Sunday Lecture Service

"What is the Secret of Happiness?" will be Rabbi Brickner's subject next Sunday morning.

He will take as his text the recent book by Walter B. Pitkin, Professor at Columbia University, entitled "The Psychology of Happiness."

In Pitkin's book which is refreshingly unconventional both in method and reasoned position, we get a psychological case analysis of some interesting lives of the great of the past. Among them are cast studies of Garibaldi, D'Annunzio, Horace Greeley, Cardinal Newman, William Jennings Bryan, Woodrow Wilson, with a view of finding out: Were they happy and what is this forever-to-be-desired, this elusive, fascinating thing called "happiness"? The analysis is intensely modern and psychological in point of view.

This lecture was postponed from Sunday, March 23rd when Rabbi Brickner gave in its stead "Revolution and Religion—Must They Always be Opposed?"

Music At Sunday Service

Following is the program of music for the services on Sunday, April 6th:

Organ:

- Allegretto Cover
- Andante from the Fifth Symphony Tchaikowsky
- Ritual Responses: Grim, Sainsky, Rogers.
- Anthem: The Lord is My Light.....
- Oley Speaks

MEN'S CLUB

Annual Meeting

A smoker, entertainment and an interesting debate by two prominent personalities will be the chief features of the Men's Club annual meeting to be held Tuesday evening, April 22nd.

Admission to the meeting will be limited exclusively to members of the Men's Club.

The evening promises to be an unusual one in the very fine program of activities that the Men's Club has conducted this year.

SISTERHOOD

"Books and Authors"

With his discussion of Geo. Bernard Shaw, Mr. Remenyi will close the third season of lectures on "Books and Authors" conducted under the auspices of the Sisterhood on Friday, April 11th at 11:00 A. M. The reading of Shaw's "Doll House and Pygmalion" is suggested.

All of the courses conducted by the Sisterhood have been exceptionally well attended. This is particularly true of the "Books and Authors" course which owes its success primarily to the engaging personality of Mr. Remenyi and his intimate acquaintance with the literatures of the world.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Children's Service

The monthly Children's Service takes place this Saturday morning, April 5th, in the temple.

The following members of the confirmation class will participate as readers: Ruth Kraus, Arthur Stern, Ruth Fishel, Maxine Adler, Clarice Bayer, Elaine Roubicek, Adria Glick, Martha Perlick and Harriet Wiener; the Torah will be read by Justin Rothman, and the sermonette will be given by Herbert Altman.

Mothers are strongly urged to accompany their children.

Passover Assembly

A novel way of presenting both an abridged Seder and a Passover entertainment, has been worked out by Mrs. Braverman and Mr. Brilliant, to be presented this Sunday, April 6th, at 11:00 A. M.

The Seder, in a form suitable for children, will be presented on the Auditorium stage, together with illustrations on the screen and stage. The children of the special Hebrew classes are preparing the major portion of the program.

Inter-City Debate

The debating team of our high school department, consisting of James Rice—Captain, Victor Pollak and Bertram Kraus will meet the Temple Beth-El team in Detroit this Saturday evening, April 5th.

Our team will uphold the negative of the question "Resolved that the Synagog should Exclude the Usual Community Center Activities, and Devote Itself Purely to Worship and Education."

We wish our boys the best of luck.

Orphan Home Presents Play

A cast of about twenty-five boys and girls of the Jewish Orphan Home presented a musical version of "The Dyspeptic Ogre" before the high school department assembly last Sunday morning.

It was a fine performance which does credit to the excellent work of the Jewish Orphan Home, and we wish to take this opportunity of thanking the Home for its courtesy to us, and of thanking the children for their very fine and spirited performance. We also wish to extend our appreciation to the members of our temple who motored the children to and from the Home.

"Theatre of the Nations"

Among the series of plays produced by "The Theatre of the Nations" sponsored by the Cleveland Plain Dealer, will be a Hebrew play presented by the Zohar Hebrew Dramatic Studio, under the direction of the well-known Palestinian artist, Chaym Ostrowsky of Tel Aviv. The play will be given at the Little Theatre of the Public Auditorium on April 20th, 21st, 22nd and 23rd. Two of these performances have already been completely sold out.

"The Footsteps of Messiah" by Sholom Ash is a symbolic play, rich in scenic effect, Jewish folk music and dancing. It will unquestionably prove interesting even to audiences unfamiliar with the Hebrew language.

Mr. Ostrowsky, himself a competent director and a fine exponent of the Habimah School, has the co-operation and assistance of K. Elmo Lowe of the Playhouse and others.

We hope that many of our members will take advantage of the opportunity to see a play in Hebrew, presented in the manner of the incomparable work of the Habimah.

Haggadahs

The Union Haggadah which contains in addition to the usual Haggadah material, both in Hebrew and in English, an interesting account of the origin of many of the Passover customs, may be purchased at the temple office at fifty cents each.

Books Wanted

Have you any books suitable for children up to the age of 15, books that you can spare? If so will you please send them to the temple and we will forward them to Camp Wise.

Funds

"Mo-os Chitim" (Matzo Fund): Passover has traditionally been the holiday when doors are opened wide to the poor and needy. As an outgrowth of this tradition, it has been customary annually to make some contribution to a fund which supplies matzos and other Passover necessities to those less fortunate. Contributions to this fund may be made through the temple office.

Contributions to the following funds are acknowledged with much thanks:

Altar: Mrs. Arthur Fox in memory of her mother, Mrs. Mina Machol; Mrs. S. E. Hartz in memory of sister, Mrs. Tillie Alexander Glick, also father, Mr. Aaron Hartz; Mr. A. J. Orkin in memory of his wife; Mrs. Clarence Goldsmith in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schwarz.

Library: In memory of Adele Louise Lazarus from Amelia Schwarz, Mrs. Jos. Firth, Mrs. Hilda Laronge, Mrs. B. J. Lazar, Selma Schwarz; Anna Moss in memory of her mother.

Prayer Book: Mrs. S. David Spizel in memory of Mrs. Pauline Holstein; Mrs. L. Steiner and children in memory of Mr. Louis E. Steiner; Mrs. A. Mahrer in memory of Mr. Jacob Mahrer.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved families of

Jason Halle
