possesses a beautiful contralto voice. She is formerly of Cleveland.

Mr. Eyle who has but recently arrived in Cleveland, heads the violin department at the Cleveland Music School Settlement. He has created for himself, an enviable reputation as a violinist. This will be his first appearance before a Cleveland audience.

Every affair that the Sisterhood has conducted this year has been artistically perfect and entertaining. Another very fine afternoon is anticipated at their annual meeting.

Sisterhood Dues Due

In order to carry on all of the activities the Sisterhood does, it depends exclusively upon the dues. May we urge upon all those who have not as yet paid their dues, to do so at once? Please do not delay.

The annual dues of two dollars should be mailed to Mrs. Max P. Goodman, Financial Secretary, 2401 Conventry Road.

Community Sewing Annual Luncheon

The annual luncheon of the Community Sewing Group will be held on Monday, May 20th at the Alcazar Hotel.

The annual luncheon is the closing affair of the season, and is open to Sisterhood members and their friends. Reservations at $1.15 a plate, may be made with Mrs. Henry Dettelbach, 1424 Ansel Rd.

Current Events - Book Review

The lectures by Mr. Joseph Remenyi came to a close on Friday, March 29th. Rabbi Brickner's Jewish Current Events lectures also were concluded for the season on Friday, April 5th. The attendance in both groups remained large to the very end. Arrangements have already been made for the continuance of these two groups next year.

Mr. Remenyi has prepared a course of twelve lectures which will shortly be mailed to the members who were registered this year, and will include a bibliography for reading during the Summer. His course opens Friday, October 25th.

Rabbi Brickner will resume his Current Events lectures on Friday, November 1st.

Those desirous of registering in advance for these groups, may communicate with Mrs. Theo. Fishel, (1728 East 115th St.) Chairman of the Books and Authors; and with Mrs. Milton Halle, (3137 Meadowbrook Blvd.), Chairman of the Current Events Group.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Seder Assemblies Next Sunday

Each department will hold an abbreviated form of the Seder, this Sunday, April 21st, so as to acquaint the children with the very many beautiful customs and ceremonies connected with the Seder ritual.

On the Sunday following which occurs during Passover, April 28th, a program of entertainment will be presented before a general assembly of the entire school. A special quartette of children's voices is being coached by Miss Lillian Wiener, and a shadowgraph to accompany the songs, is being prepared by Mrs. S. Braverman.

Your Friends This Sunday

Club Day

In addition to the annual luncheon which the Club Department conducted last year, it is planned to close the season with a Club Day, on Saturday, May 11th. A special children's service is being prepared which will be conducted entirely by members of the clubs. Then there will be a catered luncheon served in the Recreation Hall for the club members and their parents, following which a special entertainment will be given.

Under the able supervision of Mrs. S. Braverman, the Club Department has grown to a group of fifteen clubs, with an attendance of over two hundred children weekly.

The work of the clubs is planned to supplement the Religious School, and is in reality an integral part of the school. The Dramatic Groups have given several performances of a Jewish nature; The Arts and Crafts Club has utilized the Jewish motif in all of its work; and the same strain runs through the activities of all the other groups.

With Club Day, a highly successful season of activity is being concluded. Reservations at 85c a plate may be made at the temple office.

Bar Mitzvah

On last Sabbath morning, Edwin Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis, was Bar Mitzvah.

Funds

Contributions to the following funds are gratefully acknowledged:

Rabbi Concludes Broadcasting

Last Wednesday evening, Rabbi Brickner gave his last radio address for this season over Station WHK. This concludes the third year that Rabbi Brickner has been giving his Question-and-Answer period "over the air".

The letters which continue to pour in on the Rabbi, from Cleveland and various parts of this section of the country, are indicative of the Rabbi's popularity. His radio audience on Wednesday night runs into the thousands, and his listeners are to be found among all classes of the population.

The Question-and-Answer period covering a wide range of subjects, not merely religious, is one of the unique educational features in radio broadcasting in this country.

Rabbi Brickner will resume his broadcasting early in the fall.
