RABBI GOLDMAN AT EXERCISES

Rabbi Solomon Goldman of Temple Anshe Emet in Chicago, formerly of the Jewish Center of Cleveland, will be the guest speaker at the graduation exercises of our High School Department to be held Sunday, May 3rd at 10:00 A. M. He will speak on "The Quest of the Jew."

The program will open with the regular Sunday morning service conducted by Rabbi Brickner who will be assisted by members of the graduating class. Irwin Pohl, Bertram Kraus and Suzanne Berman, members of the senior class, will supply the musical program.

SUNDAY LECTURE SERVICE

Next Sunday morning, in his discourse on "A Sensible Man's Religion," Rabbi Brickner will summarize his own viewpoint touching Religion, and will outline those fundamentals which he believes have a place in Religion, and which are consistent with a modern outlook on life.

The closing Sunday morning service will be held on May 3rd in conjunction with the high school commencement.

RABBI BRICKNER speaks over Radio Station WHK
every Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock

Jewish Book Week

The observance of Jewish Book Week, which has now become a national event in the Jewish life of this country, will occur this year during the week of Lag B'Omer—May 3rd to 9th. It is largely through the reading of Jewish literature, supplemented by the word spoken in the Jewish pulpit, that the Jewish spirit can be maintained, and it is to the Jewish pulpit and press that our people have come to look for guidance in the reading of the best books written for Jews by Jews.

Miss Eda Wolpaw, our librarian, will be glad to assist you in the selection of books for your own library, or as gifts.

Sermons in Stones

Now, my co-mates and brothers in exile,
Hath not old custom made this life more sweet

Than that of painted pomp? Are not these woods

More free from peril than the envious court?

Here feel we but the penalty of Adam,
The seasons' difference; as the icy fang
And churlish chiding of the winter's wind,
Which, when it bites and blows upon my body,

Even till I shrink with cold, I smile, and say

"This is no flattery; these are counselors
That feelingly persuade me what I am."

Sweet are the uses of adversity,
Which, like the toad, ugly and venomous,
Wears yet a precious jewel in his head;
And this our life, exempt from public
haunt,

Finds tongues in trees, books in the running brooks,

Sermons in stones, and good in everything.

—William Shakespeare.

Men's Club

Annual Smoker—May 5th

An unusually fine program has been prepared for the annual meeting and smoker of the Men's Club to be held Tuesday evening, May 5th. Judge Carl D. Friebohn will speak on "The Tragedy and Comedy of Bankruptcy." He is a very witty speaker and author of the City Club show. A discussion led by members of the Men's Club will follow.

In addition, a musical skit satirizing the Round Table and other activities of the Men's Club, written by Mr. Otto Zinner, Mr. Armin Friedman and Mr. Mal Siegel, will be presented.

Sisterhood

Annual Meeting

A novel program is being prepared by a committee of the Sisterhood for the annual meeting to take place on Tuesday, May 12th at 2:00 P. M. Instead of a report of the year's activities rendered by the President, the Chairmen and their committees are planning to present their reports in the form of a dramatic playlet.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30. The Refreshment Committee has arranged to have a splendid luncheon at the nominal cost of sixty cents a plate, and expect a large crowd. You are urged to make your reservation at once. Tickets are available at the office.

Uniongrams for Mother's Day

What better way is there for gladdening the heart of mother on Mother's Day—Sunday, May 10th, than by sending her a Uniongram?

Not only do you remember mother, but you are at the same time aiding the Scholarship Fund which enables some student to proceed with his studies at the Hebrew Union College.

Books of Uniongrams may be obtained in the temple office.

Dear Sisterhood Member:

Please make every effort possible to bring in one or more new members to our Sisterhood. Dues for new members, paid now, will be credited toward the year beginning November 1st, 1931.

A very fine program is being planned for our annual meeting May 12th, and is described elsewhere in this Bulletin.

Pull for your Sisterhood.

(Signed) Ruth B. Stein.

Religious School

Confirmation Class Nite—May 10th

The confirmants and their parents will assemble Sunday evening, May 10th, in our Recreation Hall to participate in Class Nite—the annual event of the Confirmation Class. The supper will be catered. The entire program is being arranged by members of the Confirmation Class.

Oratorical Contests

The Bondy Oratorical Contest for the ninth grade was held last Saturday morning. The following were declared winners:

Boys' Division: Milton Selker, first; Leonard Abrams, second.

Girls' Division: Judith Marx, first; Maxine Goodman and Shirley Sogg, second.

The Machol Oratorical Contest for the High School Department was held last Sunday at 4:30 P. M. in the Recreation Hall. For the boys, Jay Welensky received first place and Howard Weiss, second; for the girls, Maxine Adler and Sylvia Selleck shared the honors.

Named in Temple

On Sabbath morning April 11th, Allan Marc Amster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram W. Amster, was blessed in temple.

We Gratefully Acknowledge the Following Contributions

Altar

Mrs. Manuel Reinthal—In memory of Brother, Mr. Henry B. Fuld.

Library

Mr. Meyer Fersky—In memory of Wife, Blanche Fersky.

A vase was presented the Library in memory of Joseph Jacobs, by the children of his brother's class—VIIB.

In Memoriam

We record in deep sorrow the passing away of

Ella Cohn

The Test of Social and Personal Morality

About as good a dependable measurement of the morality of our life as can be devised and checked by experience, comes from subjecting our conduct (preferably in dramatic rehearsal before we act) to the following tests:

- A.—The moral history of the race as exhibited in the character and career of great men and women who have shown themselves to be "masters of the art of moral living."
- B.—Are we willing that our action be known publicly to the world?
- C.—Is our action capable of wholesome universal extension that it could be adopted by all men without injury to society?
- D.—Can we safely eliminate the personal equation, and measure our conduct as though we were some one else?

If we can answer these tests, then our action is probably moral from the most authentic standpoint we can evolve.

Hothouse

"I often hear it said by weak and sentimental folk that we ought to screen our children from the testings and buffetings of life. I do not believe it," says Dr. Harris E. Kirk of Baltimore, Md., in The Westminster Record.

"My own observation leads me to say that the two prime causes for failure in children are these: a prolonged and weak sentimental indulgence of children in early childhood and youth, and then mischievous interferences with them when they must face life alone as grown men and women. Better never to have had a home than that one's home should make us soft and flabby. Better go out and face the beatings of time and life until you are covered with wounds and bruises than to keep your skin whole within a hothouse of weak sentimentality and selfishness."

Marriage and the Home

Representatives of Catholic, Jewish and Protestant groups are co-operating through the Adult Education Association in planning a two-day conference on the subject of "Marriage and the Home."

Following is the list of speakers and their subjects:

On Thursday, May 7th, 8:00 P. M., in the Cleveland College Auditorium—Mass Meeting. Msgr. James A. McFadden, "Christian Marriage." Rabbi A. H. Silver, "What is Happening to the American Home?" Rev. Miles H. Krumbine, "After Marriage—What?"

On Friday, May 8th, 12:00 noon—Cleveland College Auditorium—Luncheon meeting (Price $1.00). Judge Carl V. Weygandt, "Menaces to Modern Marriage." Rabbi B. R. Brickner, "After Divorce—What?"

On Friday, May 8th, 2:30 P. M.—A Round Table discussion on "What Are Some of the Factors That Make for Happy Married Life?", with some of Cleveland's most prominent public men.

On Friday, May 8th, 6:00 P. M.—Dinner meeting for married couples. Dr. Oscar B. Markey, "Emotional Adjustments." (Price $1.00.)

THE Euclid Avenue Temple extends to you and your family a cordial invitation to attend the Graduation Exercises of the High School Department, Sunday morning, May third, Nineteen Hundred and thirty one at 10 o'clock.
