SUCCOTH

The Succoth festival will be inaugurated with the service on Monday, September 24th at 10:30 A. M. Rabbi Brickner will preach.

The pulpit of the Temple will be converted into a beautiful Succah by our Sisterhood.

The concluding day of Succoth falls on Monday, October 1st.

Consecration Service

The last day of Succoth is known in Jewish tradition as Simchath Torah—rejoicing over the Torah. In keeping with the spirit of the day, the children who have just entered the first grade of our Religious School will take part in the ceremony that will symbolize their entrance into the studies of the Torah and its traditions.

The children will march into the Temple and onto the platform holding their little Torahs. Eight children have been selected to recite and after their impressive pledge to the teaching of Judaism, all the children will be blessed by the Rabbi.

THE LAND WHERE HATE SHOULD DIE

This is the land where hate should die—

No feuds of faith, no spleen of race,
No darkly brooding fear should try
Beneath our flag to find a place.

Lo! every people here has sent

Its sons to answer freedom's call;

Their lifeblood is the strong cement

That builds and binds the nation's wall.

This is the land where hate should die—

Though dear to me my faith and shrine

I serve my country well when I

Respect beliefs that are not mine.

He little loves his land who'd cast

Upon his neighbor's word a doubt,

Or cite the wrongs of ages past

From present rights to bar him out.

This is the land where hate should die—

This is the land where strife should cease

Where foul, suspicious fear should fly

Before our flag of light and peace.

Then let us purge from poisoned thought

That service to the state we give,

And so be worthy as we ought

Of this great land in which we live!

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES OR SUKKOTH

The Jewish festival of Sukkoth or Feast of Tabernacles will be celebrated this year from Sunday night, September 23rd, at sundown, to Monday night, October 1st, at the same time. This festival lasts eight days, and is celebrated by all Jews throughout the world.

It was celebrated by the Jews when they lived in Palestine and were an agricultural people. It marked the close of the harvest and the beginning of the plowing and the rainy season. It was a festival of rejoicing and merry-making when the servant was equal to the master and all united in praising and thanking God for His bountiful gifts.

The Bible commanded that on this festival all the people should make a pilgrimage to the Temple at Jerusalem, and there, after offering their sacrifices, should dwell in booths or tabernacles, temporarily erected of wood and beautifully decorated with fruits and flowers to remind them both of the harvest season and how their ancestors had dwelt in booths in the wilderness. Many Jews still observe the latter custom today. In some synagogues too a modernized form of the harvest festival is celebrated.

Some also celebrate a supplementary festival on the ninth day, called Rejoicing of the Law, because the annual cycle of the reading of the law has been completed and on that day the sacred scrolls of the Law of Moses are rolled back to the beginning of Genesis and the Law is begun to be read anew. In many synagogues the scrolls are taken from the Holy Ark in which they are kept and carried about in solemn procession.

Attention has again been attracted to the Portuguese West African colony of Angola by rumors of its possible acquisition for Jewish settlement. . . The natives suffer extensively from malaria, hookworm, smallpox, leprosy, elephantiasis, and sleeping sickness.—(Detroit Free Press.)

Sounds like something Hitler thought up. (The New Yorker).

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

Season of 1934-35

To our Patrons:

In this, our eighth year, we offer to our membership and the general public, what we consider the most exciting list of speakers and artists it has ever been our privilege to present. The unique thing about our course this year, is that it has been arranged with such discrimination that every one will want to be present at every evening.

There will be four evenings of artistic entertainment instead of the usual two. Single admissions for these four evenings (Chenkin, Enters, Mildner, and Goluboff) will be $1.00 each and 50c for individual lectures. Subscription to the entire course will remain $3.50 representing a substantial saving over single admissions. We are offering a rare treat and a privilege throughout the entire season at a price that is within the reach of every one.

In recognition of the devotion and loyalty our membership has exhibited in the past, the Course Committee this year, will present a complimentary book of tickets to every one who obtains ten course subscriptions.

Sincerely,

THE COMMITTEE.
