Sunday Lecture Service

Joseph Remenyi, the well-known Hungarian novelist, publicist and lecturer, who is also Professor of Literature at Cleveland College, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning in Rabbi Brickner's absence, and will speak on “The Spiritual Significance of Literature.”

Mr. Remenyi is a gifted speaker, and his courses before our Sisterhood during the past three years have been exceedingly well attended, and all those who heard and know Mr. Remenyi, appreciate that a treat is in store for them. The men of the temple who have not had the privilege of hearing Mr. Remenyi, ought especially to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Music At Sunday Service

Following is the program of music for the services on Sunday, March 30th:

Organ:

Les Preludes, fragment.....Liszt
MeditationD'Evry
Ritual Responses: Saminsky, Stark, Grimm

Anthem:

O Be Joyful in the Lord....Gesar Franck

Note

Rabbi Brickner will be in Boston on Sunday when he will occupy the pulpit of Rabbi Levi at Temple Adath Israel in the morning and in the evening will speak before Ford Hall Forum which is the oldest and most distinguished Forum in America.

On Monday noon he will speak there at the Hadassah Donors' Luncheon, and in the evening will address a city-wide Zionist Mass meeting. On Tuesday afternoon, April 1st, Rabbi Brickner will address the Sisterhood of Temple Beth-El, Atlantic City, N. J.

MEN'S CLUB

Round Table

With its meeting last Tuesday, the Round Table closed the fifth successful season.

In a summary of the year's activities, the chairman pointed out that the Round Table had held eighteen sessions, fourteen of which had been personally conducted by Rabbi Brickner. Prominent guest speakers held three of the sessions in the Rabbi's absence, and another one of the Round Tables featured a debate on “The Chain Store.” In addition to the increase in average attendance this year over former years, there were a larger number of members who attended the Round Table meetings regularly, than ever before. Members have frequently taken occasion to bring their friends and business associates to the meetings. A large variety of subjects were discussed, and aroused keen interest and very lively discussions.

The coincidence of the day on which the Round Table and the Lecture Course met, made possible the invitation as guests of such prominent personalities as Aaron Sapiro, Stephen S. Wise, Maurice Hindus, Solomon Goldman, Wm. Hung and James Waterman Wise.

The Round Table is an institution of public discussion, unique in its way not only in our congregation but in Cleveland, and it has been copied by Men's Clubs all over the country.

It will resume sessions again early next Fall.

SISTERHOOD

Cultural Groups

"Jewish Current Events"

Rabbi Brickner will close the lectures on "Jewish Current Events" Friday, April 4th at 11:00 A. M. With this lecture he concludes the fourth season of a course on Jewish Current Events which has proven itself to be the most popular of the cultural courses conducted by the Sisterhood.

A large attendance and stimulating discussion in which the members of the Sisterhood frequently participate, were characteristic of these meetings.

Rabbi Brickner will resume the Jewish Current Events Group in the Fall.

"Why We Behave as Humans"

Dr. Henry Schumacher will give his fifth and last lecture on "Why We Behave as Humans," Friday, March 28th at 10:00 A. M.

This will mark the closing of another of the Sisterhood's well-attended cultural courses.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Our boys will uphold the negative.

Educator Visits School

In recognition of the progressive and experimental nature of our Religious School, Dr. Emanuel Gamoran, Educational Director of the Department of Synagog and School Extension of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, will visit our school this Sunday morning.

Together with Mr. Friedland, Dr. Gamoran has been at work on a new Hebrew Reader, constructed along the lines of the most modern methods used in our secular schools. The reader is still in manuscript and one of our Hebrew teachers will experiment with it this Sunday under the personal supervision of Dr. Gamoran.

Lecture Course

The third successful season of our Lecture Course closed with the spirited debate between two of America's outstanding representatives of Jewish youth, Maurice Samuel and James Waterman Wise.

The Lecture Course has met with a response far beyond the expectations of the committee sponsoring it. The Course has reached out into the whole community, people coming regularly, even in the worst of weather, from as far as Rocky River and Lakewood. Many have already made requests that subscription books be reserved for them, for the coming season.

Rarely, if ever, is it possible to assemble for appearance on one platform, such a galaxy of personalities, each an outstanding authority in his particular field, as has been the good fortune of this committee. The attendance at these lectures has been consistently high, generally over a thousand, and at times an audience of 1600 taxed the Auditorium to capacity.

Never satisfied to accept success as perfection, the Lecture Course Committee is planning to improve upon the present set-up. Many new and radically different features will be introduced for the year 1930-31, so that the new course may serve more effectively to advance the cause of adult education in the city of Cleveland.

Altar Fund

The following contributions to this fund are gratefully acknowledged:

Mrs. Sarah Freyer in memory of father, Mr. Max Cohen; Mrs. J. O. Stein in memory of Mr. Morris Halle and Mr. Julius Schloss; Mrs. M. A. Katz in memory of mother, Mrs. Freda Kahn; Mrs. D. W. Sampliner and Mrs. Sidney Rose in memory of Mr. D. W. Sampliner; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Goodman in memory of Mr. Morris Halle and Miss Lily Weinfeld; and from Miss Clara Steiner.

Bar Mitzvah

On last Sabbath morning, Harold Salavon, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Salavon, was Bar Mitzvah.

CONGREGATIONAL ANNUAL SEDER

We encourage our families to have a Seder at home. There is no family gathering more beautiful than the Seder. It emphasizes what has always been so central in Jewish life, namely: the unity of the family and the sanctity of the home. Even if you have not been in the habit of observing this beautiful ritual in your home, plan to do it this year, for the sake of your children.

But in the event you will not celebrate the Seder at home, the temple cordially invites you to attend the temple Seder which will this year be held on the second night of Passover, Sunday evening, April 13th, arranged under the auspices of our Sisterhood. Do not let the occasion go by without attendance at Seder.

Traditional melodies of the Haggadah, a real Passover meal with many fine Passover delicacies, and a charming children's program will be the chief features of the Congregational Seder to be conducted by Rabbi Brickner.

The price of the meal will be announced in the next Bulletin. It is essential that reservations should come in early, in order that the committee may be able to make proper and adequate preparations.
